Stuart Watson,Christopher H. Skinner,2004-08-03 One volume reference work with approximately 250 entries organized alphabetically for ease of use and of locating subject matter Each entry will contain 5-8 references as well as a bibliography of references and suggested readings An authoritative reference text on school psychology that would appeal to and be understood by a broad audience Will assist individuals in acquiring a general understanding of some of the theories practices and language associated with the field of school psychology The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002

The Skeptical Inquirer, 2001 Psychology for AS Level Erika Cox, 2000 Psychology for AS Level has been specially written to satisfy the AS Level requirement of AQA Specification A AEB It is also a useful resource for other AS and A Levels and for Scottish Higher Up to date summaries of key research studies are supported by full references at the back of the book Psychology at the Movies Skip Dine Young, 2012-03-14 Psychology at the Movies explores the insights to be gained by applying various psychological lenses to popular films including cinematic depictions of human behavior the psychology of filmmakers and the impact of viewing movies Uses the widest range of psychological approaches to explore movies the people who make them and the people who watch them Written in an accessible style with vivid examples from a diverse group of popular films such as The Silence of the Lambs The Wizard of Oz Star Wars Taxi Driver Good Will Hunting and A Beautiful Mind Brings together psychology film studies mass communication and cultural studies to provide an interdisciplinary perspective Features an extensive bibliography for further exploration of various research fields Toward A Psychology of Persons William E. Smythe, 2013-05-13 This closely integrated collection of essays constitutes a wide ranging and comprehensive attempt to understand persons within psychology a long lost enterprise The volume was inspired by the observation that contemporary psychology has become increasingly depersonalized in its conceptions and its methodology and has thereby lost touch with its traditional subject matter of human individuality and the nature of persons This development now threatens the integrity of psychology as a discipline Using both a critical and constructive approach the various contributors share two common objectives to explore the roots of depersonalization in modern psychology through systematic criticism of contemporary functionalist and neo functionalist approaches to articulate some alternative holistic interpretive and historical approaches to the psychology of persons Despite these common objectives the chapters reflect a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and approaches including cognitive science and neuroscience discursive psychology hermeneutics social constructionism semiotics rhetorical analysis and psychological aesthetics These essays do not converge on a unified psychology of persons but they do serve to reopen a form of discourse that has long been absent from mainstream psychology This volume emerged from the deliberations of the Western Canadian Theoretical Psychologists WCTP a group of scholars primarily from Western Canadian universities with shared interests in the history and theory of psychology From its founding in 1989 to the present the WCTP has been actively engaged in promoting and contributing to the development of theoretical psychology Over the past half dozen years scholars have greatly benefitted from the close collaboration and collegial support that participation in the WCTP makes possible The annual meetings provide an opportunity for them to catch up on each other's work and also to pool their expertise to work on topics of shared interest
