Cool Britannia Adam Watson, Iain Cameron, 2010 Cool Britannia Snowier times in 1580 1930 than since Global warming and climate change have become headline news in recent years Climate however has always changed Thick ice covered most of Britain in the last Ice Age and prehistoric man thrived during a warm climate after the ice melted In a later warm period the Vikings farmed in Greenland but then came the cold of the Little Ice Age for several centuries up to the mid 1800s Climatologists in the 1900s noted some old writings that told of more snow in northern Europe then including Britain For this authoritative new book the most experienced observer of British snow patches has combined forces with the keenest recent enthusiast who has stimulated many new voluntary observers A factual review it gives more evidence of a colder snowier Britain in the 1580s to early 1900s than since 1930 The most comprehensive historical account yet published for snow patches on British hills it also collates for the lowlands much evidence that was previously unpublished or in obscure little known sources The authors recount a few past extraordinary cases of severe snow affecting British folk even in lowland southern England Their verbatim quotations from early writers give a remarkably live impression so that readers feel they are out in the cold with these pioneers of long ago The modern scientific evidence is clear that the cool centuries described by the authors for Britain also affected the rest of Europe and indeed all other continents across the globe Hence this book will be of interest to many readers far beyond Britannia Authors Adam Watson BSc PhD DSc DUniv raised in lowland Aberdeenshire is a retired research ecologist aged 80 He began lifelong interests on winter snow in 1937 snow patches in

1938 the Cairngorms in 1939 A mountaineer and ski mountaineer since boyhood he has experienced Scotland Iceland Norway Sweden mainland Canada Newfoundland Baffin Island Finland Switzerland Italy Vancouver Island and Alaska His main research was and is on population biology behaviour and habitat of northern birds and mammals In retirement he has contributed 16 scientific publications on snow patches since 1994 He is a Fellow of the Arctic Institute of North America Centre for Ecology and Hydrology Royal Meteorological Society Royal Society of Edinburgh and Society of Biology Since 1954 he has been a member of the Scottish Mountaineering Club and since 1968 author of the Club's District Guide to the Cairngorms Iain Cameron 37 was brought up in lowland Renfrewshire and works as an environmental safety and health manager Since 2007 he has been a co author with Adam Watson on the annual snow patch paper published by the Royal Meteorological Society in their scientific journal Weather Although living in south east England he spends many weekends each summer and autumn in the Scottish Highlands doing detailed fieldwork on snow patches During preparation of this book he inspected works by early authors at the British Library and visited sites in lowland England where early writers reported extraordinary summer snow patches Since 2008 he has stimulated and coordinated many new voluntary observers of snow patches across Britain Through them he contributed the first comprehensive note on snow patches in England and Wales in summer 2010 published in Weather

Transactions of the Royal Historical Society: Volume 10 Royal Historical Society, 2001-02 Volume 10 of the Transactions contains essays based on the British Irish Union of 1801 The Cornhill Magazine William Makepeace Thackeray, 1935 Crossroads of Power Lewis Bernstein Namier, 1970 Communities of Practice in the History of English Joanna Kopaczyk, Andreas H. Jucker, 2013-10-10 Languages change and they keep changing as a result of communicative interactions and practices in the context of communities of language users The articles in this volume showcase a range of such communities and their practices as loci of language change in the history of English The notion of communities of practice takes its starting point in the work of Jean Lave and Etienne Wenger and refers to groups of people defined both through their membership in a community and through their shared practices Three types of communities are particularly highlighted networks of letter writers groups of scribes and printers and other groups of professionals in particular administrators and scientists In these diverse contexts in England Scotland the United States and South Africa language change is not seen as an abstract process but as a response to the communicative needs and practices of groups of people engaged in interaction

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 2, 1660-1800 George Watson, Ian R. Willison, 1971-07-02 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 2 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries
