Reclaiming The Muse:

Reclaiming the muse, 1994 Reclaiming the Muse Nicola LeFanu, Sophie Fuller, 1991 Pandora's Senses Vered

Lev Kenaan, 2008-02-05 The notorious image of Pandora haunts mythology a woman created as punishment for the crimes of man she is the bearer of hope yet also responsible for the earth's desolation She binds together perpetuating dichotomies that underlie the most fundamental aspects of the Western canon beauty and evil body and soul depth and superficiality truth and lie Speaking in multiplicity Pandora emerges as the first sign of female complexity In this compelling study Vered Lev Kenaan offers a radical revision of the Greek myth of the first woman She argues that Pandora leaves a decisive mark on ancient poetics and shows that we can unravel the profound impact of Pandora's image once we recognize that Pandora embodies the very idea of the ancient literary text Locating the myth of the first woman right at the heart of feminist interrogation of gender and textuality Pandora's Senses moves beyond a feminist critique of masculine hegemony and shows the centrality of this iconic figure among the poetics of such central genres as the cosmological and didactic epic the Platonic dialogue the love elegy and the ancient novel Pandora's Senses innovates our understanding of gender as a critical lens through which to view ancient literature

Housework, the Unseen Art : Contemporary Women Poets Reclaim the Domestic Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-23 Housework the Unseen Art Contemporary Women Poets Reclaim the Domestic is a groundbreaking exploration of the domestic sphere through the lens of poetry This thought provoking collection brings together the voices of talented female poets who have found inspiration and empowerment within the walls of their own homes Through their words we gain a glimpse into the rich and complex inner lives of these individuals discovering the ways in which they have navigated the challenges and joys of domesticity From the seemingly mundane tasks of cleaning and cooking to the profound experiences of motherhood and family life these poets uncover the hidden beauty humor and resilience that lie within the everyday This book is more than just a collection of poems it is a testament to the power of creativity and the resilience of the human spirit It is a book that will resonate with anyone who has ever found solace inspiration or a sense of purpose within the confines of their own home Housework the Unseen Art challenges traditional notions of housework and reveals its transformative potential It celebrates the unsung heroines of the home the women who have dared to find beauty in the mundane and who have used their voices to redefine the very essence of domesticity Within these pages we embark on a journey of introspection and discovery where the domestic sphere becomes a canvas upon which the human experience is painted in all its richness and complexity Prepare to be inspired challenged and ultimately transformed as we explore the unseen art of housework through the eyes of some of the most talented and insightful poets of our time This groundbreaking collection is a must read for anyone interested in women's poetry domesticity or the transformative power of creativity It is a book that will stay with you long after you finish reading it inspiring you to see the world around you in a new light If you like this book write a review on google books

Games and Bereavement Sabine

Harrer,2019-04-10 How can videogames portray love and loss Games and Bereavement answers this question by looking at five videogames and carrying out a participatory design study with griever Sabine Harrer highlights possible connections between grief and videogames arguing that game design may help make difficult personal feelings tangible After a brief literary review of grief concepts and videogame theory the book deep dives into examples of tragic inter character relationships from videogame history Building on these examples the book presents a case study on pregnancy loss as a potential grief experience that can be validated through game design dialogue Laughing with Medusa Vanda

Zajko,Miriam Leonard,2006-01-12 Laughing with Medusa explores a series of interlinking questions including Does history s self positioning as the successor of myth result in the exclusion of alternative narratives of the past How does feminism exclude itself from certain historical discourses Why has psychoanalysis placed myth at the centre of its explorations of the modern subject Why are the Muses feminine Do the categories of myth and politics intersect or are they mutually exclusive Does feminism s recourse to myth offer a script of resistance or commit it to an ineffective utopianism Covering a wide range of subject areas including poetry philosophy science history and psychoanalysis as well as classics this book engages with these questions from a truly interdisciplinary perspective It includes a specially commissioned work of fiction Iphigeneia s Wedding by the poet Elizabeth Cook The Classics in Modernist Translation Lynn Kozak,Miranda Hickman,2019-02-07

This volume sheds new light on a wealth of early 20th century engagement with literature of Graeco Roman antiquity that significantly shaped the work of anglophone literary modernism The essays spotlight translation a concept the modernists themselves used to reckon with the Classics and to denote a range of different kinds of reception from more literal to more liberal translation work as well as forms of what contemporary reception studies would term adaptation refiguration and intervention As the volume s essays reveal modernist translations of Classical texts crucially informed the innovations of many modernists and often themselves constituted modernist literary projects Thus the volume responds to gaps in both Classical reception and Modernist studies essays treat a comparatively understudied area in Classical reception by reviving work in a subfield of Modernist studies relatively inactive in recent decades but enjoying renewed attention through the recent work of contributors to this volume The volume s essays address work significantly informed by Classical materials including Homer Sophocles Euripides Sappho Ovid and Propertius and approach a range of modernist writers Pound and H D among the modernists best known for work engaging the Classics as well as Cummings Eliot Joyce Laura Riding and Yeats

Ancient Obscenities Dorota Dutsch,Ann Suter,2015-11-18 References to the body s sexual and excretory functions occupy a peculiarly ambivalent space in Greece and Rome Women Poets and Myth in the 20th and 21st Centuries Rosa

Burillo,María Porras Sánchez,Esther Sánchez-Pardo,2018-10-29 This book rereads and re examines the important tradition of women poets and theorists who have both critically and creatively engaged with the study and reconsideration of the role played by myths in our Western society assessing their impact in different eras Such poets and theorists as H D Laura Riding

Denise Levertov Margaret Atwood Anne Carson and Natalie Diaz have responded to myths either by recreating rewriting and interrogating the power of myths to articulate our reality or by creating and begetting new myths for the present In order to interrogate whether myths throughout the 20th and 21st centuries can act as catalysts for new ideas and imaginative re creations this volume travels the path of essential works of poetry by women Essays in Memory of Richard Helgerson Roze Hentschell,Kathy Lavezzo,2012 Essays in Memory of Richard Helgerson Laureations brings together new essays by leading literary scholars of the British and European middle ages and early modern period who have been influenced by the groundbreaking scholarship of Richard Helgerson The contributors evince the ongoing impact of Helgerson s work in critical debates including those of nationalism formal analysis and literary careerism A Companion to Ancient Greek and Roman Music Tosca A. How Women Became Poets Emily Hauser, 2025-11-04 How the idea of the author was born in the battleground of gender When Sappho sang her songs the only word that existed to describe a poet was a male one aoidos or singer man The most famous woman poet of ancient Greece whose craft was one of words had no words with which to talk about who she was and what she did In How Women Became Poets Emily Hauser rewrites the story of Greek literature as one of gender arguing that the ways the Greeks talked about their identity as poets constructed played with and broke down gender expectations that literature was for men alone Bringing together recent studies in ancient authorship gender and performativity Hauser offers a new history of classical literature that redefines the canon as a constant struggle to be heard through and sometimes despite gender Women as Virginia Woolf recognized need rooms of their own in order to write So too have women writers through history needed a name to describe what it is they do Hauser traces the invention of that name in ancient Greece exploring the archaeology of the gendering of the poet She follows ancient Greek poets philosophers and historians as they developed and debated the vocabulary for authorship on the battleground of gender building up and reinforcing the word for male poet then in response creating a language with which to describe women who write Crucially Hauser reinserts women into the traditionally all male canon of Greek literature arguing for the centrality of their role in shaping ideas around authorship and literary production Poetry and Dialogism M. Scanlon, C. Engbers, 2014-08-05 These essays extend an ongoing conversation on dialogic qualities of poetry by positing various foundations practices and purposes of poetic dialogism The authors enrich and diversify the theoretical discourse on dialogic poetry and connect it to fertile critical fields like ethnic studies translation studies and ethics and literature A Handbook to the Reception of Classical Mythology
