Recreating Men Postmodern Masculinity Politics:

Recreating Men Bob Pease, 2000 Drawing on a critical postmodern theoretical framework this volume asks whether men can and will change in response to the changing role of women      Masculinities and Music Scott Harrison, 2009-03-26 Masculinities and Music provides a window into the world of men and boys and their engagement with music This book offers both personal reflections and academic argument Historical perspectives are provided alongside recent research findings Topics include an interrogation of the affect of hegemonic masculinity on musical involvement with references to compulsory heterosexuality gender role rigidity and avoidance of femininity Stories of men and boys and their struggle to participate in music permeate the volume which concludes with some examples of effective practice for men and boys wishing to engage or re engage with music Australian academic Scott Harrison s writing is the result of many years of experience as both performer and teacher He offers a glimpse into his own experiences as young man performing at school and as an adult singing opera and music theatre His experience as a teacher of males and females from pre school to adulthood imbues the book with authority born of genuine familiarity with his topic This is a passionate humorous yet serious look at men and music The volume is essential reading for teachers parents academics and young men      Age Matters Toni M. Calasanti, Kathleen F. Slevin, 2013-10-11 This volume of original chapters is designed to bring attention to a neglected area of feminist scholarship aging After several decades of feminist studies we are now well informed of the complex ways that gender shapes the lives of women and men Similarly we know more about how gendered power relations interface with race and ethnicity class and sexual orientation Serious theorizing of old age and age relations to gender represents the next frontier of feminist scholarship In this volume leading national and international feminist scholars of aging take first steps in this direction illuminating how age relations interact with other social inequalities particularly gender In doing so the authors challenge and transform feminist scholarship and many taken for granted concepts in gender studies      The Palgrave Handbook of African Men and Masculinities Ezra Chitando, Obert Bernard Mlambo, Sakhumzi Mfecane, Kopano Ratele, 2024-05-07 This handbook provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary overview of key theoretical and analytical approaches topics and debates in contemporary scholarship on African masculinities Refusing to privilege Western theoretical constructs but remaining in dialogue with them contributors explore the contestations around and diversities within men masculinities and sexualities in Africa investigate individual and collective practices of masculinity and interrogate the social construction of masculinities Bringing together insights from scholars across gender studies sociology anthropology philosophy history literature and religion this book demonstrates how recognizing and upholding the integrity of African phenomena locating and reflecting on men and masculinities in varied African contexts and drawing new theoretical frameworks all combine to take the discourse on men and masculinities in Africa forward Chapters examine a range of issues within the context of masculinities including embodiment sport violence militarism spirituality gender roles fatherhood homosexuality health and work This handbook will be valuable reading for scholars researchers and policymakers in Masculinity Studies and more broadly Gender Studies as well as Africana Studies

Undoing Privilege Professor Bob Pease, 2021-11-18 For every group that is oppressed another group is privileged Here Bob Pease argues that privilege as the other side of oppression has received insufficient attention in both critical theories and in the practices of social change As a result dominant groups have been allowed to reinforce their dominance The second edition of Undoing Privilege extensively revises the six sites of privilege from the first edition Western dominance class elitism white and patriarchal privilege and heterosexual and able bodied privilege to reflect policy shifts and new social movement initiatives as well as the latest research and resources This edition also includes four new chapters on anthropocentrism cisgender privilege adultism and Christian privilege Pease points out that while the vast majority of people may be oppressed on one level many are also privileged on another He demonstrates how members of privileged groups can engage critically with their own dominant position and explores the potential and limitations of them forming relations of solidarity against oppression and their unearned privilege The second edition includes new theoretical developments in privilege theory collective responsibility complicity in systemic injustice and allyship It is an essential book for all who are concerned about developing theories and practices for a socially just world

Gender Issues and the Library Carol Smallwood, Lura Sanborn, 2017-11-02 With the legalization of same sex marriage and the explosion of LGBTQ news coverage in recent years gender studies is a subject of intense interest in popular media and a part of the curriculum at many colleges Libraries realize the importance of supporting the field yet many have difficulty finding resources and programming ideas This book provides case studies and a range of innovative solutions for better meeting patron needs Twenty seven chapters are arranged into sections covering Research and Library Instruction History and Herstory Programming Collections and Beyond and Resources

Men, Masculinities and Disaster Elaine Enarson, Bob Pease, 2016-06-17 In the examination of gender as a driving force in disasters too little attention has been paid to how women s or men s disaster experiences relate to the wider context of gender inequality or how gender just practice can help prevent disasters or address climate change at a structural level With a foreword from Kenneth Hewitt an afterword from Raewyn Connell and contributions from renowned international experts this book helps address the gap It explores disasters in diverse environmental hazard political and cultural contexts through original research and theoretical reflection building on the under utilized orientation of critical men s studies This body of thought not previously applied in disaster contexts explores how men gain maintain and use power to assert control over women Contributing authors examine the gender terrain of disasters through men s eyes considering how diverse forms of masculinities shape men s efforts to respond to and recover from disasters and other climate challenges The book highlights both the high costs paid by many men in disasters and the consequences of dominant masculinity practices for women and marginalized men It concludes by examining how disaster risk can be reduced through men s diverse efforts to challenge hierarchies around gender sexuality disability age and culture      Engaging East Timorese Men in the Process of Establishing Gender Equality Melanie Lotfali, 2013-09-18 ABSTRACT The equality of women and men is a prerequisite for peace Social development interventions over recent decades have sought to achieve equality primarily by educating and liberating women from the shackles of customs and paradigms that serve to maintain gender inequality It is increasingly recognized that due attention must be given to men s essential role in the process to men s education and liberation In East Timor the latter process has begun albeit on a small scale This study looks at ways to further advance this process Three and a half years in East Timor provided the opportunity to engage in applied research using the methodology of ethnography I gathered data using three main techniques semi structured interviews with more gender equitable men and with women and men occupied with the engagement of East Timorese men in gender equality observation and direct participation within a wide range of settings from informal encounters on local beaches to high level meetings with the president and government ministers and analysis of pertinent primary and secondary documents I identified that a number of interventions are being applied to the issue of engaging East Timorese men in gender equality including use of workshops and trainings the performing arts campaigns and the mass media role modeling and the techniques of popular education with varying levels of success I found that the Association of Men Against Violence and its members are key players in the advancement of this process and that they work closely with feminist organizations within East Timor While I drew on much secular theory and practice in the course of this study my personal beliefs and practices are guided by the teachings of the Baha i Faith The Baha i teachings include much that is relevant to this study and thus I have drawn on and presented Baha i perspectives and approaches to such things as equality and men s role in its establishment social and economic development and the culture of contest and have 3 drawn on Baha i principles in the discussion of results and subsequently in drawing my conclusions By exploring the implications of interventions implemented in other parts of the world and of theory pertaining to social development masculinities and a culture of contest I identified that interventions in East Timor to engage men in gender equality would be strengthened by giving due consideration to the following developing participants ability to communicate providing opportunity for and developing the capacity of participants to critically reflect on their environment addressing participants as whole human beings and members of one human race and actively engaging participants in the development and ownership of knowledge I concluded that three areas requiring immediate attention include the development of evaluation tools and processes and the systematic documentation and sharing of learning as well as research into masculinities in an East Timorese context      Ecomasculinities Rubén Cenamor, Stefan Brandt, 2019-01-25 While there exist numerous studies on ecocriticism and ecofeminism much less has been written about ecomasculinities This volume contributes to filling this gap by examining models of fictional ecomasculinity in and through contemporary U S literature and cinema Our study examines ecomasculinities as practices of masculinity which are deeply conservationist and can embrace non masculine traits In this line of thought a main goal of the volume is to interrogate the potential of ecomasculinities to elicit in men a desire to become engage in other practices of masculinity that are counter hegemonic and have as main goal to achieve equality on different strata of society Bridging the gap between the Social Sciences and the Humanities the book interrogates intersections between ecomasculinities and masculinities beyond capitalism ecomasculinities and aging and ecomasculinities and queerness among others Masculinities and Literary Studies Josep M. Armengol, Marta Bosch Vilarrubias, Àngels Carabí, Teresa Requena, 2017-02-03 If much of the existing masculinity scholarship has traditionally been grounded in a specific discipline this project provides an innovative methodological approach to the subject of literary masculinities by proving the applicability of interdisciplinary masculinity scholarship namely sociology social work psychology economics political science ecology etc to the literary analysis bridging the traditional gap between the Social Sciences and the Humanities in radically new and profound ways Gender and Groupwork Marcia Cohen, Audrey Mullender, 2003-09-02 Thinking about gender can enrich the work of all groupwork practitioners and can make a real difference in people s lives Based on practice experience in both the UK and the USA Gender and Groupwork brings together the best of groupwork knowledge skills and values in a true transatlantic partnership The book summarises the history of gender based groups for both women and men and outlines a wide range of exciting and challenging examples of groups in different contexts Often moving and always engrossing these accounts encompass groups for older women and women facing inequalities in health care Innovative work with homeless people with caregivers and lesbian and gay youth is described in detail and there is a particular focus on domestic violence where groups can often the intervention of choice Gender and Groupwork demonstrates that despite the challenges of post structuralism and postmodernism the practice of groupwork is alive and well It provides new ideas and new models to help move practice forward making it a welcome addition to the groupwork literature Male Bodies and Sexual Difference Ovidiu Anemtoicea, 2018-04-18 This book addresses themes concerning male bodies men and masculinities from an explicit feminist philosophical position drawing from various fields including phenomenology gender theory sociology of the body and continental philosophy among others Whereas the majority of works in the field of critical studies on men and masculinities draw predominantly on gender and queer theories this book works from within the sexual difference theory as developed by feminist philosopher Luce Irigaray As such it proposes a conceptual sketch for a different understanding of the complex relationships between male bodies men and masculinities making use of Gilles Deleuze s radical notion of critique and arguing at the same time for a post Deleuzean concept of becoming man from the philosophy of sexual difference perspective The book represents a contribution to the interpretations of Luce Irigaray s rich work as well as to the fields of masculinities studies and feminist philosophy and it is written primarily for scholars and students in cultural studies women and gender studies sexuality studies and philosophy Troubled Masculinities Kenneth James Moffatt, 2012-01-01 Through personal narratives and assessments of artistic expression the contributors present critical and inventive views of masculinity and how it is performed and interpreted in urban space Set against the backdrop of Toronto the essays engage with the global and transnational processes that affect identity and consider how the social hybridity of large cities allows individuals to work against fundamentalist and essentialist attitudes toward gender

Emergent Writing Methodologies in Feminist Studies Mona Livholts, 2012-03-22 Contemporary challenges for seeking new knowledge in feminist studies are intimately intertwined with methodological renewal that promotes justice and equality in changing global contexts Written by some of the leading scholars in their fields this edited collection focuses on the emergence of writing methodologies in feminist studies and their implications for the study of power and change The book explores some of the central politics ideas and dimensions of power that shape and condition knowledge at the same time as it elaborates critical embodied reflective and situated writing practices By bringing together a variety of multi transdisciplinary contributions in a single collection the anthology offers a timely and intellectually stimulating contribution that deals with how new forms of writing research can contribute to promote fruitful analysis of inequality and power relations related to gender racialisation ethnicity class and heteronormativity and their intersections It also includes the complex relationship between author text and audiences The intended audience is postgraduates researchers and academics within feminist and intersectionality studies across disciplines in the humanities and social sciences The book is excellent as literature in feminist studies courses and helpful guidance for teaching writing sessions and workshops

Masculinities R. W. Connell, Raewyn Connell, 2005 This is an exciting new edition of R W Connell's ground breaking text which has become a classic work on the nature and construction of masculine identity Connell argues that there is not one masculinity but many different masculinities each associated with different positions of power In a world gender order that continues to privilege men over women but also raises difficult issues for men and boys his account is more pertinent than ever before In a substantial new introduction and conclusion Connell discusses the development of masculinity studies in the ten years since the book's initial publication He explores global gender relations new theories and practical uses of masculinity research Looking to the future his new concluding chapter addresses the politics of masculinities and the implications of masculinity research for understanding current world issues Against the backdrop of an increasingly divided world dominated by neo conservative politics Connell's account highlights a series of compelling questions about the future of human society This second edition of Connell's classic book will be essential reading for students taking courses on masculinities and gender studies and will be of interest to students and scholars across the humanities and social sciences

Information Technology, Organizations and People Jeff Watkins, 2002-09-11 This wide ranging volume presents in depth research into the effect of new information technologies on organizational structure assesses their progress towards transformation and describes the changes they are making to long established business process roles cultures and working practices The book is based upon a series of rolling surveys carried out between 1989 and the present day and funded by leading organizations such as IBM and KPMG It provides a detailed picture of a sector in transition during a period of anxiety and doubt dominated by restructuring downsizing and experimentation with re engineering As the lean and mean emerge they must now ask themselves if their competencies will enable them to survive into the next decade as competitors such as Sainsburys Virgin Microsoft and Ford position themselves to become major players in the sector This book is a major contribution to the debate on the growth of knowledge work the need for core organizational competencies in the information age and the need for evolutionary or radical change

Engaging Youth in Activism, Research and Pedagogical Praxis Tamara Shefer, Jeff Hearn, Kopano Ratele, Floretta Boonzaier, 2018-06-14 Engaging Youth in Activism Research and Pedagogical Praxis Transnational and Intersectional Perspectives on Gender Sex and Race offers critical perspectives on contemporary research and practice directed at young people across the global north and south Drawing upon pedagogical programmatic and activist work with respect to challenging inequalities and injustices for young people the authors interrogate the dominant discourses of sexuality gender race class age and other social categories Emerging out of a Finnish South African collaboration this volume does not take a comparative approach but rather a transnational one by embracing the intersections of local and global knowledges We draw on this transnational and transdisciplinary framework and these various contexts to generate a critique of mainstream theory and pedagogical practice as well as to subvert and disrupt such research and practice so as to speak more directly to young people s agentic and activist engagements in social justice specifically inequalities of class race gender age sexuality ability and health

Sex, Culpability, and the Defence of Provocation Danielle Tyson, 2013 The partial defence of provocation is one of the most controversial doctrines within the criminal law It has now been abolished in a number of international jurisdictions Addressing the trajectory of debates about reform of the provocation defence across different jurisdictions Sex Culpability and the Defence of Provocation considers the construction and representation of subjectivity and sexual difference in legal narrations of intimate partner homicide Undeniably the most vexing exculpatory cultural narrative of our times is that of a woman asking for it This book explores how the process of judgment in a criminal trial involves not only the drawing of inferences from the facts of a particular case but also operates to deliver a narrative Law it is argued constructs a narrative of how the female body incites male violence And pursuing an approach that is informed by socio legal studies literary theory and feminist theories of the body Sex Culpability and the Defence of Provocation considers how this narrative is constructed via a range of discursive practices that position woman as a threat to masculine norms of propriety and autonomy Once we have a clear understanding of the significance of narrative in legal decision making we can then formulate textual strategies of resistance to the violence of law s victim blaming narratives by rewriting them

Feminisms in Social Work Research Stéphanie Wahab, Ben Anderson-Nathe, Christina Gringeri, 2014-07-25 Social work as a profession and academic discipline has long centered women and issues of concern to women such as reproductive rights labor rights equal rights violence and poverty In fact the social work profession was started by and maintained in large part by women and has been home to several generations of feminists starting with recognized first wave feminists This wide ranging volume both maps the contemporary landscape of feminist social work research and offers a deep engagement with critical and third wave feminisms in social work research Showcasing the breadth and depth of exemplary social work feminist research the editors argue that social work s unique focus on praxis daily proximities to privilege and oppression concern with social change and engagement with participatory forms of inquiry place social workers in a unique position to both learn from and contribute to broader social science and humanities discourse associated with feminist research The authors attend here to their specific claims of feminisms articulate deep engagement with theory address the problematic use of binaries and engage with issues associated with methods that are consistently of interest to feminist researchers such as power and authority ethics reflexivity praxis and difference Comprehensive and containing an international selection of contributions Feminisms in Social Work Research is an important reference for all social work researchers with an interest in critical perspectives

Men, Law and Gender Richard Collier, 2010-04-05 What does it mean to speak of men as a gender category in relation to law How does law relate to masculinities This book presents the first comprehensive overview and critical assessment of the relationship between men law and gender outlining the contours of the man of law across diverse areas of legal and social policy Written in a theoretically informed yet accessible style Men Law and Gender provides an introduction to the study of law and masculinities whilst calling for a richer more nuanced conceptual framework in which men s legal practices and subjectivities might be approached Building on recent sociological work concerned with the relational nature of gender and personal life Richard Collier argues that social cultural and economic changes have reshaped ideas about men and masculinities in ways that have significant implications for law Bringing together voices and disciplines that are rarely considered together he explores the way ideas about men have been contested and politicised in the legal arena Including original empirical studies of male lawyers the legal profession and fathers rights and law reform alongside discussions of university law schools and legal academics and family policy and parenting cultures this innovative timely and important text provides a unique and important insight into the relationship between law men and masculinities It will be required reading for academics and students in law and legal theory socio legal studies gender studies sociology and social policy as well as policy makers and others concerned with the changing nature of gender relations
