Analizándose en cada uno de ellos los distintos argumentos, estilos y métodos adoptados por los artistas. Susan Bright has organized the book into seven sections: portrait, landscape, narrative, object, fashion, document and city, each of which explores the diverse subjects, styles and methods adopted by artists. Introductions to each section outline the genres and consider why photographers are attracted to certain themes and how issues like memory, time, objectivity, politics, identity and the everyday are tied to certain approaches. Each photographer's work is then presented in sequence with commentaries by the author highlighting the artist's most important aspects. Quotations from the artists appear alongside to offer valuable insights into their motivations, inspirations and intentions. Inside front cover The Impossible Project David Cotterrell, Caryn Faure Walker, Richard Appignanesi, 2003 This is the first book on the young upcoming British artist David Cotterrell. Cotterrell plays with the tradition of eccentric inventions incorporating customised technology in humorous and political site specific works. Since the mid 90s Cotterrell has exhibited internationally both in and outside conventional gallery spaces, invading the public arena in unexpected ways, as with his man-made geyser which spurts water high into the air from the middle of a suburban park every day at an allocated time. Cotterrell was selected for the Becks Futures Awards at the ICA London 2002 and is working on a number of public commissions in the UK and internationally. The Impossible Project includes texts by writer and curator Caryn Faure Walker as well as responses to Cotterrell's work from the fields of science, technology, history and politics. 80 colour & b/w illustrations Electrical World, 1921 Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports, 1992 Scientific American, 1884 Monthly magazine devoted to topics of general scientific interest The New International Encyclopaedia, 1929 The New International Encyclopædia, 1925 New International Encyclopedia, 1914 The New International Encyclopædia Frank Moore Colby, Talcott Williams, 1922 The Bookseller, 1904 Bookseller, 1904 Vols for 1871-76, 1913-14 include an extra number.
