Reconstructing Individualism ,1988 Reconstructing Individualism Thomas C. Heller,Morton Sosna,David E. Wellbery,1986 Postmodernity and the Fragmentation of Welfare John Carter,2012-10-12 Postmodern ideas have been vastly influential in the social sciences and beyond However their impact on the study of social policy has been minimal Postmodernity and the Fragmentation of Welfare analyses the potential for a postmodern or cultural turn in welfare as it treats postmodernity as an evolving canon from the seminal works of Baudrillard Foucault and Lyotard through to recent theories of the risk society Already disorientated by globalisation new technologies and the years of new right ascendancy welfare faces a significant challenge in the postmodern It suggests that rather than universality and state provision the new social policy will be consumerised and fragmented a welfare state of ambivalence With contributions from authors coming from a variety of fields offering very different perspectives on postmodernity and welfare Postmodernity and the Fragmentation of Welfare also keeps social policy s intellectual inheritance in view By exploring ways in which theorisations of postmodernity might improve understanding of welfare issues in the 1990s and assessing the relevance of theories of diversity and difference to mainstream and critical social policy traditions this book will be an essential text for all students of social policy social administration social work and sociology Moral Injury and Soldiers in Conflict Tine Molendijk,2021-03-15 This book advances an interdisciplinary understanding of moral injury by analyzing the stories of military veterans of combat and peace missions In the past decade the concept of moral injury has emerged to address the potential moral impact of deployment This book contributes to an interdisciplinary conceptualization of moral injury while at the same time critically evaluating the concept s premises and implications It paints an urgent and compassionate picture of the moral impact of soldiers deployment experience and the role of political practices and public perceptions in moral injury It does so by drawing on the experiences of close to a hundred Dutch veterans deployed to Bosnia Srebrenica and Afghanistan and analyzing their stories from the perspectives of psychology philosophy theology and social sciences Ultimately this book advances the understanding of moral political and societal dimensions of moral injury and contributes to practical efforts aimed at its prevention This book will be of much interest to students of ethics and war cultural anthropology conflict studies and international relations Edge of Catastrophe Roger Frie,2024-07-16 In Edge of Catastrophe Roger Frie introduces readers for the first time to the unpublished Holocaust letters in the family of the public intellectual and psychoanalyst Erich Fromm The letters provide new insights into Fromm s life and work particularly in relation to his lifelong concerns with fascism racism and human destructiveness The image of Fromm that emerges enriches our understanding of what it means to be both a social critic and practicing psychologist In light of the racial hatred antisemitism and political crises we see today this book demonstrates that a politics of engagement and a psychology of well being go hand in hand Neoliberalism, Management and Religion Edward Wray-Bliss,2019-03-14 The use of non secular

religious concepts in contemporary managerial discourse to legitimise leadership organisation and work has been undertheorised Concepts such as organisational soul Spiritual Leadership a wider deification and demonisation of leaders and the mantra of individual freedom each evoke long religio historical roots The deployment of such terms in the present to re enrol people into the service of capitalism speaks both to high levels of religious belief worldwide and more specifically to a history of religion intersecting with public life in the US a context pivotal in the development and dissemination of managerialism and wider neoliberal discourse Organised around the concepts of Gods Devils Soul and the Individual this book will show how these concepts are being employed in current managerial leadership and organisation discourses critically examine the religio historical and philosophical roots of such and demonstrate how the religio historical and religio philosophical can be brought into the lexicon of critical organisational scholarship to provide a language to engage with the non secular legitimization of capitalism and its institutions In so doing this book is a timely addition to organisation and management theory It comes at a time that is witnessing a wider theological turn in continental philosophy mounting calls within organisation studies to take religion seriously and an ongoing legitimization crisis of neoliberalism one that is raising pivotal questions concerning how neoliberalism endures despite the deprivations and harms it occasions This book is intended to be engaging and erudite drawing upon a trans disciplinary combination of popular and academic management texts contemporary and classical philosophy literature and religio historical sources foundational in the construction of the Western subject

Gender, Culture and Human Rights Siobhán Mullally, 2006-05-26 In recent years feminist theory has increasingly defined itself in opposition to universalism and to discourses of human rights Rejecting the troubled legacies of Enlightenment thinking feminists have questioned the very premises upon which the international human rights movement is based Rather than abandoning human rights discourse however this book argues that feminism should reclaim the universal and reconstruct the theory and practice of human rights Discourse ethics and its post metaphysical defence of universalism is offered as a key to this process of reconstruction The implications of discourse ethics and the possibility of reclaiming universalism are explored in the context of the reservations debate in international human rights law and further examined in debates on women s human rights arising in Ireland India and Pakistan Each of these states shares a common constitutional heritage and in each religious cultural claims intertwined with processes of nation building have constrained the pursuit of gender equality Ultimately this book argues in favour of a dual track approach to cultural conflicts combining legal regulation with an ongoing moral political dialogue on the scope and content of human rights

Becoming of Two Minds about Liberalism Dwight R. Boyd, 2015-12-22 Integrating scholarly essays and personal reflections Becoming of Two Minds chronicles a unique philosophical odyssey a developmental journey of coming to recognize the inadequacy of liberalism in the face of some egregious social problems such as racism while also appreciating its strengths A Personal Prologue describing the main intellectual influences on the author locates the origins of the journey and functions as a backdrop for its interpretation Fifteen chronologically organized essays divided into three parts identify significant positions of contrast between the two minds establishing the direction of the journey and indications of change Essays in Part I reflect early allegiance to liberalism and explore its core ideas as they should be interpreted to guide moral education Those in Part II express disaffection with that allegiance taking a distinctly critical stance toward liberalism Part III then consists of essays that represent attempts to come to terms with the becoming of two minds exemplified in the tension between the ideas about liberalism expressed in Parts I and II A Personal Preface also introduces each of the fifteen essays These Prefaces address questions such as why the problem of the essay was chosen why it was approached in a particular way and what place the essay assumes in the direction the author's journey takes
