Mainstream Civilization To 15:

The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985 Discovering Chinese Nationalism in China Yongnian

Zheng,1999-04-28 This book explores the revival of Chinese nationalism in the 1990s and analyses the ways in which the West deals with this phenomenon Yongnian Zheng discusses the complicated nature of China's new nationalism and presents the reader with a very different picture to that portrayed in Western readings of Chinese nationalism He argues that China's new nationalism has been a reaction to changes in the country's international circumstances and can be regarded as a voice over the existing unjustified international order Zheng shows that the present Chinese leadership is pursuing strategies not to isolate China but to integrate it into the international community Based on the author's extensive research in China the book provides a set of provocative arguments against prevailing Western attitudes to and perceptions of China's nationalism

Movies with Meaning Dan Shaw,2017-06-29 This book pairs close readings of some of the classic writings of existentialist philosophers with interpretations of films that reveal striking parallels to each of those texts demonstrating their respective philosophies in action Individual chapters include significant excerpts from the original texts being discussed and illustrated Pairings cover Schopenhauer and Waking Life Stirner and Hud Kierkegaard and Winter Light Nietzsche and The Fountainhead Heidegger Blade Runner and The Thin Red Line Camus Leaving Las Vegas and Missing Sartre Husbands and Wives and Michael Collins de Beauvoir and Revolutionary Road and Foucault and One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest Movies with Meaning offers a clear and insightful examination of the relationships between existential philosophers and film providing both digests of their most significant texts and cinematic illustrations of what each had in mind For the first time in one place this book analyses the implications for film of the perspectives of a wide array of the most significant existentialist thinkers Organized chronologically like most existentialism anthologies this is an ideal textbook for an intermediate level existentialism course or as a companion to a selection of primary texts Cyber-nationalism in China Ying Jiang,2012 The prevailing consumerism in Chinese cyberspace is a growing element of Chinese culture and an important aspect of this book Chinese bloggers who have strongly embraced consumerism and tend to be apathetic about politics have nonetheless demonstrated political passion over issues such as the Western media's negative coverage of China In this book Jiang focuses upon this passion Chinese bloggers' angry reactions to the Western media's coverage of censorship issues in current China in order to examine China's current potential for political reform A central focus of this book then is the specific issue of censorship and how to interpret the Chinese characteristics of it as a mechanism currently used to maintain state control While Cyber Nationalism in China examines fundamental questions surrounding the political implications of the Internet in China it avoids simply predicting that the Internet does or does not lead to democratization Applying a theoretical approach based on the Foucauldian notion of governmentality the book builds on current scholarship that has attempted to move beyond examining the dynamics of the socio cultural and political use of new media technologies Instead this book's more intricate theoretical approach does not only accommodate the kind of liberal apolitical or political use observed on the Internet in China but indicates that desires for political change such as they are are implicitly embedded in the relationship between China's online communities and state apparatus noting however that the latter claims total governance over the Internet in the name of the people Social Media and e-Diplomacy in China Ying Jiang, 2017-08-09 As with many spheres of public life public diplomatic communication is being transformed by the boom of social media More than 165 foreign governmental organisations in China have embarked on the use of Weibo a hybrid of Facebook and Twitter in China to engage with Chinese citizens and reach out to youth populations one of the major goals of current public diplomacy efforts This exciting new pivot based on systemic research of Weibo usage by embassies in China explores the challenges and the limits that the use of Chinese Weibo and Chinese social media in general poses for foreign embassies and considers ways to use these or other tools It offers a systematic study of the effectiveness and challenges of using Weibo for public diplomatic communication in and with China Addressing the challenges of e diplomacy it considers notably the occurrence of cyber nationalism on Weibo and encourages a critical look at its practice arguing how it can contribute to the goals of public diplomacy Health and Development Iris Borowy, Bernard Harris, 2023-01-30 Health and development require one another there can be no development without a critical mass of people who are sufficiently healthy to do whatever it takes for development to occur and people cannot be healthy without societal developments that enable standards of health to be maintained or improved However the ways in which health and development interact are complex and contested This volume unites eleven case studies from nine countries in three continents and two international organizations since the late nineteenth century Collectively they show how different actors have struggled to reconcile the sometimes contradictory nature of health and development policies and the subordination of these policies to a range of political objectives The History of the Contractual Thoughts in Ancient China Yunsheng Liu, 2020-07-01 This book explores the intellectual history of contract law in ancient China by employing archaeological and empirical methodologies Divided into five chapters it begins by reviewing the origin of the contract in ancient China and analyzing its name primary form historical premise and functions The second chapter discusses free will and lawfulness in the establishment of a contract offering insights into the impact of contracts on social justice In turn the third chapter addresses the inner core of the contract validity and liability This allows readers at all levels to identify the similarities and differences between contracts from different eras and different parts of the world which will also benefit those pursuing comparative research in related fields Chapters four and five offer a philosophical exploration of contract history in ancient China and analyze key aspects including human nature and ethical justice Broadcasting in the Modernist Era Matthew Feldman, Henry Mead, Erik Tønning, 2014-05-22 The era of literary modernism coincided with a dramatic expansion of broadcast media throughout Europe which challenged avant garde writers with new modes of writing and provided them with a global audience for their work Historicizing these developments and drawing on new sources for research including the BBC archives and other important collections Broadcasting in the Modernist Era explores the ways in which canonical writers engaged with the new media of radio and television Considering the interlinked areas of broadcasting culture and politics in this period the book engages the radio writing and broadcasts of such writers as Virginia Woolf W B Yeats Ezra Pound T S Eliot James Joyce George Orwell E M Forster J B Priestley Dorothy L Sayers David Jones and Jean Paul Sartre With chapters by leading international scholars the volume s empirical based approach aims to open up new avenues for understandings of radiogenic writing in the mass media age

The Real Cyber War Shawn M. Powers, Michael Jablonski, 2015-03-15 Contemporary discussion surrounding the role of the internet in society is dominated by words like internet freedom surveillance cybersecurity Edward Snowden and most prolifically cyber war Behind the rhetoric of cyber war is an on going state centered battle for control of information resources Shawn Powers and Michael Jablonski conceptualize this real cyber war as the utilization of digital networks for geopolitical purposes including covert attacks against another state s electronic systems but also and more importantly the variety of ways the internet is used to further a state s economic and military agendas Moving beyond debates on the democratic value of new and emerging information technologies The Real Cyber War focuses on political economic and geopolitical factors driving internet freedom policies in particular the U S State Department s emerging doctrine in support of a universal freedom to connect They argue that efforts to create a universal internet built upon Western legal political and social preferences is driven by economic and geopolitical motivations rather than the humanitarian and democratic ideals that typically accompany related policy discourse In fact the freedom to connect movement is intertwined with broader efforts to structure global society in ways that favor American and Western cultures economies and governments Thought provoking and far seeing The Real Cyber War reveals how internet policies and governance have emerged as critical sites of geopolitical contestation with results certain to shape statecraft diplomacy and conflict in the twenty first century
