Goodman,David Goodman,2016-05-23 An examination of the relationship between space place and consumption offers important insights into some of the most powerful forces constructing contemporary societies Space and place are made and remade through consumption Yet how do cultures of consumption discover space and how do they construct place This book addresses these questions by exploring the implications of conceptualizing consumption as a spatial increasingly global yet intensely localized activity The work develops integrative approaches that articulate the processes involved in the production and consumption of space and place The result is a varied engaging and innovative study of consumption and its role in structuring contemporary capitalist political economies
