Your Brooklyn* Kevin J. Leddy, 2017-07-11 Let me just say that if you took two people who grew up in different neighborhoods in Brooklyn and sat them down in a room together they could talk for hours on end and basically share the same stories as if they grew up right next door to each other You see that is why I am writing this book The stories that I will share with you as you turn each page do not belong to me exclusively They are YOUR stories just as much as they are mine All you really have to do is change the names and faces and use your own neighborhood as their back drop and believe me they are yours I have included after each story an empty page for you to put your story on it so it will become Your Brooklyn and a journal to pass on to those who you wish to remember your story I Am My Mother's Memory Leah Pettepiece, 2002-11-27 This is the story of the daughter of a survivor of the Holocaust It is a simple but exquisite retelling of the first twenty two years of her life Learning about her family's past is only a part of the struggle she also has to come to grips with the fact that the mother she knows as her own claims she is not her child In addition to weaving a story the fabric of which is rich and vibrant Leah also designed the montages that accompany each chapter from her pictures and her large stamp collection The montages give the reader a second story historical and exciting Through the Northern Looking Glass Lorelei A. Lambert, 1996 These Northern Native Women survive in spite of the harshness of their lives in the boreal
