Living with a Wild God Barbara Ehrenreich, 2014-04-08 From the New York Times bestselling author of Nickel and Dimed comes a brave frank and exquisitely written memoir that will change the way you see the world Barbara Ehrenreich is one of the most important thinkers of our time Educated as a scientist she is an author journalist activist and advocate for social justice In Living With a Wild God she recounts her quest beginning in childhood to find the Truth about the universe and everything else What's really going on Why are we here In middle age she rediscovered the journal she had kept during her tumultuous adolescence which records an event so strange so cataclysmic that she had never in all the intervening years written or spoken about it to anyone It was the kind of event that people call a mystical experience and to a steadfast atheist and rationalist nothing less than shattering In Living With a Wild God Ehrenreich reconstructs her childhood mission bringing an older woman's wry and erudite perspective to a young girl's impassioned obsession with the questions that at one point or another torment us all The result is both deeply personal and cosmically sweeping a searing memoir and a profound reflection on science religion and the human condition With her signature combination of intellectual rigor and uninhibited imagination Ehrenreich offers a true literary achievement a work that has the power not only to entertain but amaze

The Spirit of '68 Gerd-Rainer Horn, 2008-10-02 In virtually all corners of the Western world 1968 witnessed a highly unusual sequence of popular rebellions In Italy France Spain Vietnam the United States West Germany Czechoslovakia Mexico and elsewhere millions of individuals took matters into their own hands to counter imperialism capitalism autocracy bureaucracy and all forms of hierarchical thinking Recent reinterpretations have sought to play down any real challenge to the socio political status quo in these events but Gerd Rainer Horn's book offers a spirited counterblast 1968 he argues opened up the possibility that economic and political elites on both sides of the Iron Curtain could be toppled from their position of unnatural superiority to make way for a new society where everyday people could for the first time become masters of their own destiny Furthermore Horn contends the moment of crisis and opportunity culminating in 1968 must be seen as part of a larger period of experimentation and revolt The ten years between 1956 and 1966 characterised above all by the flourishing of iconoclastic cultural rebellions can be regarded as a preparatory period which set the stage for the non conformist cum political revolts of the subsequent red decade 1966-1976 Horn's geographic centres of attention are Western Europe including the first full examination of Mediterranean revolts and North America He placed particular emphasis on cultural nonconformity the student movement working class rebellions the changing contours of the Left and the meaning of participatory democracy His book will make fascinating reading for anyone interested in this turbulent period and the fundamental changes that were wrought upon societies either side of the Atlantic
