run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Loose Cannons Graeme Donald,2011-03-15 A unique look at the military misconceptions that we take for granted and a revelation of the truth behind the lies Who tried to bomb Japan with bats Who invented the air gun in 250BC Which stories should we believe The so called Dambusters raid was all but ineffective the Hurricane not the Spitfire was the champion of the Battle of Britain Singapore did not fall because all the guns were pointing the wrong way and who would go to war over a game of football a pig or an old bucket Oppenheimer fluffed his lines after the first atomic test virtually every well known quote attributed the Duke of Wellington is wrong Churchill had a BBC voice impersonator record all his famous WW2 speeches as he was invariably too busy or too tired and emotional to do it himself and no one at the time called WW1 The War to end all Wars Will you believe the truth New York Magazine ,1990-02-26 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine ,1990-02-19 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Endtimes and Sex , New York Magazine ,1990-02-19 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Military In New Times James Burk,Robert J Waldman,David R Segal,Charles C Moskos,2019-06-26 What role will armed forces play in a world that is turbulent yet no longer organized by the bipolar conflict of East and West In this volume leading experts from several disciplines assess the rapidly changing global strategic and cultural landscape examining how it will affect the responsibilities and social standing of the modern military There are provocative disagreements among the contributors especially over whether we should expect and prepare for another global war However the contributors generally agree on several broad themes that guide their analysis Arguing that the Cold War has masked basic trends that have been reshaping the international system for a long time they suggest that the sovereign states dominance of the international system is rapidly coming to an end as multinational ethnic regional and religious groups to name a few increasingly affect the course of global affairs In the absence of a clear enemy the military faces an identity crisis In the postmodern atmosphere of this multicentric global order authority is fragmented and the exercise of any one authority is subject to greater scrutiny and challenge The military has become more accepting of a variety of values life styles and attitudes toward its tasks At the same time support for the military s mission is difficult to win requiring endless justification The authors believe that the principal missions for the military in these new times are peacekeeping peacemaking and humanitarian assistance They examine the prospects for successful operations in these areas taking into account the cultural lag between world structures that favor increased multinational peacekeeping forces and individual nations that supply token resources to support such efforts This volume provides a sophisticated and thought provoking perspective on the future role of the military in the coming decades It is sure to enrich the vigorous debate surrounding these issues

Breaking the Fear Barrier Tom Rieger, 2011-08-23 This book takes the reader through a journey of how fear of loss progressively creates barriers and bureaucracy that inevitably cause companies to fail and what leaders need to do to overcome these seemingly impenetrable walls The greatest threat to an organization s success is not always the competition Often it is what a company does to itself Because of fear companies become plagued with barriers and bureaucracy that limit success crush employees and infuse frustration and a sense of futility across the enterprise It starts with a narrowing of focus which leads to the first level of bureaucracy parochialism Parochialism exists when managers and departments begin to view the world through the filter of their own little silo and build walls made of rules and policies to protect their turf As businesses grow and become more complex the second level of bureaucracy is reached territorialism While parochialism is about protecting a department from outsiders territorialism is about controlling those inside the silo The third and final level of bureaucracy is empire building which is a response to perceived threats to a department s ability to be self sufficient These barriers cost organizations a fortune in inefficiency turnover waste and demoralization Tearing down these barriers is difficult but it can be done Parochialism can be eliminated by resetting rules and policies and refocusing on the ultimate mission of the organization Territorialism can be eliminated by creating true empowerment along with appropriate levels of accountability Empire building can be addressed through shared goals and a set of guiding principles that help act as a referee in decision making But that s not enough Managers must also create a culture of courage to enable employees to take advantage of these new freedoms and accountabilities Courage killers must be rooted out and dealt with swiftly and strongly Finally leaders must refocus on mission success rather than just checking off their part of the process manage reference points and engage employees By doing all these things an organization can become fearless and unstoppable

Along the Domestic-Foreign Frontier James N. Rosenau,1997-06-28 James Rosenau explores the enormous changes in both national and international political systems which are currently transforming world affairs
