

God made Everything

Before the world came into being, God was, for He has no beginning or end. His Spirit hovered over a dark, formless, and empty place.

God said, "Let there be light!" Light sprang into being at the sound of His voice. God divided the light from the darkness. He named the light "day," and He called the darkness "night."

Evening and morning, day one ended.

God said, "Let a dome appear in the middle of the waters." A vast blue vault appeared in the midst of the waters. God called it "sky."

Evening and morning, day two ended.

God said, "Let the waters gather together and dry land appear." The land and the seas obeyed God's voice, but the land was empty and brown. "Let there be grass, flowers, and trees to cover the land." Green grass unfurled. Colorful flowers bloomed. Trees stood tall and straight.

God saw what He had done, and it was good.

Evening and morning, day three ended.

God said, "Let there be two lights to mark time and days, seasons and years. A greater one shall rule day and the lesser shall reign over the night. " Sun and moon appeared in the sky, and God sprinkled the universe with twinkling stars.

God saw it was good. Evening and morning, day four ended.

Look for the Hook Joe E. Trull, 2001-04 Quick and easy object lessons for teaching biblical truths to children preschool through junior high Children on the Trail Sandra J. Sutherland, 2022-08-15 If you re starting a new children s ministry strengthening an existing one or wanting to be more intentional with the spiritual nurture you give your child or grandchild Children on the Trail can help Even though it provides a clear progression for the spiritual formation of children it offers more paint by principle guidance than an oversimplified step by step approach Creative Bible Teaching Lawrence O. Richards, Gary J. Bredfeldt, 2020-08-04 Bring the Bible to Your Students like Never Before Communicating the Scriptures is much like building a bridge However instead of ravines or rivers the teacher must span both cultural boundaries and great gulfs of time between the present and the pasts of Moses David Jesus and Paul Though God s Word is always relevant the teacher must help students see Scripture s vast treasures The effective engaging Bible teacher must therefore become creative Together Lawrence Richards and Gary Bredfeldt have created the ultimate guide to building bridges for those seeking to learn about God s Word Creative Bible Teaching offers a five step process by which Christian educators can construct a bridge across time geography and culture to help students of all ages connect with God s Word This newly revised edition makes learning about God s Word more accessible for both teachers and students today Simple clear and memorable the method laid out in Creative Bible Teaching provides a sure fire way of communicating God s Word in a way that sticks NiRV, Study Bible for Kids Zondervan, 2015-06-30 The bestselling NiRV Study Bible for Kids starts early readers ages 6 to 10 on the rewarding path of reading and studying God s Word This Bible uses the complete text of the New International Reader s Version NiRV which is written at a third grade reading level and is perfect for those learning to read With colorful artwork easy to read Bible text and fun features kids will engage with the Bible in a way that makes it stick Features include Presentation page for personalization and gift giving 32 full color pages includes illustrations to bring Bible characters and events to life plus helpful study information about the Ten Commandments how to become a Christian prayer and more Check It Out sketches and descriptions of what life was like in Bible times Brain Game questions to help kids remember important Bible themes Soak It up key verses highlighted for kids to memorize Book Introductions brief overviews of each book with an outline of key events Dictionary key Bible words for quick reference Map section Formational Children's Ministry (ēmerſion: Emergent Village resources for communities of faith) Ivy Beckwith, 2010-01-01 Much ministry to children looks more like mere entertainment than authentic spiritual formation But what if children s ministries were rooted in a mind set whereby we taught children with our words and actions how the story of God the story of church history the story of the local community and the story of the child intersect and speak to one another What if children s ministry was less about downloading information into kids heads and more about leading them into these powerful compelling stories Beckwith aims to help ministers and parents create a ministry that captures children s imaginations not just to keep them occupied but to live as citizens of the kingdom of God In addition to providing theological reasons for formational children s ministry the book offers examples of how Ivy and other practitioners are implementing a formational model
