Rowley, 1990 Walking the Tightrope Jair van der Lijn, 2006 The media generally tend to focus in particular on the failures of U N peacekeeping operations In Walking the Tightrope Jair Van Der Lijn draws a different conclusion He argues once a peace agreement has been signed the efforts of the U N peacekeeping operations do contribute to durable peace By analyzing the U N peacekeeping operations in Cambodia Mozambique Rwanda and El Salvador in a structured focused comparison this book shows how U N operations do have a contribution to make Fields of Desire Holly High, 2014-02-17 In this important new book High argues that poverty reduction policies are formulated and implemented in fields of desire Drawing on psychoanalytic understandings of desire she shows that such programs circulate around the question of what is lacking Far from rational responses to measures of need then the politics of poverty are unconscious culturally expressed mutually contradictory and sometimes contrary to self interest Based on long term fieldwork in a Lao village that has been the subject of multiple poverty reduction and development programs High s account looks at implementation on the ground While these efforts were laudable in their aims of reducing poverty they often failed to achieve their objectives Local people received them with suspicion and disillusionment Nevertheless poverty reduction policies continued to be renewed by planners and even desired locally High relates this to the force of aspirations among rural Lao ambivalent understandings of power and the post rebellious moment in contemporary Laos Regionalism and Globalism in Southeast Asia E. Palmujoki, 2001-10-25 Eero Palmujoki examines the regionalist debate in Southeast Asia from the end of the Cold War up to the beginning of the new millennium He focuses on the organization of the ASEAN Association of Southeast Asian Nations and covers the political economic and security issues characterizing its development The book compares the theoretical debate with political developments in the region from the beginning of the post Cold War period with its rapid economic growth through the Asian economic crisis of 1997 and the resulting restructuring of Southeast Asian regional systems Bilateral Legacies in East and Southeast Asia N Ganesan, 2016-04-29 This edited volume examines the concept of overhangs or legacies or negative stereotypical images in international relations and their impact on bilateral relations between geographically proximate states in East Asia The case studies chosen Japan Korea Japan China Vietnam China Thailand Myanmar and Thailand Cambodia demonstrate conclusively that bilateral overhangs or legacies have a significant impact on contemporary international relations Such images are regularly replicated and stoked by a variety of constituencies including state agencies for their own selfish interests The evidence also points to the fact that such bilateral relationships are relatively self contained and often operate with their own dynamics Powerful condensation symbols are appropriated to weave a story of the virtuous self and the stereotypical other This negative image and its replication is important to an understanding of turbulent bilateral relations in East Asia and also helps to inform how such relations can be
