Harris,1983 Labyrinths and Labyrinthism in John Barth's "Lost in the Funhouse" Gale Leroy Ward,1980 Narcissistic Narrative Linda Hutcheon,2013-05-22 Linda Hutcheon in this original study examines the modes forms and techniques of narcissistic fiction that is fiction which includes within itself some sort of commentary on its own narrative and or linguistic nature Her analysis is further extended to discuss the implications of such a development for both the theory of the novel and reading theory Having placed this phenomenon in its historical context Linda Hutcheon uses the insights of various reader response theories to explore the paradox created by metafiction the reader is at the same time co creator of the self reflexive text and distanced from it because of its very self reflexivity She illustrates her analysis through the works of novelists such as Fowles Barth Nabokov Calvino Borges Carpentier and Aquin For the paperback edition of this important book a preface has been added which examines developments since first publication Narcissistic Narrative was selected by Choice as one of the outstanding academic books for 1981 1982 Labyrinths and Labyrinthism in John Barth's Lost in the Funhouse Gale L. Ward,1990 Chronoschisms Ursula K. Heise,1997-08-07 An analysis of the way postmodern novels respond to changes in the experience of time John Barth's Lost in the Funhouse and the Nature of Contemporary Fiction Thomas Beall Byers,1971 Lost in the Funhouse (short Stories). John Barth,1969 John Barth and Postmodernism Berndt Clavier,2007 John Barth s eminence as a postmodernist is indisputable However much of the criticism dealing with his work is prompted by his own theories of exhaustion and subsequent replenishment leaving his writing relatively untouched by theories of postmodernism in general This book changes that by focusing on the relationship between Barth s aesthetic and the ideology critique of the historical avant gardes which were the first to mobilize art against itself and its institutional practices and demands Examining Barth s metafictional parodies in the light of theories of space and subjectivity Clavier engages the question of ideology critique in postmodernism by offering the montage as a possible model for understanding Barth's fiction. In such a light postmodernism may well be perceived as a mimesis of reality particularly a recognition of the collective nature of self and the world.

Postmodernism in Pieces Matthew Mullins, 2016-07-01 Postmodernism in Pieces performs a postmortem on what is perhaps the most contested paradigm in literary studies. In the wake of a critical consensus proclaiming its death Matthew Mullins breaks postmodernism down into its most fundamental orthodoxies and reassembles it piece by piece in light of recent theoretical developments in Actor Network Theory object oriented philosophy new materialism and posthumanism. In the last two decades postmodernism has collapsed under the weight of the very phenomena it set out to deconstruct language whiteness masculinity class the academy. Recasting these categories as social constructs has done little to alleviate their material effects. Through detailed analyses of everyday objects in novels by Leslie Marmon Silko Toni Morrison Jonathan Lethem John Barth David Foster Wallace Don DeLillo and Julia Alvarez Mullins argues that what makes fiction postmodern is its refusal to accept social explanations for problems facing a given culture and its tendency instead to examine everyday things and people as constituent pieces of larger networks. The result is a new story of postmodernism one that reimagines postmodernism as a starting point for a new mode of literary history rather than a finish line for modernity.

The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality. Fabulations that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates
