the books of Kings charting a two fold characterization that portrays these prophetic figures in both positive and negative lights In the narratives of Kings Elijah and Elisha often parallel other prophetic figures from Israel s history they perform miraculous signs they speak in the name of God and they pronounce judgments upon the nation of Israel for its idolatrous worship There are however other stories which have troubled readers and scholars alike Elijah s cowardly running from the threats of Jezebel his self pitying complaint to God that he was the only true Israelite left and Elisha s cursing a group of little boys who in turn are slaughtered by two female bears Scholars have traditionally ignored or belittled the negative stories of the prophets seeing them as either late additions to the biblical text or as minor unimportant stories that can easily be dismissed Heller however argues that the dual characterization of Elijah and Elisha reflects an ambivalent attitude that the narrator of Kings has toward prophecy as a whole an attitude that is reflected in the book of Deuteronomy itself This forces readers of the biblical text to pose the question how may Israel best know and follow God The stories of Elijah and Elisha make the answer clear the words and lives of the prophets are a possible way for God to reveal how Israel is to live but those words and lives must always be considered with a degree of suspicion and must always be evaluated in light of the clear and straightforward teaching of Deuteronomy
