Catholic Church told through the lives of the last seven popes When the jolly Italian peasant turned cardinal Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli of Venice was elected Pope John XXIII in 1958 change was in the air The Church many said had refused to enter the twentieth century In response Pope John launched Vatican II an ecumenical council that summoned hundreds of church leaders to Rome It marked one of the most progressive turns the Church had taken in centuries medicine of mercy as Pope John called it Yet not everyone in the Church was prepared to accept this modernization The lines were drawn in a battle that continues to rage into the twenty first century In Jesus Wept Philip Shenon takes us inside the Holy See to reveal its intricacies hypocrisies and hidden maneuverings bringing all the momentous disputes and issues vividly to life priestly celibacy birth control homosexuality restoring ties with other Christians and Jews shameful sex abuse crimes the role of women in the Church In his rich portrayals of the popes from John to Francis Shenon draws on research across four continents including hundreds of interviews and the exhaustive archival material He also brings to light other key figures in the Church such as Cardinal Alfredo Ottaviani the incredibly powerful conservative and staunchly anticommunist director of the Holy Office under Pius XII who lived proudly by the motto semper idem always the same This is a consummate vibrant history of the modern Church

Educating for Faith and Justice Thomas P. Rausch, 2010-01-01 Catholic colleges and universities play a crucial role in handing on a rich faith tradition to young adults today As these institutions have become more professional and pluralistic many are asking how effective they are at carrying out the religious mission which is central to their identity Are Catholic colleges and universities significantly different from less expensive state institutions or from other private colleges and universities Are they still committed to the search for truth which is really the search for God Thomas Rausch an eminent educator is a Catholic priest long interested in Catholic theology as a work of the church not just of the academy He insists we must also ask of Catholic higher education today Does it truly form students in the faith that does justice or does it simply speed their passage into successful corporate lifestyles Does it help students come to a personal encounter with the divine mystery revealed in Jesus Keeping these questions before them Rausch and five other contributors to this volume provide wisdom insight and concrete examples of how Catholic higher education can indeed foster faith that leads to a more just world Thomas P Rausch SJ is the T Marie Chilton Professor of Catholic Theology at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles He is author of numerous books including I Believe in God A Reflection on the Apostles Creed Being Catholic in a Culture of Choice and Towards a Truly Catholic Church Liturgical Press
