Losing Isaiah:

Adoptive Families in a Diverse Society Katarina Wedar, 2006 Adoptive Families in a Diverse Society brings together twenty one prominent scholars to explore the experience practice and policy of adoption in North America While much existing literature tends to stress the potential problems inherent in non biological kinship the essays in this volume consider adoptive family life in a broad and balanced context Bringing new perspectives to the topics of kinship identity and belonging this path breaking book expands more than our understandings of adoptive family life it urges us to rethink the limits and possibilities of diversity and assimilation in American society Losing Isaiah Seth Margolis, 2015-06-14 A NATIONAL BESTSELLER AND FEATURE FILM STARRING HALLE BERRY AND JESSICA LANGE Riveting impossible to turn away from THE BOSTON GLOBE Losing Isaiah pushes all the current cultural buttons Margolis gets inside the head of every character THE WASHINGTON POST Engrossing and to its credit offers no pat answers to complicated issues PUBLISHER'S WEEKLY Three year old Isaiah has two mothers and they both want him Margaret Lewin adopted Isaiah as a newborn and she and her husband Charles give the boy all the love a child could want and everything that money can buy But can even the most loving caring white family be responsible for raising a black child Selma Richards is the boy's birth mother When Isaiah was born she was illiterate unemployed and a crack addict Giving up her son was the best thing for both of them at the time Now Selma has weaned herself off drugs has a responsible job caring for another couple's child and is learning to read She's not rich and she doesn't live in the best neighborhood but she's healed herself LOSING ISAIAH raises one of the most complex and emotional moral questions of our times and keeps you rooting for both women until the inevitable and heartrending conclusion in which one mother ends up losing her son New York Magazine, 1995-04-03 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1995-03-27 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1995-04-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Gender

Struggles Constance L. Mui,Julien S. Murphy,2002 Contemporary feminist theory and postmodernism have left significant marks on how we think about practical matters most notably the old and new forms of gender struggles that many women confront in their daily lives The essays collected in Gender Struggles are designed to highlight those influences by addressing the following questions What is practical feminism in a postmodern world How does rethinking the nature and boundaries of philosophy affect the way we understand practical issues that we confront daily What new forms of freedom autonomy subjectivity social welfare motherhood public and private space and political resistance have emerged from this new philosophical sense Together the sixteen essays in this volume represent many different voices of feminists who boldly take up familiar everyday concerns from unorthodox vantage points within new conceptual and theoretical frameworks The essays in Gender Struggles address a wide range of issues in gender struggles from the more familiar ones that for the last thirty years have been the mainstay of feminist scholarship such as motherhood beauty and sexual violence to new topics inspired by post industrialization and multiculturalism such as the welfare state cyberspace hate speech and queer politics and finally to topics that traditionally have not been seen as appropriate subjects for philosophizing such as adoption care work and the home Incorporating the latest most cutting edge material on feminism this volume aims at reaching a broad spectrum of readers by connecting postmodern feminist theory with concrete issues that are practical and relevant to their daily lives and experiences Jet ,1995-03-27 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news The Ethics of Transracial Adoption Hawley Fogg-Davis,2018-10-18 Transracial adoption is one of the most contentious issues in adoption politics and in the politics of race more generally Some who support transracial adoption use a theory of colorblindness while many who oppose it draw a causal connection between race and culture and argue that a black child s racial and cultural interests are best served by black adoptive parents Hawley Fogg Davis carves out a middle ground between these positions She believes that race should not be a barrier to adoption but neither should it be absent from the minds of prospective adopters and adoption practitioners Fogg Davis s argument in favor of transracial adoption is based on the moral and legal principle of nondiscrimination and a theory of race consciousness she terms racial navigation Challenging the notion that children get their racial identity from their parents she argues that children through the process of racial navigation should cultivate their self identification in dialogue with others The Ethics of Transracial Adoption explores new ground in the transracial adoption debate by examining the relationship between personal and public conceptions of race and racism before during and after adoption New York Magazine ,1995-04-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Amazons in America Keira V. Williams,2019-03-06 With this remarkable study historian Keira V Williams shows how fictional matriarchies produced for specific audiences in successive eras and across multiple media constitute prescriptive solution oriented thought experiments directed at contemporary social issues In the process Amazons in America uncovers a rich tradition of matriarchal popular culture in the United States Beginning with late nineteenth century anthropological studies which theorized a universal prehistoric matriarchy Williams explores how representations of women centered societies reveal changing ideas of gender and power over the course of the twentieth century and into the present day She examines a deep archive of cultural artifacts both familiar and obscure including L Frank Baum s The Wizard of Oz series Progressive era fiction like Charlotte Perkins Gilman s utopian novel Herland the original 1940s Wonder Woman comics midcentury films featuring nuclear families and feminist science fiction novels from the 1970s that invented prehistoric and futuristic matriarchal societies While such texts have at times served as sites of feminist theory Williams unpacks their cyclical nature and in doing so pinpoints some of the premises that have historically hindered gender equality in the United States Williams also delves into popular works from the twenty first century such as Tyler Perry s Madea franchise and DC Comics Warner Bros globally successful film Wonder Woman which attest to the ongoing presence of matriarchal ideas and their capacity for combating patriarchy and white nationalism with visions of rebellion and liberation Amazons in America provides an indispensable critique of how anxieties and fantasies about women in power are culturally expressed ultimately informing a broader discussion about how to nurture a stable equitable society

New York Magazine ,1995-03-27 New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

The Therapist's Notebook for Families Bob Bertolino,Gary M. Schultheis,2002 The current climate in the mental health field calls for professionals to be both effective and accountable Within this book are exercises designed to facilitate change processes

Divas on Screen Mia Mask,2010-10-01 This insightful study places African American women s stardom in historical and industrial contexts by examining the star personae of five African American women Dorothy Dandridge Pam Grier Whoopi Goldberg Oprah Winfrey and Halle Berry Interpreting each woman s celebrity as predicated on a brand of charismatic authority Mia Mask shows how these female stars have ultimately complicated the conventional discursive practices through which blackness and womanhood have been represented in commercial cinema independent film and network television Mask examines the function of these stars in seminal yet underanalyzed films She considers Dandridge s status as a sexual commodity in films such as Tamango revealing the contradictory discourses regarding race and sexuality in segregation era American culture Grier s feminist camp performances in sexploitation pictures Women in Cages and The Big Doll House and her subsequent blaxploitation vehicles

Coffy and Foxy Brown highlight a similar tension between representing African American women as both objectified stereotypes and powerful self defining icons Mask reads Goldberg s transforming habits in Sister Act and The Associate as representative of her unruly comedic routines while Winfrey s daily television performance as self made self help guru echoes Horatio Alger narratives of success Finally Mask analyzes Berry s meteoric success by acknowledging the ways in which Dandridge s career made Berry s possible Isaiah's Story Jennifer Ross,2014-01-31 On August 3 2008 at nineteen weeks and three days pregnant Jennifer and her husband said a heartbreaking goodbye to their son Isaiah Jennifer suffered from a condition called Disseminated Intravascular Coagulation With only a thirty percent chance of survival Jennifer was instructed to have labor induced due to this life threatening condition Jennifer shared fifteen priceless minutes of life with her newborn son in her arms before he was delivered into the arms of his Heavenly Father Isaiah s Story chronicles Jennifer s emotionally traumatic journey through the personal struggles that she faced mixed with the beautiful hope that she clings to Take the journey through this mother s eyes heart and soul as she brings to life a little boy who was here for a short time but who has touched many lives with the telling of Isaiah s Story Imagining Adoption Marianne Novy,2011-05-06 Imagining Adoption looks at representations of adoption in an array of literary genres by diverse authors including George Eliot Edward Albee and Barbara Kingsolver as well as ordinary adoptive mothers and adoptee activists exploring what these writings share and what they debate Marianne Novy is Professor of English and Women s Studies University of Pittsburgh New York Magazine ,1995-04-17 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Halle Berry Michael A. Schuman,2013-01-01 Being thought of as a beautiful woman has spared me nothing in life says Halle Berry With her extraordinary beauty wealth and an Academy Award for Best Actress it seems as if Berry has it all Yet her life has been anything but a fairytale From the pain of an abusive father to the sting of racism from her peers Berry emerged as a high achiever beauty queen and model As an actor her beauty often kept her from being considered for meaningful roles and it took a while for her to achieve the success she deserved In 2002 Berry s Academy Award winning performance in the small budget art film Monster's Ball made history stirred controversy and launched her into superstardom Give your readers a powerful biography of this stellar talent BirthMarks Sandra Lee Patton,Sandra Patton-Imani,2000-11 An empathetic study of the meanings of cross racial adoption to adoptees Law and Politics Book Review Can White parents teach their Black children African American culture and history Can they impart to them the survival skills necessary to survive in the racially stratified United States Concerns over racial identity have been at the center of controversies over transracial adoption since the 1970s as questions continually arise about whether White parents are capable of instilling a positive sense of African American identity in their Black children Through in depth interviews with adult transracial adoptees as well as with social workers in adoption agencies Sandra Patton herself an adoptee explores the social construction of race identity gender and family and the ways in which these interact with public policy about adoption Patton offers a compelling overview of the issues at stake in transracial adoption She discusses recent changes in adoption and social welfare policy which prohibit consideration of race in the placement of children as well as public policy definitions of bad mothers which can foster coerced aspects of adoption to show how the lives of transracial adoptees have been shaped by the policies of the U S child welfare system Neither an argument for nor against the practice of transracial adoption BirthMarks seeks to counter the dominant public view of this practice as a panacea to the so called epidemic of illegitimacy and the misfortune of infertility among the middle class with a more nuanced view that gives voice to those directly involved shedding light on the ways in which Black and multiracial adoptees articulate their own identity experiences Hooked:

Drug War Films in Britain, Canada, and the U.S. Susan C. Boyd, 2010-09-13 Drawing on over 100 films produced in Britain Canada and the U S from 1912 to 2006 which focus on illegal drugs and their consequences this book examines representations of discourse about users traffickers criminal justice and treatment Vanishing Act Seth

Margolis, 2015-06-16 A man wants to fake his own death and then things get real in this PI mystery from the national bestselling author of False Faces When retail tycoon George Samson appears in Det Joe DiGregorio s Manhattan office asking for help in faking his own death the wary private eye a former Long Island cop knows enough to refuse But Samson s proposition isn t easy to forget So when Samson is found murdered soon afterward the struggling PI is convinced that his would be client found another killer There s only one problem the death is genuine Something went wrong somewhere but what DiGregorio offers his investigative talents to the new CEO of Samson Stores who accepts Since leaving the force he s been struggling to make it as a private investigator and this case could be the making of his new career or the end of him
