Basic Library Skills, 5th ed. Carolyn Wolf, 2010-03-22 This brand new edition of Wolf's acclaimed work provides a self-contained short course in essential library skills for patrons of college high school and public libraries. The intent is to provide a quick and easy way to learn to do library research. The exercises contained herein give students hands-on experience by applying rules stated in the text to situations that approach real research problems. Subjects addressed include a brief tour of the library card catalogs and cataloging systems, filing rules, online public access catalogs, subject searching, bibliographies, book reviews, and parts of a book, dictionaries, encyclopedias, handbooks, atlases, gazetteers, periodicals, newspapers, online database searching and reference sources, literature and criticism, e-books, government information and government documents, biographies, business career and consumer information, non-print materials and special services, online computer use in libraries and schools, and hints for writing term papers. Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here. Masterplots II. Frank Northen Magill, 1986. David Madden Randy Hendricks, James A. Perkins, 2006 For four decades Knoxville Tennessee native David Madden has been writing compelling bestsellers such as Bijou and The Suicide's Wife as well as highly respected literary novels such as Sharpshooter. David Madden A Writer for All Genres is the first full length critical work devoted to the whole of Madden's oeuvre and collectively the essays make the case that the attention paid to Madden's novels has overshadowed his innovative work as a critic, poet, short story writer, and dramatist. Madden is indeed a writer for all genres: poetry, fiction, drama, and criticism. David Madden A Writer for all Genres will introduce a new generation of readers to an important and multitalented writer and begin a well deserved serious discussion of his place in the American literary tradition. Kate Chopin's Short Fiction Robert C. Evans, 2001. Saul Bellow Mark Connelly, 2016-03-09 A three time National Book Award for Fiction winner Saul Bellow 1915-2005 is one of the most highly regarded American authors to emerge since World War II. His 60 year career produced 14 novels and novellas, two volumes of nonfiction, short story collections, plays, and a book of collected letters. His 1953 breakthrough novel The Adventures of Augie March was followed by Seize the Day 1956, Herzog 1964, and Mr Sammler's Planet 1970. His Humboldt's Gift won a Pulitzer Prize in 1976 and contributed to his receiving the Nobel Prize for Literature that year. This literary companion provides more than 200 entries about his works, literary characters, events, and persons in his life. Also included are an introduction and overview of Bellow's life, statements made by him during interviews, suggestions for writing and further study, and an extensive bibliography. The Facts on File Guide to Research Jeff Lenburg, 2014-05-14 The Facts On File Guide to Research is a comprehensive guide to doing thorough and accurate research. It includes a detailed listing of available resources and explains general research methods and proper citation of sources. An invaluable reference, this book helps researchers make use of the many new resources available today. Divided into four sections, this easy to use guide helps students and general readers prepare for research papers and class studies. Step by step guides, detailed explanations, and valuable appendixes covering style guides such as APA MLA and The Chicago Manual of Style combine to create an incredibly authoritative accessible reference

Signs of the Literary Times William O'Rourke,1993-01-01 This book is O'Rourke's first volume of nonfiction since his 1972 The Harrisburg 7 and the New Catholic Left which Garry Wills hailed as a clinical x ray of our society's condition That book prompted Herbert Mitgang to name O'Rourke one of the finest writers of his generation Signs of the Literary Times provides new evidence for that assessment It brings together O'Rourke's unique mixture of literary political and cultural criticism published periodically during the last twenty two years The collection ranges from autobiographical essays describing his generation's literary evolution to articles on free speech issues such as nude dancing and the Bush era NEA controversies as well as book reviews that provide a fresh and largely uncharted critical map of the period O'Rourke is not only interested in genre bending and expansion but in persevering during this age of academic specialization as in his phrase a person of letters In the two decades between his first work of nonfiction and this volume O'Rourke has published three highly acclaimed novels The Meekness of Isaac 1974 Idle Hands 1981 and Criminal Tendencies 1987 Of the last The Virginia Quarterly Review wrote Of all the novelists paraded in recent years by publishers as natural successors to Graham Greene this one comes the closest A thoroughly entertaining literary event Signs of the Literary Times is not so much a compendium of diverse pieces on various subjects as it is a cogent and continuing x ray of our society's condition
