The House Where the Robin Sings Marianne Marullo, 2013-03 As a caregiver for over 20 years to my mother writing stories became a way to escape into a world of make believe I have been asked How do you write a children's story Well you put your mind into that of a 10 year old child and write Since I have the brain of a 10 year old it wasn't hard I have always been a lover of animals and birds

There wasn't a year I can remember that we didn't have a parakeet in the house. That's because I was allergic to cats, long-haired dogs and horses. My dream of being a veterinarian was curtailed at a very early age. I can assure you I actually took up writing in 2005 with My Fine Feathered and Furry Friends published by Publish America. It was a humorous look at feeding the birds and animals where I work. Since then I have been writing short animal stories and decided it was time for a children's book. This book is the end result. In the ever-increasing electronic world we live in, I believe there is still nothing better than curling up with a good book. As a child, reading can make your imagination soar and take you places you've never been before. It did with me. It is my hope that these stories will become favorites of you and your children. If they make you giggle or just go Awww, my work is complete. Please feel free to write to me at wildbirdy1@neo.rr.com. I would love to hear from you.

The tiny kitten sat alone in a window with a small sign that read "Looking for home. Will work for food." Finally, a nice couple gently picked her up and took her to live with them in their New York City apartment photographer's studio. And indeed, work for food she has. Happy Birthday the Cat is a charming collection of illustrated tales by Birthday the cat. She tells about her adoption on her new owner's birthday, her trips to Central Park and Vermont, and her many photo shoots with other animals such as parrots, ducks, and turtles. Throughout her stories of high adventure, the authors and Birthday's owners, Don and Noriko Carroll, have lavishly illustrated the book with photos of their beloved cat. The combination makes for a compelling tale as told from the feline point of view. In picture after picture, Birthday, drenched with water during her first bath, Birthday running from a mischievous parrot, Birthday with her beloved roly ball held firmly in her mouth, the little cat entertains and delights with her sweet expressions and precious narrative. It's a book that's guaranteed to be a best seller with cat lovers everywhere. A Tale of Four Dogs Josephine Ann Pendino, 2010-06-03. A humorous pseudo-psychological study of four totally different dogs.

The View from Mount Joy Lorna Landvik, 2008-09-30. When teenage hockey player Joe Andreson and his widowed mother move to Minneapolis, Joe falls under the seductive spell of Kristi Casey, Ole Bull High's libidinous head cheerleader. Joe balances Kristi's lustful manipulation with the down-to-earth companionship of his smart, platonic girlfriend Darva. But it is Kristi who will prove to be a temptation and torment throughout Joe's life. Years later, Joe can't believe that life has deposited him in the aisles of Haugland Foods. But he soon learns that being a grocer is like being the mayor of a small town. His constituents confide astonishing things and always appreciate Joe's generous dispensing of the milk of human kindness. The path Kristi has charged down on the other hand is as wild as Joe's is tame. But who has really risked more? Who has lived more? And who is truly happy? As Joe discovers, sometimes people are lucky enough to be standing in the one place where the view of the world is breathtaking if only they'll open their eyes to all there is to see.
