Robert R. Barr,2004-10-07 This book by an American Jesuit priest who completed doctoral studies under Jean Danielou at Paris serves to present some of the highlights of the era of the fathers of the church a period which begins with post New Testament Christian writing and extends to about the end of the seventh century A D It is a survey of the era and an introduction to the context of the times in which the fathers thought and wrote and fought not always without bloodshed for the faith and way of life which was coming to be called Christian In Father Barr s summary we feel the pulsing ebb and flow of the early history of Christianity the history of the first impacts of the extraordinary gospel message the good news as it becomes embodied in and expressed by bishops and theologians through the critical early centuries These far away figures men like Clement of Rome Irenaeus Tertullian and Athanasius take on familiar human form as the author sketches them in their milieu showing them acting and reacting amid the various complex forces of their era Cyprian of Carthage puzzling over what to do with the apostate certificate bearers Justin and Origen in their fiery youth Nestorius and his nemesis Cyril of Alexandria in their fiery prime Augustine in the West and the golden age fathers in the East These and other figures emerge as vigorous and sometimes colorful personalities in this lively mosaic of early Christian times

Orientalia F. Young, Mark J. Edwards, Paul M. Parvis, 2006 Papers presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford 2003 see also Studia Patristica 39 40 42 and 43 The successive sets of Studia Patristica contain papers delivered at the International Conferences on Patristic Studies which meet for a week once every four years in Oxford they are held under the aegis of the Theology Faculty of the University Members of these conferences come from all over the world and most offer papers These range over the whole field both East and West from the second century to a section on the Nachleben of the Fathers The majority are short papers dealing with some small and manageable point they raise and sometimes resolve questions about the authenticity of documents dates of events and such like and some unveil new texts The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject

The New Conscientious Objection Charles C. Moskos, John Whiteclay Chambers II, 1993-04-08 Although conscientious objection is a long standing phenomenon it has only recently become a major factor affecting armed forces and society The only comprehensive comparative scholarly study of conscientious objection to military service this book examines the history of the practice in the Western world and state policies that have grown up in response to it It shows how the contemporary refusal to bear arms is likely to be secular and widespread rather than religious and marginal now including service people as seen in the 1991 War in the Persian Gulf as well as conscription resisters No account of civil military relations or peace movements in advanced industrial countries is complete without reference to conscientious objection and this book will be the standard text on the subject

Beginning to Read the Fathers Boniface Ramsey, 2012 Now revised Beginning to Read the Fathers is an introduction to the church's earliest writers preachers and theologians It presupposes no more knowledge on the part of the reader than that the fathers existed and that their ideas might be important and perhaps even interesting The book does not restrict itself to such topics as Christology and ecclesiology but includes other areas like martyrdom and prayer which were highly important in shaping the mind and heart of the early church The material in this book is arranged thematically and follows a natural progression Each chapter attempts to give a real taste of the subject in question by providing numerous selections from the writings of the fathers some of them classic statements and some relatively obscure Fathers from nearly all periods and traditions are cited The author's opinions although not nonexistent are subordinate to the presentation of the fathers themselves The work was written in a nontechnical style to be read both by beginners and by people with some expertise in the field It concludes with suggestions for a patristics reading program for those who wish to pursue a study of the fathers in more depth      The Christian Tradition Jaroslav Pelikan,1991-10-04 Explores the iconography dogma and liturgy of Greek Slavic and Syriac forms of Christianity      The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1979

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1969      Christianity and History Frederick William James Butler,1925      Flora Tells a Story Michael Kaler,2008-11-05 In early Christianity many people were inspired to write gospels treatises letters and stories celebrating the new faith but not all of these writings are found in the New Testament One such story from an unknown author is the Coptic gnostic Apocalypse of Paul a tale of the apostle Paul s ascent to the heavens that was lost for millennia and rediscovered at Nag Hammadi in 1945 In Flora Tells a Story Michael Kaler discusses the Apocalypse of Paul and how it was shaped by its literary environment The book takes a behind the scenes look at early Christian literary production analyzing the ways in which various literary traditions such as apocalyptic writings gnostic thought and understandings of Paul influenced the author of the Apocalypse of Paul and helped to shape the text It also includes a new annotated English translation of the Apocalypse of Paul and a fictional account of how it might have come to be written This work is the most in depth study of the Apocalypse of Paul to date and the only full length discussion of it in English It provides a detailed but accessible account of the literary environment in which its author worked and integrates this little known work into the broader stream of early Christian writings This book will be of interest to specialists in Nag Hammadi and gnostic studies and early Christian literature but will also appeal to the general reader interested in Christianity mysticism and gnosticism      Christianity and Culture Santosh Thomas,2005      Catalogue of the Officers and Students of Columbia College, for the Year ... Columbia College (New York, N.Y.),1926      Catalogue Columbia University,1927
