American Literature in Transition, 1990-2000 Stephen J. Burn, 2017-12-28 Written in the shadow of the approaching millennium American literature in the 1990s was beset by bleak announcements of the end of books the end of postmodernism and even the end of literature Yet as conservative critics marked the century s twilight hours by launching elegies for the conventional canon American writers proved the continuing vitality of their literature by reinvigorating inherited forms by adopting and adapting emerging technologies to narrative ends and by finding new voices that had remained outside that canon for too long By reading 1990s literature in a sequence of shifting contexts from independent presses to the AIDS crisis and from angelology to virtual reality American Literature in Transition 1990 2000 provides the fullest map yet of the changing shape of a rich and diverse decade s literary production It offers new perspectives on the period's well known landmarks Toni Morrison Thomas Pynchon David Foster Wallace but also overdue recognition to writers such as Ana Castillo Evan Dara Steve Erickson and Carole Maso In the Beauty of Holiness David Lyle Jeffrey, 2017 Art and worship to 1500 Beauty and holiness as terms of art The paradoxical beauty of the cross Beauty and proportion in the sanctuary The beauty of light The beauty of holiness alfresco Beauty on the altar Art and the Bible after 1500 Beauty power and doctrine Beauty and the eye of the beholder Romantic religion and the sublime Art after belief Art against belief Return of the transcendentals Rethinking School Spaces for Transgender, Non-binary, and Gender Diverse Youth Jennifer Ingrey, 2023-06-21 Positing the washroom as an onto epistemological site which exemplifies the way in which school spaces govern how gender is experienced normalized and understood by youth this text illustrates how current school policies and practices around bathrooms fail to dismantle cisnormativity and recognize trans lives Drawing on media policy analysis empirical study and arts based methodologies it demonstrates how school spaces must be re thought via a trans centred epistemology to be reflected in teacher education policy and curricula Beginning with a review of the theoretical constellation of the heterotopia and critical trans ing informing the analysis of data it moves to offer a critical media and policy analysis of how trans and gender diverse students are de limited erased or harmed This position is supported by analysis of empirical data from a school bathroom project including student photographs of washrooms and other visual expressions of gender diverse and gender complex individuals.
