Queer Constellations Dianne Chisholm, Queer Constellations investigates the dreams and catastrophes of recent urban history viewed through new queer narratives of inner city life The gay village gay mecca gai Paris the lesbian flaneur the lesbian bohème these and other urban phantasmagoria feature paradoxically in this volume as figures of revolutionary utopia and commodity spectacle as fossilized archetypes of social transformation and ruins of haunting cultural potential Dianne Chisholm introduces readers to new practices of walking seeing citing and remembering the city in works by Neil Bartlett Samuel Delany Robert Gluck Alan Hollinghurst Gary Indiana Eileen Myles Sarah Schulman Edmund White and David Wojnarowicz Reading these authors with reference to the history sociology geography and philosophy of space particularly to the everyday avant garde production and practice of urban space Chisholm reveals how and how effectively queer narrative documentary resembles and reassembles Walter Benjamin's constellations of Paris capital of the nineteenth century Considering experimental queer writing in critical conjunction with Benjamin's city writing the book shows how a queer perspective on inner city reality exposes contradictions otherwise obscured by mythic narratives of progress If Benjamin regards the Paris arcade as a microcosm of high capitalism wherein the unmaking of industrial society is perceived retrospectively in contemporary queer narrative we see the sexually charged and commodity entranced space of the gay bathhouse as a microcosm of late capitalism and as an exemplary site for excavating the contradictions of mass sex In Chisholm's book we discover how looking back on the ruins of queer mecca queer authors return to Benjamin to advance his dialectics of seeing how they cruise the paradoxes of market capital blasting a queer era out of the homogeneous course of history

Is Canada Postcolonial? Laura Moss, 2009-08-01 How can postcolonialism be applied to Canadian literature In all that has been written about postcolonialism surprisingly little has specifically addressed the position of Canada Canadian literature or Canadian culture Postcolonialism is a theory that has gained credence throughout the world it is be productive to ask if and how we as Canadians participate in postcolonial debates It is also vital to examine the ways in which Canada and Canadian culture fit into global discussions as our culture reflects how we interact with our neighbours allies and adversaries This collection wrestles with the problems of situating Canadian literature in the ongoing debates about culture identity and globalization and of applying the slippery term of postcolonialism to Canadian literature The topics range in focus from discussions of specific literary works to general theoretical contemplations The twenty three articles in this collection grapple with the recurrent issues of postcolonialism including hybridity collaboration marginality power resistance and historical revisionism from the vantage point of those working within Canada as writers and critics While some seek to confirm the legitimacy of including Canadian literature in the discussions of postcolonialism others challenge this very notion
