Pack My Bag Henry Green, 1993 Green's memoirs of growing up in England the stately home packed with wounded soldiers of World War I the miseries of Eton and later his literary career

Great War Modernism Nanette Norris, 2015-12-16 New Modernist Studies while reviving and revitalizing modernist studies through lively scholarly debate about historicity aesthetics politics and genres is struggling with important questions concerning the delineation that makes discussion fruitful and possible This volume aims to explore and clarify the position of the so called core of literary modernism in its seminal engagement with the Great War In studying the years of the Great War we find ourselves once more studying the giants about whom there is so much more to say as well as adding hitherto marginalized writers and a few visual artists to the canon The contention here is that these war years were seminal to the development of a distinguishable literary practice which is called modernism but perhaps could be further delineated as Great War modernism a practice whose aesthetic merits can be addressed through formal analysis This collection of essays offers new insight into canonical British American European modernism of the Great War period using the critical tools of contemporary expansionist modernist studies By focusing on war and on the experience of the soldier and of those dealing with issues of war and survival these studies link the unique forms of expression found in modernism with the fragmented violent and traumatic experience of the time

The Politics of 1930s British Literature Natasha Periyas, 2018-06-14 Winner of the 2018 International Standing Conference for the History of Education's First Book Award Drawing on a rich array of archival sources and historical detail The Politics of 1930s British Literature tells the story of a school minded decade and illuminates new readings of the politics and aesthetics of 1930s literature In a period of shifting political claims educational policy shaped writers social and gender ideals This book explores how a wide array of writers including Virginia Woolf W H Auden George Orwell Winifred Holtby and Graham Greene were informed by their pedagogic work It considers the ways in which education influenced writers analysis of literary style and their conception of future literary forms The Politics of 1930s British Literature argues that to those perennial symbols of the 1930s the loudspeaker and the gramophone should be added the textbook and the blackboard

Poetry & the Dictionary Andrew Blades, Piers Pennington, 2020 This innovative collection of essays is the first volume to explore the many ways in which dictionaries have stimulated the imaginations of modern and contemporary poets from Britain Ireland and America while also considering how poetry has itself been a rich source of material for lexicographers

Evelyn Waugh Philip Eade, 2017-10-10 Named a Best Book of the Year by The Guardian The Sunday Times and the Financial Times A completely fresh view of one of the most gifted and fascinating writers of our time the enigmatic author of Brideshead Revisited Graham Greene hailed Evelyn Waugh as the greatest novelist of my generation and in recent years Waugh's reputation has only grown Now half a century after Waugh's death in 1966 with Evelyn Waugh Philip Eade has delivered a hugely entertaining biography that is both authoritative and full of new information some of it sensational Drawing on extensive unseen primary sources Eade s book sheds new light on many of the key phases and themes of Waugh s life his difficult relationship with his embarrassingly sentimental father his formative homosexual affairs at Oxford his unrequited love for various Bright Young Things his disastrous first marriage his momentous conversion to Roman Catholicism his unconventional yet successful second marriage his checkered wartime career and his shattering nervous breakdown Along the way we come to understand not only Waugh s complex relationship with the aristocracy but also the astonishing power of his wit and the love fear and loathing that he variously inspired in others Waugh was famously difficult and Eade brilliantly captures the myriad facets of his character even as he casts new light on the novels that have dazzled generations of readers

Reading London in Wartime William Cederwell,2017-11-06 Reading London in Wartime Blitz the People and Propaganda in 1940s Literature presents an expansive variety of writers and genres including non fiction and film approaches to build a comprehensive social picture of the atmosphere during wartime London From blitz and austerity to the nagging insistency of propaganda this volume examines the representation of London in wartime and early post war literature through each writer s unique perspective on the pressures of 1940s city life Exploring the use of London imagery this book considers how literature redirects attention to individual subjective experience at a time of enforced co operation uniformity and community Unlike government information films and news broadcasts which often used London to prop up prevailing clich s and stereotypes and encouraged patriotic support for the war literature had the freedom to express more recalcitrant truths London writing of the 1940s was not a literature of opposition or dissent but in offering more nuanced depictions of the period it was a counterweight to propaganda and the general war temperament In writing the city becomes a more complex place no longer the easy symbol of defiance and stoicism of the shared sacrifice of ration book and war work

Autobiography and Imagination John Pilling,2015-08-20 Originally published in 1981 This book looks at the autobiographical work of nine twentieth century writers Henry Adams Henry James W B Yeats Boris Pasternak Leiris Jean Paul Sartre Vladimir Nabokov Henry Green and Adrian Stokes The author argues that often the writer has shaped his life through his craft coming to understand the pattern of his own existence through the formalism of language In each case the writer stamps his personality on the work by mean of a distinctive verbal surface whose discipline enables him to evade narrow egotism and forces both reader and writer into an act of collaboration and corroboration Written at a time when criticism was turning to focus on the relation between the reader and the text this study added a provocative dimension to the debate and is still an important read today

This Sporting Life Robert Colls,2020-08-28 Why did killing a fox mean liberty What did parish revels have to do with the Peterloo Massacre What did animal cruelty have to do with the English constitution What did the Factory Acts mean for modern football In This Sporting Life Robert Colls explains sport as one of England s great civil cultures The lived experiences of people from all walks of life are reclaimed to tell England s history through its great sporting cultures from the horseback pursuits of the wealthy and politically connected to the street games in working class neighbourhoods which needed nothing but a ball It observes people at play describes how they felt and thought carries the reader along to a match or a hunt or a fight draws out the sounds and smells of humans and animals showing that sport has been as important in defining British culture as gender politics education class and religion The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Narratives of Memory V. Stewart, 2006-10-12 This book identifies memory a previously unexamined concern in both literary and popular writing of the 1940s Emphasizing the use of memory as a structural device this book traces developments in narrative during and immediately after the war Authors include Margery Allingham Elizabeth Bowen Graham Greene Patrick Hamilton and Denton Welch Writing Life Stories Bill Roorbach, 2008-06-17 How to Make Memories into Memoirs Ideas into Essays and Life into Literature From drawing a map of a remembered neighborhood to signing a form releasing yourself to take risks in your work Roorbach offers innovative techniques that will trigger ideas for all writers Writing Life Stories is a classic text that appears on countless creative nonfiction and composition syllabi the world over This updated 10th anniversary edition gives you the same friendly instruction and stimulating exercises along with updated information on current memoir writing trends ethics internet research and even marketing ideas You ll discover how to turn your untold life stories into vivid personal essays and riveting memoirs by learning to open up memory access emotions shape scenes from experience develop characters and research supporting details This guide will teach you to see your life more clearly and show you why real stories are often the best ones Strange Sisters Francesca Orestano, 2009 This collection of essays stems from the conference Nineteenth Century Literature and Aesthetics which was held at the University of Milan in 2006 and organised by the editors of this volume The interface between word and image covered in these essays embraces the fields of literature architecture painting photography music and art criticism The authors stress the role of aesthetics in a number of contexts ranging from the early 1830s to the fin de si cle and beyond as far as the last influences of Victorian taste on the early years of the twentieth century During the nineteenth century the ancient interaction between literature and aesthetics was challenged and criticised by Martineau Rossetti Ruskin Pater Wilde Beardsley Cameron and Carroll among others their awareness of the complexity of visual perception problematised the existing categories of realism artistic conventions discourse of description translation and representation The essays cover almost a century of debate between literature and aesthetics They focus on the intersection of word and image by emphasising transgressions in art hierarchies forms and languages which restyle existing categories and project them into new aesthetic dimensions beyond the conventional idea of the sister arts

Men and Menswear Laura Ugolini, 2017-03-02 Despite increasing academic interest in both the study of masculinity and the history of consumption there are still few published studies that bring together both concerns By investigating the changing nature of the retailing of menswear this book illuminates wider aspects of masculine identity as well as patterns of male consumption between the years 1880 and 1939 While previous historical studies of masculinity have focused overwhelmingly on the moral spiritual and physical characteristics associated with notions of manliness this book considers the relationship between men and activities which were widely considered to be at least potentially unmanly selling as well as buying clothes thus shedding new light on men's lives and identities in this period
