Reclaiming Our Schools Whose Kids Are They Anyway:

Reclaiming Our Schools Richard Lee King, 1999 Written by an educator in everyday language Reclaiming Our Schools is a guide for parents both dismayed by a public school system producing students scoring among the lowest of all industrialized national and unsure of what to do about it Included are non confrontational questions for school administrators both research and common sense challenging current educational practices and a detailed examination of the myths driving them

Education Teaching Whose Kids Are They Anyway? Raymond R. Roberts, 2010-11-01 Raymond R Roberts makes a liberal s case for teaching religion and morality in public schools by first examining the intersection of religion and public education He shows how proposals for moral education in public schools are shaped by definitions of religion He argues that the public education s critics overstate the failures of public education because they examine public schools in isolation from negative trends in the family the economy the media etc From there he describes how a theory of spheres of influence gives us a better perspective from which to understand public education including its relationship with religion

 Brandon Tatum, 2023-03-13 What do we want for the next generation What does our future hold What can we do as adults to foster a positive future for our kids Most parents grandparents teachers and ministers I talk to want to equip the next generation with the necessary tools to be difference makers in their world but they don't know how to It feels as if we are fighting against a cultural wave that is making it harder and harder to lead our kids to love God and make a difference So what do we do This book takes a deep look into the culture of Generation Z and Generation Alpha The intent is to create an understanding of how to raise a generation of contributors to the kingdom and how to remove the barriers that stand in our way We all know that these emerging generations are welcoming us into a new digital frontier full of consumption technology and entertainment that is more focused on happiness than contribution Our kids are also living in a world of skepticism about truth and faith We will unpack these faith questions and explore the tensions that exist between older and younger generations Our kids are the future of our churches cities states and country It is critical that we begin to acknowledge that as adults we must be intentional in understanding the culture our kids live in and be humble in our approaches to developing them as faithful servants and successful adults So how do we raise contributors Let's begin to discuss practical ways to raise kids who are image bearers and difference makers I call these kids contributors
