The Francophone African Text Kwaku Addae Gyasi, 2006 Focusing on the African writer and the language of the former colonial power The Francophone African Text Translation and the Postcolonial Experience highlights the writer's reappropriation of the foreign language in the creative writing process It calls attention to the African writer's use of French a process of creative translation in which the writer's words form a hybrid code that compels the original French to refer to the indigenous African language for meaning Examining a group of works under the theme of translation this book reveals that a consideration of both ideological and linguistic elements enhances understanding of the subject from the broader perspective of postcolonial discourse Teaching Culture in Introductory Foreign Language Textbooks Carol A.
