Mei, S. Matora, K. Okamura, J. Penzien, B.C. Jr. Gerwick, M. Homma, R. Lenschow, O.T. Magoon, 2012-12-06 Ocean development has conventionally been targeted at the exploitation of natural resources; however, this trend is gradually changing. Ocean space has itself come to be regarded as a precious resource. Since problems associated with energy, food supply, and population will become even more crucial over the coming years, ocean space is being reevaluated as a means for providing solutions in many of these areas. The future prosperity of mankind will to a large measure be dependent on the manner in which the resources of the oceans are utilized. To develop ocean space effectively, international cooperation is essential since a global perspective is paramount. It is on this basis of cooperation and communication that the present symposium was organized, bringing together experts from all over the world to report current findings in ocean development and to consider areas of future research. The material covered here deals with all aspects of these areas, which are now of such vital importance. From Colonial Seaports to Modern Coastal Cities Edmund Li Sheng, 2024-01-10 This book explores China's ambition to build itself into a maritime power. Using fieldwork, in-depth interviews, and comprehensive data collection, this book will present a series of compelling examples and vivid stories to help readers understand China's maritime strategies with interest for China scholars, historians, and economists alike. Chinese Overseas Ports in Europe and the Americas Jean-Marc Blanchard, 2023-07-21 This book analyzes the progress, gains, and effects of Chinese overseas ports through in-depth and systematic studies of numerous cases in Europe and Latin America.
