The Burden of Modernity Carlos J. Alonso, 1998 This book offers a provocative interpretation of cultural discourse in Spanish America Alonso argues that Spanish American cultural production constituted itself through commitment to what he calls the narrative of futurity that is the uncompromising adoption of modernity This commitment fueled a rhetorical crisis that followed the embracing of discourses regarded as modern in historical and economic circumstance that are themselves the negation of modernity Through fresh readings of texts by Sarmiento Mansilla Quiroga Vargas Llosa Garcia Marquez and others Alonso tracks this textual dynamic in works from the nineteenth century to the present

Proceed with Caution, when Engaged by Minority Writing in the Americas Doris Sommer, 1999 Let the reader beware Educated readers naturally feel entitled to know what they're reading often if they try hard enough to know it with the conspiratorial intimacy of a potential partner This book reminds us that cultural differences may in fact make us targets of a text not its co-conspirators Some literature especially culturally particular or minority literature actually uses its differences and distances to redirect our desire for intimacy toward more cautious respectful engagements To name these figures of cultural discontinuity to describe a rhetoric of particularism in the Americas is the purpose of Proceed with Caution In a series of daring forays from seventeenth century Inca Garcilaso de la Vega to Julio Cortázar and Mario Vargas Llosa Doris Sommer shows how ethnically marked texts use enticing and frustrating language games to keep readers engaged with difference Gloria Estefan's syncopated appeal to solidarity plays on Whitman's undifferentiated ideal unrequitable seductions echo through Rigoberta Menchú's protestations of secrecy Toni Morrison's interrupted confession the rebuffs in a Mexican testimonial novel In these and other examples Sommer trains us to notice the signs that affirm a respectful distance as a condition of political fairness and aesthetic effect warnings that will be audible and engaging for readings that tolerate difference once we listen for a rhetoric of particularism

José Donoso's House of Fiction Flora María González Mandri, 1995 This volume examines the multiple narrative perspectives Donoso presents and traces a transformation in Donoso's works from complex stage performance to political forum Studying fiction as grotesque mannered theater or as a transparent screen through which social and political concerns are scrutinized Gonzalez Mandri illuminates another constant in Donoso's work a weaving of feminine and masculine aspects of artistic voice as they incorporate the idioms of drama radio film and television

The Return of the Storyteller in Contemporary Fiction Areti Dragas, 2014-08-31 Focusing on the figure of the storyteller this study breaks new ground in the approach to reading contemporary literature by identifying a growing interest in storytelling For the last thirty years contemporary fiction has been influenced by theoretical discourses textuality and writing Only since the rise of postcolonialism have academic critics been more overtly interested in stories where high theory frameworks are less applicable However as we move through various contemporary contexts engaging with postcolonial identities and hybridity to narratives of disability and evolutionary accounts of group and individual survival a common feature of all is the centrality of story which posits both the idea of survival and the passing on of traditions The Return of the Storyteller in Contemporary

Fiction closely examines this preoccupation with story and storytelling through a close reading of six contemporary international novelists that are either about actual storytellers or engage with the figure of the storyteller revealing how death of the author has given birth to the storyteller The Writings of Carlos Fuentes Raymond Leslie Williams, 2010-07-01 Smitten by the modernity of Cervantes and Borges at an early age Carlos Fuentes has written extensively on the cultures of the Americas and elsewhere His work includes over a dozen novels among them The Death of Artemio Cruz Christopher Unborn The Old Gringo and Terra Nostra several volumes of short stories numerous essays on literary cultural and political topics and some theater In this book Raymond Leslie Williams traces the themes of history culture and identity in Fuentes work particularly in his complex major novel Terra Nostra He opens with a biography of Fuentes that links his works to his intellectual life The heart of the study is Williams extensive reading of the novel Terra Nostra in which Fuentes explores the presence of Spanish culture and history in Latin America Williams concludes with a look at how Fuentes other fiction relates to Terra Nostra including Fuentes own division of his work into fourteen cycles that he calls La Edad del Tiempo and with an interview in which Fuentes discusses his concept of this cyclical division Unhomely Rooms Roberto Ignacio Díaz, 2002 Even as he exposes the cultural fragmentation of Spanish America Díaz's critical gesture allows strangeness to become an integral part not only of individuals as Freud argues in The Uncanny but also of national cultural communities BOOK JACKET

Miguel de Cervantes's Don Quixote Harold Bloom, Sterling Professor of Humanities Harold Bloom, 2010 Arguably the most influential work to emerge from Spain's Golden Age Don Quixote laid the groundwork for the Western literary canon and remains one of its major achievements The Seductions of Biography David Suchoff, Mary Rhiel, 2016-02-04 The Seductions of Biography is an important volume which sheds new light on a flourishing literary form the biography In postmodern culture new methods and intentions emerge as well as new obstacles towards our understanding of biography as a genre This book provides a thorough exploration of this genre from a wide range of postmodern perspectives The Seductions of Biography brings together a number of essays which reflect in culturally critical as well as autobiographical terms on current themes and practices of contemporary biography Issues addressed by these essays focus on the postmodern dilemma itself as new voices from excluded communities make themselves heard in biographical works the decentralization of new issues such as gender ethnicity and sexuality becomes problematic Contributors question the responsibilities a biographer has both to the subject and the public and consider also questions of morality and taste for example is it fair to use private tapings made by your subject's analyst And how much do we really need to know about Eleanor Roosevelt's sex life The impact of sexuality on our reading of public figures is addressed as well as other issues which explore the popular and provocative nature of biography Interdisciplinary and wide ranging in scope The Seductions of Biography will appeal to biographers historians cultural critics and the vast population of avid biography readers Contributors Kwame Anthony Appiah Clark Blaise Marilyn L Brownstein Blanche Wiesen Cook John D Emilio Jeffrey Louis Decker Michael Eric Dyson

Decolonizing Modernism Jose Luis Venegas, 2017-07-05 James Joyce's Ulysses 1922 has been recognized as a central model for the Spanish American New Narrative Joyce's linguistic and technical influence became the unequivocal sign that literature in Spanish America had definitively abandoned narrow regionalist concerns and entered a global literary canon In this bold and wide ranging study Jose Luis Venegas rethinks this evolutionary conception of literary history by focusing on the connection between cultural specificity and literary innovation He argues that the intertextual dialogue between James Joyce and prominent authors such as Argentines Jorge Luis Borges and Julio Cortazar Cuban Guillermo Cabrera Infante and Mexican Fernando del Paso reveals the anti colonial value of modernist form Venegas explores the historical similarities between Joyce's Ireland during the 1920s and Spanish America between the 1940s and 70s to challenge depoliticized interpretations of modernist aesthetics and propose unsuspected connections between formal experimentation and the cultural transformations demanded by decolonizing societies Jose Luis Venegas is Visiting Assistant Professor of Spanish at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro

Excess Baggage Jonathan Pitcher, 2009 Excess Baggage investigates how we read modern theory how we apprehend Latin American culture through that theory why this approach is flawed and how our reading could be different It is a study of modernity's supersessive paradoxical attempts to outthink thought This methodology never autochthonous to any context despite its claims is traced through one of its more extreme moments the Enlightenment and then through the work of Freud Nietzsche and Marx and their more recent postmodern acolytes to the Reformation Although these thinkers are self differentiating the divisions are artificial for each even in present formats references a preternatural origin that is subsequently projected into the future disavowing history's ability to perceive itself as anything other than revolutionary This book traces post 1960 Latin Americanism through readings by its critics cum theorists as dictatorially assigning a univocal reading to a continent's cultural production regardless of how ethical the theory may itself seem Though predominantly a metacritical work a reading of philosophy and its Latin Americanist manifestations there is also comparative reading of European North American and Latin American literature Meaning has always existed in all such contexts but is either eradicated or misread by the premises of our critical equipment In fact or fiction Excess Baggage appeals for an admission of contextualized mnemotechny inevitable in thought regardless and the real danger in the present milieu
