Conjuring Asia Chris Goto-Jones, 2016-07-04 The promise of magic has always commanded the human imagination but the story of industrial modernity is usually seen as a process of disenchantment Drawing on the writings and performances of the so called Golden Age Magicians from the turn of the twentieth century Chris Goto Jones unveils the ways in which European and North American encounters with and representations of Asia the fabled Mystic East worked to re enchant experiences of the modern world Beginning with a reconceptualization of the meaning of modern magic itself moving beyond conventional categories of real and fake magic Goto Jones acclaimed book guides us on a magical mystery tour around India China and Japan showing us levitations and decapitations magic duels and bullet catches goldfish bowls and paper butterflies In the end this mesmerizing book reveals Orientalism as a kind of magic in itself casting a spell over Western culture that leaves it transformed even today

Tantra, Magic, and Vernacular Religions in Monsoon Asia Andrea Acri, Paolo E. Rosati, 2022-11-03 This book explores the cross and trans cultural dialectic between Tantra and intersecting magical and shamanic practices associated with vernacular religions across Monsoon Asia With a chronological frame going from the mediaeval Indic period up to the present a wide geographical framework and through the dialogue between various disciplines it presents a coherent enquiry shedding light on practices and practitioners that have been frequently alienated in the elitist discourse of mainstream Indic religions and equally overlooked by modern scholarship The book addresses three desiderata in the field of Tantric Studies it fills a gap in the historical modelling of Tantra it extends the geographical parameters of Tantra to the vast yet culturally interlinked socio geographical construct of Monsoon Asia it explores Tantra as an interface between the Sanskritic elite and the folk the vernacular the magical and the shamanic thereby revisiting the intellectual and historically fallacious divide between cosmopolitan Sanskritic and vernacular local The book offers a highly innovative contribution to the field of Tantric Studies and more generally South and Southeast Asian religions by breaking traditional disciplinary boundaries Its variety of disciplinary approaches makes it attractive to both the textual diachronic and ethnographic synchronic dimensions It will be of interest to specialist and non specialist academic readers including scholars and students of South Asian religions mainly Hinduism and Buddhism Tantric traditions and Southeast Asian religions as well as Asian and global folk religion shamanism and magic

Spirit Possession in Buddhist Southeast Asia Bénédicte Brac de la Perrière, Peter A. Jackson, 2022-03-31 In dramatic contrast to the reported growing influence of doctrinal and fundamentalist forms of religion in some parts of Southeast Asia the predominantly Buddhist societies of the region are witnessing an upsurge of spirit possession cults and diverse forms of magical ritual This is found in many social strata including the urban poor rising middle classes and elite groups and across the different political systems of Myanmar Thailand Cambodia and Vietnam This volume reveals both the central historical place of spirit possession rituals in the Buddhist cultures of mainland Southeast Asia and their important contemporary roles to enhance prosperity and protection This book examines the increasing prominence of spirit mediumship and divination across the region by exploring the interplay of neoliberal capitalism visual media the network cultures of the Internet and the politics of cultural heritage and identity It advances beyond critiques of the secularization and disenchantment theses to explore the processes of modernity that are actively producing magical worldviews and stimulating the rise of spirit cults As such it not only challenges the assumptions of modernization theory but demonstrates that the cults in question are novel ritual forms that emerge out of inherently modern conditions

Understanding Witchcraft and Sorcery in Southeast Asia C. W. Watson, R. F. Ellen, 1993-01-01 Witchcraft holds a perennial fascination for scholars and the public at large In Southeast Asia malign magic and sorcery are part of the routine experience of villagers and urban dwellers alike and stories appearing in the press from time to time bear witness to a persisting public concern The essays presented in this volume describe what people believe and what actions result from those beliefs Not surprisingly given the range and variety of cultures considerable differences exist in the region Among some cultures in Thailand and Indonesia for example sorcerers are said to possess spirits that empower them to cause illness and misfortune Elsewhere in Malaysia and Sumatra the power of the dukun derives from the accumulation of arcane knowledge and mystical practice Contributors describe the witches and sorcerers they have met and suggest both how their societies look upon them and how we in turn should regard them Understanding Witchcraft and Sorcery in Southeast Asia will appeal to scholars and students of social anthropology and comparative religion Its substantial contribution to theoretical and comparative issues in a Southeast Asian context provides a fresh perspective on a stimulating topic
