Last Gift of the Master Artists Ben Okri,2023-01-31 The Booker Prize winning author a child of the Nigerian Civil War reinvents through the story of the Atlantic slave trade the beautiful soul and resilient culture of his country A boy and a girl meet by chance on a riverbank in Africa One is the son of a king struggling to find his place in the world the other the daughter of a craftsman from the secretive tribe of master artists The prince entranced stays hidden in the bushes The girl knowing nothing of him but his voice agrees to meet again When she fails to appear the next day he begins to search for her tracing her at last to her village where disguised as an apprentice he finds a place in her father s workshop But this is no fairy tale no conventional love story Their world though they don t know it yet is ending A strange wind has begun to blow and in its wake things are disappearing songs stories artworks and finally people Beautiful ships with white sails are glimpsed on the horizon When the novel was first published in the UK in 2007 under the title Starbook the central role of the Middle Passage was overlooked Okri has since rewritten the book giving it a new dimension more light more acumen In 2022 the deep political impact of this extraordinary tale won t be missed Sacred and Profane Beauty Gerardus Leeuw,2006 Gerardus van der Leeuw was one of the first to attempt a rapprochement between theology and the arts and his influence continues to be felt in what is now a burgeoning field Sacred and Profane is the fullest expression of his pursuit of a theological aesthetics surveying religion s relationship to all the arts dance drama literature painting sculpture architecture and music This edition makes this seminal work first published in Dutch in 1932 newly available A new foreword by Diane Apostolos Cappadona analyzes the continuing relevance of van der Leeuw s thought Van der Leeuw s impassioned and brilliant investigation of the relationship between the holy and the beautiful is founded upon the conviction that for too long the religious have failed to seriously contemplate the beautiful associating it as they do with the kingdom of sensuality and impermanence Similarly it has been alien to literati and aesthetes to reflect upon the holy for they choose to consider this physical world to be permanent and therefore to be glorified through beauty alone In truth as van der Leeuw undertakes to show in Sacred and Profane Beauty the holy has never been absent from the arts and the arts have never been unresponsive to the holy Whether one considers the Homeric epics the dancing Sivas and Vedic poems the sacred wall paintings of ancient Egypt the primitive mask or the range of sacred arts developed out of Latin and Byzantine Christianity primordial creation in the arts was always directed toward the symbolization and interpretation of the holy The fact that in our day this original connection is obscured and the artistic impulse is more generally regarded as wholly individualistic and autonomous does not contradict van der Leeuw's thesis indeed the breakdown of the unity of the holy and the arts is central to his thesis Van der Leeuw was the rare thinker who combined profundity of insight grace of style and a willingness to take daring intellectual chances In Sacred and Profane he describes each of the arts in its original unity with the religious and then analyzes its historical disjunction and alienation After a penetrating investigation of the structural elements within the arts which illumines a crucial dimension of the religious experience van der Leeuw points toward the reemergence of an appropriate theological aesthetics on which a reunification of the arts could be founded Freedom and Dialogue in a Polarized World

Sharon Schuman, 2013-12-11 Freedom and Dialogue in a Polarized World argues that our most cherished ideas about freedom being left alone to do as we please or uncovering the truth have failed us They promote the polarized thinking that blights our world Rooted in literature political theory and Mikhail Bakhtin's theories of language this book introduces a new concept dialogic freedom This concept combats polarization by inspiring us to feel freer the better able we are to see from the perspectives of others To say that freedom is dialogic is to apply to it an idea about language If you and I are talking I anticipate from you a response that could be friendly hostile or indifferent and this awareness helps determine what I say If you look bored or give me a blank stare I might not say anything at all In this sense language is dialogic The same can be said of freedom Our decisions take into account the voices of others to which we feel answerable and these voices coauthor our choices In today's polarized world prevailing concepts of freedom as autonomy and enlightenment have encouraged us to take refuge in echo chambers among the like minded Whether the subject is abortion terrorism or gun control these concepts encourage us to shut out the voices of those who dare to disagree We need a new way to think about freedom Freedom and Dialogue in a Polarized World presents riveting moments of choice from Homer's Iliad Dante's Inferno Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice Milton's Paradise Lost Melville's Benito Cereno Dostoevsky's The Brothers Karamazov Kafka's In the Penal Colony and Morrison's Beloved in order to advocate reading for and with dialogic freedom It ends with a practical application to the debate about abortion and an invitation to rethink other polarizing issues For more information please visit <http://dialogicfreedom.weebly.com> The works of eminent masters in painting, sculpture, architecture and decorative art, 1854

Unbreakable Beauty Tara Sosa, 2017-10-17 First date First kiss Make out Make love Have wild uninhibited crazy sex Find someone to love me back When I first read Elizabeth Masters list I was excited And then I was furious She created a list of firsts Firsts that should have been mine Firsts she was now going to give to someone else Because when she offered me her firsts I said I didn't want them But that was a lie It was one of many I told her Because I wanted her and her firsts more than anything Someone to love her back She already had that First kiss That was me She can't erase anything that happened between us no matter how hard she tries to forget And I know that from experience Because I've never been able to forget what we had what we shared I couldn't stop thinking about what could have been if I pulled her close and not pushed her away And now she wants to move on with someone else It wasn't going to happen What we have is real Unbreakable And I'm not messing up again No more lies No more hiding I know she's the best thing that's ever happened to me Just like I know she's mine And so are her firsts Her firsts her lasts her in betweens her love her forever It's mine She just needed to let me back in She needed to give me another chance And if she didn't want to I'd make her Because I was never losing her again Ryan Flannery broke my heart Or what was left of the frayed and fragile pieces I had to give I let him in I let him close I gave him everything I thought he loved me I laid myself bare I stripped myself raw I chased a fantasy and I got burned But he did do one thing for me He gave me something An idea According to him I was too young too inexperienced And he was right I needed to change that So what if he was my first love He didn't have to be my only It was time for me to spread my wings Explore It was time for me to live Ryan might have been the one I wanted to give my firsts to And my lasts And everything in between But it's not happening I've been hurt enough Lied to enough Betrayed enough It was time I started to think about me He thinks that I can just forget what he's done That he lied That he made a mistake He thinks we're unbreakable He thinks that it's me and him Always Forever He thinks I'm going to give him another chance at that Another chance at me It Will Never Happen Until it does Everyone remembers their first Except Ryan Flannery But that's okay Because all he needs to remember is his last His last Her first Innocent Gestures Sharleen Cooper

French opera star Mademoiselle Maupin who was a first rate swordswoman and often went about disguised as a man Originally the story was to be about the historical La Maupin who set fire to a convent for the love of another woman but later retired to a convent herself shortly before dying in her thirties Gautier instead turned the plot into a simple love triangle between a man d Albert and his mistress Rosette who both fall in love with Madelaine de Maupin who is disguised as a man named Th odore The novel consists of seventeen chapters most in the form of letters written by d Albert or Madelaine The message behind Gautier s version of the infamous legend is the fundamental pessimism about the human identity and perhaps the entire Romantic age
