increasingly interested in describing depicting and visualizing the more sentimental aspects of amatory experience During this period we see two important and simultaneous developments Latin love elegy crystallizes as a poetic genre while a new style in Roman wall painting emerges Valladares book is the first to correlate these two phenomena properly showing that they are deeply intertwined Rather than postulating a direct correspondence between images and texts she offers a series of mutually reinforcing readings of painting and poetry that ultimately locate the invention of a new romantic ideal within early imperial debates about domesticity and the role of citizens in Roman society The Methodist Magazine and Quarterly Review ,1831
