C. E. FOX

The Melanesian Mission, founded by Bishop George Augustus Selwyn in 1846, is a branch of the Church of the Province of New Zealand. Through the agency of missionaries the Church has been able to bring to the knowledge of Christ a large part of the South Sea Islands, and to bring to the knowledge of the world the history and progress of the Church in these islands.

In the first place, the Melanesian Mission, founded in 1846, is the largest and most successful of the Church's work in the South Sea Islands. It has been able to bring to the knowledge of Christ a large part of the South Sea Islands, and to bring to the knowledge of the world the history and progress of the Church in these islands.

For the first time the Church has been able to bring to the knowledge of Christ a large part of the South Sea Islands, and to bring to the knowledge of the world the history and progress of the Church in these islands.
