Parentcare: a common sense guide for grown-up children Lissy F. Jarvik, Parentcare Lissy F. Jarvik, Gary Small, 1988

Saying Goodbye David H. Klein, 1997 Tells us how we must transform our conception of ourselves as children in order to play a fully adult role in relation to our aging parents A why to as well as a how to book Jacket

Parentcare Lissy Jarvik, Lissy F. Jarvik, 1990 A practical indispensable book for the millions of people in the sandwich generation caught in the middle between responsibility for their growing up children and the needs of their aging ailing parents

The Rotarian , 1988-07 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine

Mental Health and the Elderly Francis J. Turner, 2010-06-15 The demographic shift to a much older population is having a large impact on social work professionals who have traditionally been the primary caretakers of the elderly As more people are living into advanced old age it is becoming increasingly important to understand and treat the wide range of psychological disorders which may affect them rather than simply attributing the disorders to senescence as was frequently done in the past

Mental Health and the Elderly A Social Work Perspective is a comprehensive guide to diagnosis and treatment of the range of disorders affecting the elderly Handbook of Dementia Care Jean M. Stehman, 1996 Even in the earliest stages of progressive dementia patients have difficulty evaluating their own needs and engaging in appropriate activities A therapeutic program of care including constructive activities and behavior management is necessary for maximizing patients functioning and quality of life The Handbook of Dementia Care and its companion Training Manual and Video for Dementia Care Specialists offer a complete training system for teachers and students providing dementia care in a variety of settings Developed at the well known George G Glenner Alzheimer s Family Centers the program s instructor s manual and student handbook are organized into six teaching modules basic information on dementia positive interaction techniques supportive physical environment therapeutic activities group activities and family support Each module is accompanied by a videotaped lecture and demonstration presentation to further illustrate the topic being discussed This exciting project is a comprehensive instructional tool for dementia care professionals working in adult day centers long term care and residential settings hospitals nursing homes and home health care agencies

Riekse, Henry Holstege, 1992 A growing segment of middle aged Americans are still raising their own families while faced with caring for their aging parents Supported by gerontological research this guide explains the dynamics of the aging process and offers practical guidance in areas such as finances and housing Social Gerontology Nancy R. Hooyman, H. Asuman Kiyak, 1993 Aging is a fact of life We see our parents and grandparents go through it We even see ourselves go through it As we get older we enter a distinct stage of life complete with its own biological issues and psychological and social ones too Yet most books on social aging ignore the psychological and biological aspects of aging that make the social issues so important This book provides a complete look at aging so that we can better understand the older stage of life for both ourselves and those around us This book presents a multidisciplinary perspective on social aging It takes the approach of the older person in context and how age related changes in the biological functional and psychological domains can influence the older person s interactions with his her social and physical environment Unique features include an original approach a multidisciplinary perspective a framework based on research findings and attention to differences by age gender ethnic minority status sexual orientation and socio economic class Social workers psychologists gerontology professionals and professors Aging and Mental Health Robert N. Butler, Myrna I. Lewis, Trey Sunderland, 1998 Designed for professionals working with the elderly this text provides comprehensive coverage of the ageing process and its effects on mental health It sets out the nature and problems of old age including the problems of older people in their families and explores some of the common emotional problems and psychiatric disorders which can affect the elderly It also outlines the evaluation treatment and prevention of some common effects of ageing There is specific coverage of race ethnicity gender crime alcoholism and physical disabilities including deafness and blindness Caregiving for Your Loved Ones Mary Vaughn Armstrong, 1990 Manual of Psychiatric Therapeutics Richard I. Shader, 1994

Families who Care Constance L. Coogle, Ruth B. Finley, 1994 Although this training manual was developed as a tool for trainers of African American and rural family caregivers of elders with dementia it can easily be adapted for trainers of caregivers both formal and informal of persons other than those with dementia The first section educates potential trainers about dementia rural issues ethnic competence adult learning theory and strategies for conducting workshops An extensive list of references accompanies most chapters Tips for trainers suggestions for outreach a sample press release and answers to evaluation study questions are also included in this section The second section consists of comprehensive lesson plans sequenced according to the progression of dementia Its purpose is to provide single source ready to use materials and to minimize preparation time for trainers Each lesson plan includes a goal rationale educational objectives lecture information

audio visual materials suggested learning activities and references and suggested readings The appendix includes information on the Virginia Center on Aging program replication and project associates and trainers LP When a Loved One is Ill Leonard Felder,1991 Parenting from the Heart: A Guide to the Essence of Parenting from the Inside-Out Jack Pransky,2012-09-10 Just when you thought you ve heard it all Parenting from the Heart offers a new and different refreshing approach to parenting This easy to understand down to earth book moves beyond parenting theories and techniques to get to the heart of parenting If parents know how to look within their hearts to find the answers they need parenting techniques are not necessary If parents know how to find a loving connection with their children at most times discipline and consequences are rarely necessary All parents have it within them to bring out the best in their children Approaching parents in this way makes parenting a true pleasure instead of the battle and chore it often becomes Many so called experts say that raising kids is the toughest job any of us will ever do but it does not have to be that way It can be the most joyful thing any of us will ever do Parenting from the Heart is a must resource for anyone who cares about parenting and raising children About the Author Jack Pransky Ph D is Director of the Center for Inside Out Understanding and is an international consultant and trainer for the prevention of problem behaviors and the promotion of well being He also authored the books Somebody Should Have Told Us Modello A Story of Hope for the Inner City and Beyond Prevention from the Inside Out Prevention The Critical Need and co authored both the Healthy Thinking Feeling Doing from the Inside Out curriculum and guide for middle school students and What Is A Thought A Thought Is A Lot a picture book for little children Pransky has worked in the field of prevention since 1968 in a wide variety of capacities He has offered parenting training and consultation to a great number of parents and has trained many parenting course instructors

The Top Books of the Year Parentcare A Common Sense Guide For Grown Up Children The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Parentcare A Common Sense Guide For Grown Up Children : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Parentcare A Common Sense Guide For Grown Up Children : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
