Magin Marginales:

Local Enterprise on the North Atlantic Margin Reginald Byron, John Hutson, 2018-12-18 First published in 1999 this volume offers contrasting views from a variety of academic disciplines including agriculture anthropology economics geography management studies planning and sociology which focus on the single two fold problem of how to understand these issues and what practically might be done about them Beyond the Margin Paolo Giordano, Anthony Julian Tamburri, 1998 The editors goal in this book is to give a critical overview of where Italian American literary and cultural studies are today To this end Beyond the Margin includes three types of essays the characteristics of Italian American literature and culture in a general sense specific writers and film Community Development on the North Atlantic Margin John Hutson, Reginald Byron, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 Isolated communities dependent upon fishing farming and forestry which are scattered around the North Atlantic coast have shared a disastrous decline during the last decade These communities are in the peripheries of advanced industrial nation states such as Canada and supra national alliances such as the European Community yet despite this there are no easy solutions to the development of these regions This volume argues that the productive assets of these regions and how they can be used to sustain household incomes need to be better understood The assets need to be converted into products and services and they need to be marketed profitably The diminishing flow of young people who leave these areas to obtain higher education and who do not return must be turned around and efforts must be concentrated on the creation or strengthening of economic conditions which satisfy the younger generation s employment aspirations consumer requirements and social needs The Centre as Margin: Eccentric Perspectives on Art Maria de Lurdes Craveiro, Carla Alexandra Gonçalves, 2019-10-01 The Centre as Margin Eccentric Perspectives on Art is a multi authored volume of collected essays that answer the challenge of thinking Art History and the Arts in a broader sense from a liminal point of view Its main goal is thus to discuss the margin from the centre drawing on its concomitance within study themes and subjects ontological and epistemological positions or research methodologies themselves Marginality eccentricity liminality and superfluity are all part of a dynamic relationship between centre and margin s that will be approached and discussed from the point of view of disciplines as different and as close as art history philosophy literature and design from medieval to contemporary art Resulting from recent research developed from the privileged viewpoint offered by the margin this volume brings together the contributions of young researchers along with the work of career scholars Likewise it does not obey a traditional or a rigid diachronic structure being rather organized in three major parts that organically articulate the different essays Within each of these parts in which the book is divided papers are sometimes organized according to their timeframes providing the reader with an encompassing though not encyclopedic overview of the common ground over which the various artistic disciplines build their methodological theoretical and thematic centers and margins The intended eccentricity of this volume and the original essays herein presented should provide researchers scholars students artists curators and the general reader interested in art with a refreshing approach to its various scientific strands

Magic's Translations Margaret J. Wiener, 2025-04-04 Do you believe in magic This familiar question suggests magic is easily recognized but unreal In Magic's Translations Margaret J Wiener argues that such views are shaped by historical power struggles especially in Europe's relations with the wider world Focusing on nineteenth and twentieth century Dutch interactions with Indonesians Wiener reveals how colonial agents framed unfamiliar practices practitioners and objects as magic rendering distinct phenomena fundamentally alike and advancing colonizing projects that deemed magic antithetical to reason and reality While colonial authorities including ethnologists mobilized the concept of magic to differentiate Europeans from Indonesians nature from culture reason from superstition and fact from fetish their efforts produced unexpected outcomes Some Indonesian artifacts and acts not only retained their power but invaded European experiences As anthropologists were among the key translators of magic throughout the world Wiener intersperses accounts of magic's translations in the Indies with reflections on anthropology's ongoing engagement with the concept She demonstrates that magic became an object of expert knowledge political control and popular fascination rather than a self-evident category or relic of naïve belief Studies on Eumalacostraca: a Homage to Masatsune Takeda Hironori Komatsu, Junji Okuno, Kouki Fukuoka, 2012-07-25 This volume honours a Japanese carcinologist Masatsune Takeda on the occasion of his 70th birthday 24 papers deal with a wide diversity of topics on the taxonomy larval biology palaeontology and ecology of crustaceans

Marginality in the Contemporary British Novel Nicola Allen, 2008-08-08 The Marginal as a concept has become an integral part of the British novel as it stands at the turn of the century Both popular and literary fiction since the mid 1970s has seen an increasing emphasis on the marginal subject This study offers readings of a wide range of contemporary British novels that represent characters or communities at the margin of society Nicola Allen analyses three conceptual categories representing the marginal subject in the contemporary British novel the character of the misfit or outsider the emergence of the grotesque and the rediscovery of previously marginalized narratives such as myth and fantasy This innovative and original monograph focuses on the contention that the contemporary novel of marginality conveys a belief in the socially transformative powers of narrative and suggests that narrative has played a central role in bringing marginal politics and marginal issues to the fore in contemporary Britain
