Los Angeles in Fiction David M. Fine, 1995 Essays that appeal to fans of the mystery genre and those just plain fascinated by Los Angeles Los Angeles in Fiction David M. Fine, 1984 Latino Los Angeles in Film and Fiction Ignacio López-Calvo, 2011-02-15 Los Angeles has long been a place where cultures clash and reshape The city has a growing number of Latina o authors and filmmakers who are remapping and reclaiming it through ongoing symbolic appropriation In this illuminating book Ignacio L pez Calvo foregrounds the emotional experiences of authors implicit authors narrators characters and readers in order to demonstrate that the evolution of the imaging of Los Angeles in Latino cultural production is closely related to the politics of spatial location This spatial temporal approach he writes reveals significant social anxieties repressed rage and deep racial guilt Latino Los Angeles in Film and Fiction sets out to reconfigure the scope of Latino literary and cultural studies Integrating histories of different regions and nations the book sets the interplay of unresolved contradictions in this particular metropolitan area The novelists studied here stem from multiple areas including the U S Southwest Guatemala and Chile The study also incorporates non Latino writers who have contributed to the Latino culture of the city The first chapter examines Latino cultural production from an ecocritical perspective on urban interethnic relations Chapter 2 concentrates on the representation of daily life in the barrio and the marginalization of Latino urban youth The third chapter explores the space of women and how female characters expand their area of operations from the domestic space to the public space of both the barrio and the city A much needed contribution to the fields of urban theory race critical theory Chicana o Latina o studies and Los Angeles writing and film L pez Calvo offers multiple theoretical perspectives including urban theory ecocriticism ethnic studies gender studies and cultural studies contextualized with notions of transnationalism and post nationalism The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of Los Angeles Kevin R. McNamara, 2010-05-06 Diverse vibrant and challenging as the city itself this Companion is the definitive guide to LA in literature Liberal Dreams and Nature's Limits James T. Lemon, 2008-05-14 On the agricultural frontier and through technological progress Europeans and others and their descendants have sought to fulfill their dreams of improvement Through businesses governments and other bodies city dwellers expedited these desires by organizing settlements communications trade finance and manufacturing In turn cities grew mightily To assess the present condition of cities Liberal Dreams and Nature s Limits focuses on five large North American cities at various times in the past Philadelphia about 1760 New York 1860 Chicago 1910 Los Angeles 1950 and Toronto 1975 Life inside these cities specifically the economy society and politics public services land development and the geographies of circulation workplaces and residential districts is the central concern of this book Another concern is drawing contrasts and similarities between the American and Canadian urban experiences North Americans most now living in cities face the challenge of a social frontier how to maintain civility in a near stagnant economy Despite recent advances in cyberspace nature has imposed limits on technical progress defined by speed convenience and comfort Promethean gains through creative destruction are no longer possible Increased preoccupation with money status and safety suggests that the striving inspired by liberalism is still appealing Yet without growth liberal dreams cannot be fulfilled To ensure work income equity and a degree of freedom in thought and action citizens and leaders in both countries will have to commit themselves as never before to managing fairness through social democracy Sustainable cities are not possible otherwise

Memory and the Built Environment in 20th-Century American Literature Alice Levick, 2021-05-20 From the paving of the Los Angeles River in 1938 and the creation of the G I Bill in 1944 to the construction of the Interstate Highway System during the late 1950s and the brownstoning movement of the 1970s throughout the mid 20th century the United States saw a wave of changes that had an enduring impact on the development of urban spaces Focusing on the relationship between processes of demolition and restoration as they have shaped the modern built environment and the processes by which memory is constructed hidden or remade in the literary text this book explores the ways in which history becomes entangled with the urban space in which it plays out Alice Levick takes stock of this history both in the form of its externalised concretised manifestation and its more symbolic representation as depicted in the mid 20th century work of a selection of American writers Calling upon access to archival material and interviews with New York academics authors local historians and urban planners this book locates Freud's Uncanny in the cracks between the absent and present invisible and visible memory and history as they are presented in city narratives demonstrating both the passage of time and the imposition of 20th century modernism With reference to the works of D J Waldie Joan Didion Hisaye Yamamoto Raymond Chandler Marshall Berman Gil Cuadros Paule Marshall L J Davis and Paula Fox Memory and the Built Environment in 20th Century American Literature unpacks how time becomes visible in Los Angeles Sacramento Lakewood and New York in the decades just before and after the Second World War questioning how these spaces provide access to the past in both narrative and spatial forms and how at times this access is blocked

From Shadow to Presence Jelena Šesnic, 2007-01-01 This volume departs from a more static concept of identity politics to engage the varied and entangled processes of ethnic racial national and gender identifications in a range of contemporary US ethnic texts from the mid 1960s to the mid 1990s Recognizing the growing salience of variously named ethnic multicultural and minority literatures as they are produced and circulated in the USA and worldwide nowadays this work charts four broadly defined models of approaching such texts cultural nationalism ethnic feminism borderlands and contact zones and finally the diasporic model Drawing extensively on psychoanalytic theory feminist gender studies critical race theory postcolonial theory and its revision of ethnography the book offers a fresh engaged theoretically and analytically well rehearsed overview of the distinctive and determining features of a rapidly expanding domain of contemporary US literary production namely ethnic literatures Of potential interest to scholars of American US literature but also minority and postcolonial literatures and to students of American literature the book attempts an interethnic comparative approach to well and lesser known texts

Dynamic Form Cara L. Lewis, 2020-07-15
 Dynamic Form traces how intermedial experiments shape modernist texts from 1900 to 1950 Considering literature alongside painting sculpture photography and film Cara Lewis examines how these arts inflect narrative movement contribute to plot events and configure poetry and memoir As forms and formal theories cross from one artistic realm to another and back again modernism shows its obsession with form and even at times becomes a formalism itself but as Lewis writes that form is far more dynamic than we have given it credit for Form fulfills such various functions that we cannot characterize it as a mere container for content or matter nor can we consign it to ignominy opposite historicism or political commitment As a structure or scheme that enables action form in modernism can be plastic protean or even fragile and works by Henry James Virginia Woolf Mina Loy Evelyn Waugh and Gertrude Stein demonstrate the range of form's operations Revising three major formal paradigms spatial form pure form and formlessness and recasting the history of modernist form this book proposes an understanding of form as a verbal category as a kind of doing Dynamic Form thus opens new possibilities for conversation between modernist studies and formalist studies and simultaneously promotes a capacious rethinking of the convergence between literary modernism and creative work in other media

Maverick Autobiographies Cathryn Halverson, 2004 Halverson examines why and brings their texts back to light through a weaving of biography literary analysis and cultural history in the process urging us to reformulate our notions of what it means to be a western writer Halverson's discoveries will appeal to scholars and critics of Western American literature and women's studies

BOOK JACKET Angel of the Anzacs Carole Van Grondelle, 2000 Nora Luxford's life spanned the twentieth century and circled the globe taking her from turn of the century Hawke's Bay to Hollywood's golden age and the elite circles of New York society She became well known in New Zealand for her radio broadcasts but it was the Anzac club which touched the lives of thousands of young New Zealand and Australian servicemen that she considered was her greatest achievement
