Redefining Sports Media Jason Kido Lopez,2023-05-29 This book argues that the examination of sports media within cultural and media studies is organized around more than just a shared topic mediated sports What count as sports media in journals books and conferences are extremely diverse they can cover athlete expression on social media shoe commercials gender in sports commentary Indigenous name change activists and fantasy sports Besides being mediated and in some cases loosely connected to sports events and leagues it is hard to see what they all share that could serve as the foundation for a unified field of study Jason Kido Lopez argues that sports media are defined by genre which is reflected in their industries within their content and by their audiences Throughout the media and cultural complex sports and sports media are built on the genre of live and real competition and therefore to study sports media is to study that genre Each chapter will explore how the genre is constructed in commodification of mediated sport representation within sports media athlete expression sports fandom and gaming around sports This book will be of interest to those studying sports media as well as media and cultural studies but also can be used as an introductory survey of the research on sports media from a media and cultural studies perspective Godwired Rachel Wagner,2012-03-12 Godwired offers an engaging exploration of religious practice in the digital age It considers how virtual experiences like stories games and rituals are forms of world building or cosmos construction that serve as a means of making sense of our own world Such creative and interactive activity is arguably patently religious This book examines the nature of sacred space in virtual contexts technology as a vehicle for sacred texts who we are when we go online what rituals have in common with games and how they work online what happens to community when people worship online how religious worlds and virtual worlds nurture similar desires Rachel Wagner suggests that whilst our engagement with virtual reality can be viewed as a form of religious activity today s virtual religion marks a radical departure from traditional religious practice it is ephemeral transient rapid disposable hyper individualized hybrid and in an ongoing state of flux Games and Narrative: Theory and Practice Barbaros

Unit Operations Ian Bogost, 2008-01-25 In Unit Operations Ian Bogost argues that similar principles underlie both literary theory and computation proposing a literary technical theory that can be used to analyze particular videogames Moreover this approach can be applied beyond videogames Bogost suggests that any medium from videogames to poetry literature cinema or art can be read as a configurative system of discrete interlocking units of meaning and he illustrates this method of analysis with examples from all these fields The marriage of literary theory and information technology he argues will help humanists take technology more seriously and help technologists better understand software and videogames as cultural artifacts This approach is especially useful for the comparative analysis of digital and nondigital artifacts and allows scholars from other fields who are interested in studying videogames to avoid the esoteric isolation of game studies The richness of Bogost's comparative approach can be seen in his discussions of works by such philosophers and theorists as Plato Badiou Žižek and McLuhan and in his analysis of numerous videogames including Pong Half Life and Star Wars Galaxies Bogost draws on object technology and complex adaptive systems theory for his method of unit analysis underscoring the configurative aspects of a wide variety of human processes His extended analysis of freedom in large virtual spaces examines Grand Theft Auto 3 The Legend of Zelda Flaubert's Madame Bovary and Joyce's Ulysses In Unit Operations Bogost not only offers a new methodology for videogame criticism but argues for the possibility of real collaboration between the humanities and information technology

The Practice of Magical Evocation Franz Bardon, 2014-07-28 Throughout the ages and primarily during the past few centuries many lengthy dissertations have been published on the art of higher magic Unfortunately they are for the most part such bewildering and incomplete remnants that very little of it can be taken as a point of reference for practical studies and this only in small fragments The original initiative for magic was known only to a very few lodges and was reserved for a particularly chosen few while for the seekers of truth who searched diligently for any information this subject matter remained dark and mysterious Various religions during the Middle Ages were severely hostile towards any magical knowledge In our history the most prominent examples are the well known Inquisitions Later in modern times magic was regarded as mere superstition and any person who showed some inclination toward this knowledge let alone one seriously concerned himself with the study of magic was regarded as a fool and was ridiculed In the past mystical and other sects maligned magic to such a degree that the word magic has to this very day an extremely dubious reputation And any person who has had an appreciation or understanding for magical knowledge has been pilloried as a black magician In reality true magic was initially taught in the ancient schools of the prophets and then only in the highest circles However only a few select insiders had access to these institutions In those days only a few books occasionally disclosed scant bits of information about true magic These books were deliberately written in such a way that they would disclose little or nothing even to the most astute reader and hence they would not give the seeker of truth a complete understanding of the subject of magic In accordance with the ancient Egyptian Mysteries the magic of the second Tarot card is represented by the High Priestess Franz Bardon the author of The Practice of Magical Evocation gladly continues to guide the serious diligent reader and student of magic along the proper path as long as this person is devoid of any fanatical religious beliefs and erroneous ideology Furthermore this person has to be prepared to penetrate further into the mysteries of the knowledge of magic or the Hermetic sciences As in Franz Bardon's first book Initiation into Hermetics Bardon endeavors to keep the language of this second volume in a style that is understandable to everyone The subject matter of the magic of evocation is among the least known and least investigated branches of the art and therefore Bardon makes certain that every person who reads this book will become completely familiar with this subject matter not only in theory but above all with the practice if he so chooses It is important however that the reader know that he will not achieve any results with the practice of magical evocation unless he has successfully completed Step VIII at the very least of Franz Bardon's first book Initiation into Hermetics which is a description of the first tarot card the Magician Should Franz Bardon be successful in assisting the reader who has successfully completed the entire practical part of his first book to achieve the same good results with this one then Bardon has achieved his objective Those readers who initially study the secret sciences only theoretically will find in this work a satisfactory broadening of their knowledge The Conscience of a Lawyer John A. Salmond, 2020-11-10 Clifford Judkins Durr was an Alabama lawyer who played an important role in defending activists and other accused of disloyalty during the New Deal and McCarthy eras His uncompromising commitment to civil liberties and civic decency caused him to often take unpopular positions In 1933 Durr moved to Washington to work as a lawyer for the Reconstruction Finance Corporation a creation of Roosevelt's new Democratic administration becoming a dedicated New Dealer in the process He was then appointed by President Franklin D Roosevelt to the Federal Communications Commission FCC a politically sensitive position as FDR sought to counter the increasing power and concentration of broadcasters many of whom were opponents of the New Deal Durr resigned from the FCC in 1948 and after brief employment with the National Farmers Union in Colorado the Durrs eventually returned to Montgomery Alabama in the hope of returning to a more prosperous less controversial life Durr continued to practice in Montgomery as counsel for black citizens whose rights had been violated and ultimately in December 1955 when police arrested Rosa Parks for refusing to give her bus seat to a white man he stepped in and lent his extensive legal prowess to her case and the continuing quest for civil rights Closing his firm in 1964 Durr began to lecture in the United States and abroad He died at his grandfather's farm in 1975 The Hero Is Overpowered but Overly Cautious, Vol. 1 (light novel) Light Tuchihi, 2019-06-18 The goddess Lista summons a hero who excels in every area to assist her He's everything she expected him to be except for one tiny thing this anxious hero can't do anything unless he's absolutely sure nothing can go wrong Game Time Christopher Hanson, 2018-03-08 Pausing slowing rewinding replaying reactivating reanimating Has manipulating video game timelines altered our experience of time Compelling Choice Video game scholar Christopher Hanson argues that the mechanics of time in digital games have presented a new model for understanding time in contemporary culture a concept he calls game time Multivalent in nature game time is characterized by apparent malleability navigability and possibility while simultaneously being highly restrictive and requiring replay and repetition When compared to analog tabletop games sports film television and other forms of media Hanson demonstrates the temporal structures of digital games provide unique opportunities to engage players with liveness causality potentiality and lived experience that create new ways of experiencing time Features comparative analysis of key video games titles including Braid Quantum Break Battle of the Bulge Prince of Persia The Sands of Time Passage The Legend of Zelda The Ocarina of Time Lifeline and A Dark Room The text is well researched and the introduction is an excellent focused overview of video game studies Choice Innovation and Entrepreneurship Ralph F.
