British Artists from their dramatic arrival in the late 1980s through the disbanding of the group and beyond The Young British Artists YBAs stormed onto the contemporary art scene in 1988 with their attention grabbing ironic art Both dismissed as trivial gimmickry and praised for its witty energy their art made an indelible mark on the art scene and on public consciousness still visible today Brit Art tells the story of the YBAs chronicling the group's rise to prominence from the landmark show Freeze curated by Damien Hirst in the late 1980s through the heyday of the 1990s and the notorious Sensation exhibition to the Momart fire of 2004 that seemed to symbolize the group's fade from center stage A postscript reveals where they are now with an overview of each artist's career in the last decade Drawing on interviews with all the key Brit Art players as well as extensive archival research Elizabeth Fullerton examines the entire cast of characters as well as crucial events and seminal artworks She considers too the political economic and artistic context of those twenty years the group was most active Among the artists discussed are Damien Hirst Rachel Whiteread Tracey Emin Jake and Dinos Chapman Sarah Lucas and Gary Hume

Taking Back Desire: A Psychoanalytic Approach to Queerness and Neoliberalism on Screen James Lawrence Slattery, 2025-05-13 Taking Back Desire studies film television and video art texts through a Lacanian prism to restore a sense of queer as troubling identity and resistance to neoliberal forms of inclusion James Lawrence Slattery illuminates how the framing of desire identity enjoyment resistance and knowledge contribute to the investment in neoliberal formations of being and success despite the corrosive effects neoliberalism has had for much of society The book does not read queerness on screen as a discernible group of characters or narrative formulas but as a point that meaning fails in the visual and temporal field Examining the interrelation of the real the imaginary and the symbolic in contemporary politics and contemporary media Slattery investigates how a diverse selection of moving image texts forge queerness as a relationship to the lack while crucially resisting the creation of a new or definitive canon Taking Back Desire will be essential reading for academics and scholars of Freudian and Lacanian psychoanalysis queer theory late capitalism film television and media studies sexuality studies critical race theory cultural studies and feminist theory
