Revered as the most prestigious tournament in golf the Masters commands international attention even among nongolfers. The first and second editions of The Masters A Hole by Hole History of America's Golf Classic took the unique approach of tackling Augusta National hole by hole. Each hole had its own chapter with colorful stories on the greatest shots, biggest disasters and most amazing events that took place on each. David Sowell returns to Augusta with the third edition of The Masters adding more history and updating each hole with additional stories of greatness and tales of woe for a new generation of golfers led by Jordan Spieth, Rory McIlroy and Patrick Reed as well as from an older guard represented by Bubba Watson, Adam Scott and Sergio Garcia. The legends of the Masters are in full force in this lively look at America's golf classic. From Bobby Jones and Gene Sarazen to Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus to Tiger Woods and Phil Mickelson to Bubba Watson and Jordan Spieth, all the greatest Masters moments of the greatest and not so great golfers are here in one book. This third edition provides a rich historical view of the course where success breeds legends and where failure can haunt even the most brilliant golfer's career.

Mike Weir Lorne Rubenstein, 2003. How Mike Weir became a Canadian hero winning the 2003 Masters Tournament and proving that sometimes nice guys finish first. Lorne Rubenstein has been following Mike Weir's career since the slim kid from Brights Grove, Ontario near Sarnia started winning amateur tournaments. Weir was a star on the Brigham Young University golf team before turning professional in 1992. It was clear to Lorne Rubenstein that the gentlemanly left hander had what it takes to make it to golf's pinnacle. But there's a world of difference between being a pro golfer who is good enough to make a living on the tour and the elite group that wins one of the majors: the Masters, the U.S. Open, the British Open and the PGA Championship. Mike had done well on the PGA Tour in the past, winning three tournaments in his first few years there. Then came 2002, a season that began with great hopes that he would make it to the top flight. But the season proved a disappointment and some golf observers whispered that Weir did not have what it takes to withstand the pressure and win a major. Lorne Rubenstein never wavered in his belief. Having followed Mike for so many years, he still felt that Weir could win a major. After Mike began the 2003 season with two wins, Lorne decided to write a book about his quest to win a major. Mike agreed to cooperate and so Lorne followed his every shot at the Augusta National Golf Club during the 2002 Masters. After Tiger Woods has slipped the green jacket over Mike Weir's shoulders in the midst of one of the many press conferences, Mike smiled at Lorne and said, "I guess this will help the book, right?" Lorne: "We guess so, too." We're guessing that this chronicle of Mike Weir's journey, with a heavy emphasis on the Masters win that set millions of Canadians cheering, will be a major sports gift book this Christmas. From the Hardcover edition.
