

Love Power And Justice

Robert R. Williams

Love Power And Justice:

Love, Power, and Justice Paul Tillich, 1954 Speaking with understanding and force Tillich offers a basic analysis of love power justice and all concepts fundamental in the mutual relations of people of social groups and of humankind to God His concern is to penetrate to the essential or ontological foundation of the meaning of each of these words Love, Power and Justice Paul Tillich, 1954 Love, Power, and Justice Paul Tillich, 1974 Love, Power, and Justice Paul Johannes Oskar Tillich, 1976 Love, Power and Justice, Ontological Analyses and Ethical Applications... by Paul Tillich Paul Tillich, 1954

Love, Power, and Justice Paul Tillich, 1971 Love, Power and Justice Paul Tillich, 1980-01-01 The Socialist Emigre Brian Donnelly, 2003 Paul Tillich never abandoned the Marxist ideas he developed during the political upheaval of his native Germany in the 1920s and 1930s Indeed he subsumed and incorporated Marxism into the construction of his post German religious thinking and theology which he pioneered after fleeing to the USA in 1933 In the Socialist Emigre Brian Donnelly deals with the philosophical foundations of Tillich s theology specifically the important thread of Marxism and argues that Tillich s later and highly acclaimed theology cannot be divorced from his earlier Marxist views This makes for a seminal work which examines Tillich in a new and critical light and furthers the debate as to the structure of his philosophical theology and the nature of his eclectic thought This unique study features Tillich s boundary thought regarding Marxism and religion faith and culture history and supernaturalism and emphasizes Tillich the philosopher rather than Tillich the theologian Love and the Politics of Care Stanislava Dikova, Wendy McMahon, Jordan Savage, 2022-11-03 This edited volume offers a contemporary rethinking of the relationship between love and care in the context of neoliberal practices of professionalization and work Each of the book s three sections interrogates a particular site of care where the affective political legal and economic dimensions of care intersect in challenging ways These sites are located within a variety of institutionally managed contexts such as the contemporary university the theatre hall the prison complex the family home the urban landscape and the care industry The geographical spread of the case studies stretches across India Vietnam Sweden Brazil South Africa the UK and the US and provides broad coverage that crosses the divide between the Global North and the Global South To address this transnational interdisciplinary field of study the collection utilises insights from across the humanities and social sciences and includes contributions from literature sociology cultural and media studies philosophy feminist theory theatre art history and education These inquiries build on a variety of conceptual tools and research methods from data analysis to psychoanalytic reading Love and the Politics of Care delivers an attentive and widely relevant examination of the politics of care and makes a compelling case for an urgent reconsideration of the methods that currently structure and regulate it Tragedy, Recognition, and the Death of God Robert R. Williams, 2012-09-27 Robert R Williams offers a bold new account of divergences and convergences in the work of Hegel and Nietzsche He explores four themes the philosophy of tragedy recognition and community critique of Kant and the death of God and explicates both thinkers critiques of traditional theology and metaphysics Love, Power, and Justice Paul Tillich,1960 A Pilgrimage of Justice and Peace Fernando Enns,Nina Schroeder-van 't Schip,Andres Pacheco-Lozano,2023-04-05 This edited volume includes contributions by scholars ministers artists and NGO workers from around the world who are interested in topics of Mennonitism peacebuilding and theologies of nonviolence The papers published together here reflect the richness and diversity of peacebuilding interests and approaches within the current global Mennonite family and offer interdisciplinary explorations of peace and conflict with attention to historical theological and lived perspectives The book includes papers based upon research and insights that were shared at the Second Global Mennonite Peacebuilding Conference and Festival 2019 at Mennorode in the Netherlands The findings presented here are structured thematically with attention to key points of current concern and research including among others studies on historical and current peacebuilding efforts pertaining to migration and refugee care ecological justice gender justice interreligious dialogue church state relations and racial justice

Religious Internationalism Matthew Lon Weaver,2010 Religious Internationalism assembles and assesses for the first time the ethics of war and peace in the writings of Paul Tillich It sketches the evolution of Tillich s thought from the period of his service in the German Imperial Army through the time of the Cold War The work begins by analyzing Tillich s theological roots and his World War I chaplaincy sermons as the starting point for his thoughts on power and nationalism Then Religious Internationalism looks to his postwar turn to socialist thought and his participation in religious socialism fueling his cultural analyses and culminating in his forced emigration under Hitler Next it probes the American interwar period giving special attention to Tillich s self described boundary perspective as well as the one treatise he wrote on religion and international affairs The book also examines his Voice of America speeches written and broadcast into his former homeland during World War II Weaver next considers Tillich s message to his English speaking audience of that period emphasizing social and world reconstruction The discussion continues by examining his vision of a path toward personhood in a bipolar world Finally the book constructs Tillich s ethics of war and peace as an ethic of religious internationalism suggesting adjustments intended to give it more universal significance The study concludes that Tillich s thought has provocative contributions to make to debates regarding civilizational conflict economics and international justice trade and globalization the defense of unprotected minorities and immigration policy Book jacket

Dirty Hands Garth Baker-Fletcher,2000-05-01 How can one make the ethical and right decision in a deeply ambiguous moral world Baker Fletcher s basic introduction to Christian Ethics with attitude examines the fundamental ethical problems of moral decision making in which knowledge will always be unsure time short decisions ambiguous and consequences multiple and unforeseeable Baker Fletcher treats ethics as engagement getting one s hand s dirty with life He employs a journey motif in order to aid readers in plotting their own moralscape the fundamental commitments that affect their own decisions Reconciliation John W. De Gruchy,1872

Whether born in the Mideast Africa Asia or brought home to the streets of America violent hatreds often threaten to swamp

the minimal cooperation needed to foster life and health Does Christianity have anything besides warmed over pieties to offer a world torn by estrangement alienation and violently opposed worldviews In this signal contribution to public theology John de Gruchy an internationally esteemed political theologian emphatically affirms the possibility and necessity of reconciliation For Christians he says reconciliation is the center and perennial test of their faith De Gruchy expands reconciliation s relevance beyond personal piety and ecclesial harmony to encompass group relations politics and even the environment In all cases he argues it involves the restoration of justice Forged in the recent experience of South Africa his work delineates the political and ecclesial significance of reconciliation and shows its importance for interreligious relations addressing victimization and international peace Reconciliation will be welcomed by all whose faith leads them to help alleviate the world s mounting agonies Writings in the Social Philosophy and Ethics / Sozialphilosophische und ethische Schriften Paul Tillich,2020-03-23 No detailed description available for Writings in the Social Philosophy and Ethics Sozialphilosophische und ethische Schriften Encountering Cruelty: The Fracture of the Human Heart Michael R. Trice,2011-04-21 Interest in recent years in reconciliation and conflict transformation has witnessed a great deal of attention to building a future through forgiveness and preventative measures in order to impede egregious wrongdoing This effort for a reconciled future is absent reflection on the nature of cruelty Cruelty has always been apparent in massive acts of wrongdoing and yet is repeatedly concealed in our assessment of the acts themselves This book is a theologically honest and deep structure exploration of cruelty in its personal communal and institutional encounters in human life Drawing on Nietzsche s challenge of cruelty to the western tradition the work offers a comprehensive study of how cruelty undermines care trust respect and justice all those elements of human reciprocity that mark our lives as interdependent beings The work concludes with a tightly written Epilogue on interpreting the theological meaning and accessibility of reconciliation today Lest We Lose Love Scherto Gill,2023-04-18 Few are aware that since antiquity there has always been the philosophy of love at the core of Western culture It articulates what makes life meaningful and worthwhile and how we can live a good life together through an ethic of love This book fills this significant gap not only reconnecting the reader with such important wisdom and more crucially also reorienting our socio economic institutions and collective actions towards more loving and caring and more concerned with the qualities of our lived experiences By re-discovering the gifts of love we may challenge the existing systemic dehumanisation and draw from knowledge and understanding already present in our culture This is timely because the global crises we are facing are catastrophic especially when it comes to climate change Therefore we must respond from a place of love rather than fear Whether it is reducing the use of fossil fuels lowering greenhouse emission choosing the right food to eat or advocating for structural transformation our concerted endeavours start with an appropriate appreciation of the nature of our well being which includes the planet s well ness This book highlights a clear pathway forward to ensure collective healing and co flourishing with nature we must practise the art of loving The Thinking Christian Gene Wesley

Marshall,2020-04-13 The practice of Christianity is going through a transition that is deeper than the Reformation The Thinking Christian explores two main questions 1 What is religion as a general social process that can link humans to Profound Reality and 2 what is a meaningful and appropriate mode of Christian theologizing communal life and mission to this planet for a viable and vital next Christian practice These are profound probes and they are communal and activist guidelines for general readers Such union of the profound and the practical pertains to the needs of scholars as well

Families and Forgiveness Terry D. Hargrave,Nicole E. Zasowski,2016-11-01 Families and Forgiveness Second Edition gives the therapist a working knowledge of the importance of love and trustworthiness skills to adequately assess hurt and pain in a family and different techniques and conceptualizations to help family members move to make progress in restoring function to broken identities and senses of safety The authors consistently demonstrate that the work of forgiveness in any form is possible with every family member and improves the intergenerational health of the family In this new edition a reorganized structure efficiently brings the therapeutic focus on love and trustworthiness and revised case studies and updated interventions provide mental health professionals with practical methods to treat troubled families
