

An artistic illustration of two hikers, a man and a woman, seen from behind as they stand on a mountain ridge. They are wearing backpacks and looking out over a vast, hazy landscape of rolling hills and distant peaks under a dramatic, cloudy sky. The color palette is dominated by cool blues, greys, and muted greens, with a soft light source on the left creating a gentle glow.

amid mass migration global capitalism nationalism revolution and the birth of the secular self Between 1880 and 1918 traditions and regimes collapsed around the world migration and imperialism remade the lives of millions nationalism and secularization transformed selves and collectives utopias beckoned and new kinds of social conflict threatened as never before Few communities experienced the pressures and possibilities of the era more profoundly than the world's Jews This volume seventh in The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization recaptures the vibrant Jewish cultural creativity political striving social experimentation and fractious religious and secular thought that burst forth in the face of these challenges Editors Israel Bartal and Kenneth B Moss capture the full range of Jewish expression in a centrifugal age from mystical visions to unabashedly antitraditional Jewish political thought from cookbooks to literary criticism from modernist poetry to vaudeville They also highlight the most remarkable dimension of the 1880-1918 era an audacious effort by newly secular Jews to replace Judaism itself with a new kind of Jewish culture centering on this worldly aesthetic creativity by a posited Jewish nation and the secular modern and free individuals who composed it This volume is an essential starting point for anyone who wishes to understand the divided Jewish present

Outcast Josephine Cox, 2012-01-19 As history threatens to repeat itself the actions of one young woman lead to tragic consequences In the first instalment of the Emma Grady trilogy Josephine Cox's Outcast is an extraordinarily powerful saga of a passionate yet impossible love Perfect for fans of Cathy Sharp and Kitty Neale On a fateful night in 1860 Thadius Grady realises too late that he has made a grave mistake In blind faith he has put himself and his daughter Emma at the mercy of his sister and her conniving husband Caleb Crowther for he has entrusted to them his entire fortune and the daughter he adores With his dying breath he pleads to see his daughter one last time but Caleb's heart is made of stone A feared Lancashire Justice Caleb Crowther is a womaniser and a gambler and now the inheritance due to Emma is as much in his hands as is the beautiful Emma Grady herself But Caleb lives in fear of the past for how did Emma's mother mysteriously die And what made Thadius and Caleb hate the river people so intensely History seems likely to repeat itself when Emma falls helplessly in love with Marlow Tanner a young bargee For Marlow and Emma it is an impossible love a love made in Heaven but which could carry them both to Hell What readers are saying about Outcast A dark and somewhat disturbing tale of intrigue mystery and romance of treacherous relatives and doomed love affairs I loved this story You can really feel the emotions of the characters and the threats they face The actions and settings are so vividly described that you could almost be in the scenes yourself One of the best books I've ever read

I Will Never Trust a Man Dr. Kumdong Bindul Nostra, 2014-06-16 From the very first moment Saratu met Bindul he made her believe that she was more than any other woman he had ever seen in the world He bathed her with love bathed her bathed her and finally drowned her completely into his love Saratu loves him with the truest love of her heart As matter of factly they were head over heels in love They admired each other they adored each other they allured each other they liked each other they want each other they need each other they beseechingly desired each other and they loved each other like politicians with corruptions They declared their love for each other and not so long they stood in front of an overfilled church congregation to publicly declare their love for each other in a one in town society marriage They swam in their love and lived very very comfortable and happily in love Saratu wasn't in need of anything even sex Bindul gave her all the practical part of love the love that was made in heaven for a woman that kind of love that made her feel as though she was the only EVE with the only ADAM in this modern world and she was wholly dependable on it Like King Solomon to his wives and concubines Bindul lavished Saratu with the sweetest lovely words and praises He gave her all that she needed in life But when Saratu later discovered that her husband was still madly in love with Jimikat his primeval girlfriend things wasn't the same again for her Their loveliest sex packed marriage suffered a temporary drought of sex Saratu first run to her dear friend Dakmikat for help Despite doing everything her husband clung onto Jimikat like a tick to a cow But at the end when Bindul brought the two of them together the problem was solved and Saratu and Jimikat became very very good friends and lived very happily under the spell of Bindul
