Britain Sir Julian Paget,1979 A Pageant of British Steam Geoff Swaine,2018-10-30 A Pageant of British Steam is a book honouring the position to which Britains Heritage Steam Railways has now arrived Preservation has become the word for the achievements of the thousands of volunteers who have given up a mass of time to advance the saving of this section of Britains history Most of these people are the likely descendants of our Industrial Revolution where the skills have never been forgotten The book shows in fine color photography the wonderful selection of locomotives and rolling stock running on our preserved lines all across the country Text highlights the historical background of railway history from the earliest times right through to the end of steam in the nineteen sixties Geoff Swaine has emerged to be a leader in this field of photography be it lineside or heritage working steam His style is one of his own where the subject leaps from the page usually bathed in fine sunlight with blue sky above Informative captions accompany every picture not only targeting the novice or newcomer to the subject but the experienced rail enthusiast will also be pleased to learn a thing or two This book strongly features the historical background as well as catching some of the people who now revel in dressing the part to prove their love of this enthralling and popular subject The Pageant of British History J. E. Parrot,2021-01-18 The Pageant of London

Richard Davey,1906 Colour Films in Britain Sarah Street,Keith M. Johnston,Paul Frith,Carolyn Rickards,2021-11-18 The story of Eastmancolor s arrival on the British filmmaking scene is one of intermittent trial and error intense debate and speculation before gradual acceptance This book traces the journey of its adoption in British Film and considers its lasting significance as one of the most important technical innovations in film history Through original archival research and interviews with key figures within the industry the authors examine the role of Eastmancolor in relation to key areas of British cinema since the 1950s including its economic and structural histories different studio and industrial strategies and the wider aesthetic changes that took place with the mass adoption of colour Their analysis of British cinema through the lens of colour produces new interpretations of key British film genres including social realism historical and costume drama science fiction horror crime documentary and even sex films They explore how colour communicated meaning in films ranging from the Carry On series to Monty Python s Life of Brian 1979 from Lawrence of Arabia 1962 to A Passage to India 1984 and from Goldfinger 1964 to 1984 1984 and in the work of key directors and cinematographers of both popular and art

Index of the Modern Books Acquired by the British Museum in the Years ...* ,1927 Queen Boudica and Historical Culture in Britain Martha Vandrei,2018-05-24 Taking a long chronological view and a wide ranging interdisciplinary approach this is an innovative and distinctive book It is the definitive work on the posthumous reputation of the ever popular warrior queen of the Iceni Queen Boadicea Boudica exploring her presence in British historical discourse from the early modern rediscovery of the works of Tacitus to the first historical films of the early twentieth century In doing so the book seeks to demonstrate the continuity and persistence of historical ideas across time and throughout a variety of media This focus on continuity leads into an examination of the nature of history as a cultural phenomenon and the implications this has for our own conceptions of history and its role in culture more generally While providing contemporary contextual readings of Boudica s representations Martha Vandrei also explores the unique nature of historical ideas as durable cultural phenomena articulated by very different individuals over time all of whom were nevertheless engaged in the creative process of making history Thus this study presents a challenge to the axioms of cultural history new historicism and other mainstays of twentieth and twenty first century historical scholarship It shows how long before professional historians sought to monopolise historical practice audiences encountered visions of past ages created by antiquaries playwrights poets novelists and artists all of which engaged with articulated and even defined the meaning of historical truth This book argues that these individual depictions variable audience reactions and the abiding notion of history as truth constitute the substance of historical culture Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the British Museum Library British Museum. Department of Printed Books,1922 Subject Index of the Modern Books Acquired by the British Museum in the Years

Bacon,1911 The British Consumer Co-operative Movement and Film, 1890s-1960s Alan Burton,2005-09-03 This volume provides a new study on the Co operative Movement s engagement with film for educational cultural and publicity purposes It provides insights into the political and commercial use of cinema in the 20th century and significantly extends our understanding of the achievements of workers cinema in Britain Great Britain and the East ,1923
