Magic Of Linen Flax Seed To Woven Cloth:

The Magic of Linen Linda Heinrich,1992 Egyptology in the Present Carolyn Graves-Brown,2015-06-01 This volume builds bridges between usually separate social groups between different methodologies and even between disciplines It is the result of an innovative conference held at Swansea University in 2010 which brought together leading craftspeople and academics to explore the all too often opposed practices of experimental and experiential archaeology The focus is upon Egyptology but the volume has a wider importance The experimental method is privileged in academic institutions and thus perhaps is subject to clear definitions It tends to be associated with the scientific and technological In opposition the experiential is more rarely defined and is usually associated with schoolchildren museums and heritage centres it is often criticised for being unscientific The introductory chapter of this volume examines the development of these traditionally assumed differences giving for the first time a critical and careful definition of the experiential in relation to the experimental The two are seen as points on a continuum with much common ground This claim is borne out by succeeding chapters which cover such topics as textiles woodworking and stoneworking And Salima Ikram Professor of Egyptology at the American University in Cairo here demonstrates remarkably that our understanding of the classic Egyptian funerary practice of mummification benefits from both scientific experimental and sensual experiential approaches The volume however is important not only for Egyptology but for archaeological method more generally The papers illuminate the pioneering of individuals who founded modern archaeological practice Several papers are truly groundbreaking and deserve to circulate far beyond Egyptology Thus the archaeologist Marquardt Lund tackles the problem of understanding the earliest known depictions of flint knife manufacture those from an Egyptian tomb dated around 1900 BC He shows the importance of thinking outside traditional i e modern knapping practice Lund s knapping method guided by the tomb depictions is surprising but effective and very different from that presented in manuals of lithic technology or taught in academic institutions The Practical Spinner's Guide - Cotton, Flax, Hemp Stephenie Gaustad,2014-02-27 A one stop guide to preparing and spinning cotton flax and hemp Over the last few years focusing on specific types of fiber or spinning techniques has become more and more popular In The Practical Spinner s Guide Cotton Flax Hemp author Stephenie Gaustad offers a detailed overview of each plant the fiber it produces and how to properly prepare spin and finish yarns made from each fiber Cotton flax and hemp behave very differently from wool and special handling is required Stephenie discusses how each fiber behaves and how best to work with them specifically touching on trouble spots such as drafting and adding twist She also covers finishing yarns cleaning setting twist and plying as well as what dye processes are best for adding color Finally she includes a discussion of spinning for both knitting and weaving covering fabric properties of each fiber and what spinners need to take into account when using the yarn in a subsequent project The Spinner's Companion Bobbie Irwin,2013-03-25 The definitive tool for spinners this handy pocket sized guide is filled with common spinning terms tips on how to maintain wheels and lessons on how to process fiber and spin yarn Appropriate for spinners at every level of ability this book presents clear concise instruction on topics such as basic carding techniques how to dress a distaff and creating uniform yarns This instructional guide proves as practical as it is comprehensive making it a great addition to any spinning basket

Encyclopedia of Cultivated Plants Christopher Cumo, 2013-04-25 Readers of this expansive three volume encyclopedia will gain scientific sociological and demographic insight into the complex relationship between plants and humans across history Comprising three volumes and approximately half a million words this work is likely the most comprehensive reference of its kind providing detailed information not only about specific plants and food crops such as barley corn potato rice and wheat but also interdisciplinary content that draws on the natural sciences social sciences and humanities The entries underscore the fascination that humans have long held for plants identifies the myriad reasons why much of life on earth would be impossible without plants and points out the intertwined relationship of plants and humans and how delicate this balance can be While the majority of the content is dedicated to the food plants that are essential to human existence material on ornamentals fiber crops pharmacological plants and carnivorous plants is also included

Linen Linda Heinrich, 2010 Follow the saga of this remarkable fiber from seed to woven fabric Learn about past and present day methods of flax cultivation processing and spinning natural and synthetic dyeing and weaving and finishing linen cloth 233 color photos and 156 black and white photos and drawings reveal the characteristics of linen and emphasize its practical use

Cloth and Clothing in Early Anglo-Saxon England, AD 450-700 Penelope Walton Rogers, 2007 This archaeological study of textiles and costume considers all aspects of early Anglo Saxon clothing how textiles were made in the early Anglo Saxon settlements how the cloth was fashioned into garments and the nature of the clasps and jewellery with which the clothes were worn Drawing on the author's 38 years of experience and a database of 3 800 finds it includes a review of the primary evidence from 162 Anglo Saxon cemeteries where small fragments of the dead's clothes have been preserved with brooches pins and necklaces Regional styles of dress the social and cultural meaning behind changing fashions the role of women in textile production and Scandinavian and Continental influences help to place the study in its broader historical and archaeological context The volume is amply illustrated with line drawings of craft processes and reconstructions of individual costumes

The Alden Amos Big Book of Handspinning Alden Amos, 2001-05 Wheel designer and maintainer of textile traditions Alden Amos the recipient and evaluator of traditional wisdom lets no point go unexamined This is truly a BIG book offering decades of experience in making and handling yarn He'll change your spinning for the better whether you agree with him or not

Textile Production at 16-22 Coppergate Penelope Walton Rogers, 1997 A great deal of material was recovered from Coppergate during archaeological excavations Of 1147 artefacts found there 1006 are from the 9th to 13th centuries and nearly 700 are from the Anglo Scandinavian period Many relate to the textile industry
