Miracles, Political Authority and Violence in Medieval and Early Modern History Matthew Rowley, Natasha Hodgson, 2021-11-11 This volume examines how historical beliefs about the supernatural were used to justify violence secure political authority or extend toleration in both the medieval and early modern periods Contributors explore miracles political authority and violence in Orthodoxy Roman Catholicism various Protestant groups Judaism Islam and the local religious beliefs of Pacific Islanders who interacted with Christians The chapters are geographically expansive with contributions ranging from confessional conflict in Poland Lithuania to the conquest of Oceania They examine various types of conflict such as confessional struggles conversion attempts assassination and war as well as themes including diplomacy miraculous iconography toleration theology and rhetoric Together the chapters explore the appropriation of accounts of miraculous violence that are recorded in sacred texts to reveal what partisans claimed God did in conflict and how they claimed to know The volume investigates theories of justified warfare changing beliefs about the supernatural with the advent of modernity and the perceived relationship between human and divine agency Miracles Political Authority and Violence in Medieval and Early Modern History is of interest to scholars and students in several fields including religion and violence political and military history and theology and the reception of sacred texts in the medieval and early modern world

Fiji: The Challenges and Opportunities of Diversity Vijay Naidu, 2013-04-09 Fiji has experienced four military coups and a military mutiny since 1987 mainly as a result of tension between the majority indigenous Fijian population and an economically powerful Indian minority Smaller minorities including Banabans Rotumans Chinese Melanesians and other Pacific islanders are largely politically invisible and socially and economically excluded In January 2013 Fiji's government rejected a draft constitution drawn up by an independent commission and submitted it to be re-written by the Attorney General's office This intervention threatens to significantly undermine the people's confidence in the process the final document and a democratic future for Fiji Against the backdrop of these upheavals this report provides insight into the underlying causes and consequences of ethnic tensions in Fiji based on evidence drawn from extensive interviews across the diversity of Fiji's ethnic groups This report urges the government civil society and religious and ethnic community leaders to promote understanding tolerance and dialogue between groups It also provides specific recommendations on tackling ethnic discrimination and exclusion Tourism and the Less Developed World David Harrison,2001-01-01 Many less developed countries are expanding their tourism industries and these are seen to be crucial to their economic development Yet such activities can also create social cultural and environmental problems This book provides a review of many of the key issues involved in tourism in developing countries and presents a range of case studies These are interpreted from a perspective of the sociology and anthropology of development Case study chapters are presented from Africa Asia the Caribbean Latin America and Oceania The book provides essential reading for advanced students and researchers in tourism and development studies

The Pacific Islands Moshe Rapaport,1999 Forty five contributors offer information on the physical environment history culture population economy and living environment of the Pacific islands New Homelands Paul Younger,2010 Mauritius a parallel society Guyana invented traditions Trinidad ethnic religion South Africa reform religion Fiji a segregated society East Africa caste religion Nai Votavota Ni i Nuinui Andrew Thornley,2000 John Hunt was a Wesleyan missionary in Fiji for just a decade 1839 1848 Nevertheless his work was of such impact that he ensured the eventual conversion of the Fijians to Christianity This book examines Hunt s upbringing and training in England his marriage to Hannah Summers and their time of missionary work in Fiji Surrounded constantly by the vitality and prosperity of a warlike yet welcoming people Hunt introduced Western ideals of education and medicine together with the religious and ethical principles of Christianity His theological forms of education in Fiji as well as his many translations including the first Fijian New testament are enduring testimonies to his work Back cover Staying Fijian Rod Ewins,2009-07-31 Barkcloth or masi is the traditional art form of the women of Vatulele Island Its manufacture continues to flourish even increase while many other arts are declining despite the fact that most of its functional roles have been usurped by Western cloth and paper This book explores this apparent paradox and concludes that the reasons lie in the ability of its identity functions to buffer the effects of social stress This is so for not only Vatuleleans but all Fijians It is argued that the resultant strong indigenous demand has caused the efflorescence in barkcloth manufacture and use contrary to the common assumption that the tourism market is the savior of art This cultural vigor however has social costs that are explored here and weighed against its benefits Rod Ewins locates a very local activity in both national and global contexts historically sociologically and theoretically Exodus of the I Taukei Andrew Thornley,2002 When is the Nation? Atsuko Ichijo,Gordana Uzelac,2005-11-17 This new collection of key authors on nationalism presents the latest thinking on this fundamental aspect of Politics International Relations and Sociology John Breuilly Walker Connor Steven Grosby Eric Hobsbawm Anthony D Smith and Pierre van den Berghe comprehensively explain and address the key contemporary question in nationalism studies of when is the nation or what point in a nation s history is it born with authority and freshness Our world is still deeply imbedded in the language and practice of nations and nationalism and they remain central parts in understanding human society This comparison and contrast of the main approaches reveals their strengths and weaknesses This new text introduces the main schools of thought with clarity and concision tackles the most pertinent questions in nationalism delivers both theoretical and empirical perspectives uses an innovative new interactive debate format with questions and answers presents key case studies bringing theory to life The inclusion of case studies gives the reader fresh insight into specific nations and national groups including The United States Greece England and Fiji The accessible debate format puts main theories and thinkers to the test enabling the reader to interact with the issues directly This unique volume is an invaluable resource for students and scholars of nationalism ethnicity and global conflict

Patronage and Politics in the Victorian Empire , Globalisation and Governance in the Pacific Islands Stewart Firth,2006-12-01 The Pacific Islands are feeling the effects of globalisation Free trade in sugar and garments is threatening two of Fiji s key industries At the same time other opportunities are emerging Labour migration is growing in importance and Pacific governments are calling for more access to Australia s labour market Fiji has joined Samoa Tonga Tuvalu and Kiribati as a remittance economy with thousands of its citizens working overseas Meantime Papua New Guinea and Solomon Islands grapple with an older kind of globalisation in which overseas companies exploit mineral and forest resources The Pacific Islands confront unique problems of governance in this era of globalisation The modern democratic state often fits awkwardly with traditional ways of doing politics in that part of the world Just as often politicians in the Pacific exploit tradition or invent it to serve modern political purposes The contributors to this volume examine Pacific globalisation and governance from a wide range of perspectives They come from Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Hawai i the Federated States of Micronesia Samoa Fiji New Zealand and Jamaica as well as Australia Publisher s description

Contested Terrain Steven Ratuva,2019-09-10 Contested Terrain provides a cutting edge comprehensive and innovative approach to critically analysing the multidimensional and contested nature of security narratives justified by different ideological political cultural and economic rationales This is important in a complex and ever changing situation involving a dynamic interplay between local regional and global factors Security narratives are constructed in multiple ways and are used to frame our responses to the challenges and threats to our sense of safety wellbeing identity and survival but how the narratives are constructed is a matter of intellectual and political contestation Using three case studies from the Pacific Fiji Tonga and Solomon Islands Contested Terrain shows the different security challenges facing each country which result from their unique historical political and socio cultural circumstances Contrary to the view that the Pacific is a generic entity with common security issues this book argues for more localised and nuanced approaches to security framing and analysis

Islamisation A. C. S. Peacock,2017-03-08 The spread of Islam and the process of Islamisation meaning both conversion to Islam and the adoption of Muslim culture is explored in the twenty four chapters of this volume Taking a comparative perspective both the historical trajectory of Islamisation and the methodological problems in its study are addressed with coverage moving from Africa to China and from the seventh century to the start of the colonial period in 1800 Key questions are addressed What is meant by Islamisation How far was the spread of Islam as a religion bound up with the spread of Muslim culture To what extent are Islamisation and conversion parallel processes How is Islamisation connected to Arabisation What role do vernacular Muslim languages play in the promotion of Muslim culture The broad comparative perspective allows readers to develop a thorough understanding of the process of Islamisation over eleven centuries of its history The Fiji and New Caledonia Journals of Mary Wallis, 1851-1853 Mary Davis Wallis, 1994 Shifting Images of Identity in the Pacific Toon van Meijl, 2021-10-25 This book examines how identities emerge persist and change in various Pacific societies The shifting images of identity are explored in pre colonial colonial as well as post colonial circumstances All the essays in this volume address both continuity and discontinuity in the construction of identities in the rapidly changing Pacific region A region increasingly characterized by state formation processes and global influences The introduction provides a theoretical analysis of the changing paradigm in the study of identity over recent decades This is exemplified with a comparative overview of the emergence of a constructivist approach of culture tradition and identity in Pacific studies Nine ethnographic contributions subsequently address the central question from a variety of different angles Some chapters focus on classic topics such as migration and myth while others deal with indigenous peoples in modern nation states tourism economic development global consumerism or electronic communication The societies in question range from relatively isolated groups to communities living dispersed around the globe Each chapter provides valuable insights into the processes of identity in the Pacific over time An epilogue provides a comparative reading of the different theoretical solutions that have been proposed to make sense of the shifting images of identity in the contemporary increasingly transnational Pacific

Texts and Contexts Doug Munro, Brij V. Lal, 2005-11-30 Texts and Contexts is concerned with the development of Pacific Islands history as a specialization in its own right Specifically this volume examines the foundational texts that pioneered and consolidated the new subdiscipline and served as the building blocks and stepping stone for further developments in the field Thirty five texts all of which represent defining points in the development of Pacific Islands historiography are examined Much more than retrospective appraisals of the foundational texts the individual chapters consider a text or complimentary texts within the context of the time of writing and gauge what ongoing influence they exerted In some cases they suggest how a particular text has been superseded by subsequent work that breaks new conceptual ground in the ongoing process of revisionism Contributors Chris Ballard on Gavin Souter Ivan Brady on Greg Denning I C Campbell on Norma McArthur Bronwen Douglas and Doug Munro on H E Maude and Dorothy Shineberg Michael Goldsmith on Marshall Sahlins David Hanlon on Francis X Hezel K R Howe on Andrew Sharp and David Lewis Brij V Lal on K L Gillion and Peter Corris Hugh Laracy on Niel Gunson and Ta unga Lamont Lindstrom on Peter Worsley and Peter Lawrence Doug Munro on Douglas L Oliver R P Gilson J W Davidson and K R Howe Vincent O Malley on Keith Sinclair and Alan Ward Jon Osorio on Ralph

Kuykendall and Gavan Daws Tom Ryan on Bernard Smith Jane Samson on W P Morrell and Deryck Scarr Francis West on Francis West and Gavan Daws Glyndwr Williams on O H K Spate Tradition Versus Democracy in the South Pacific Stephanie Lawson,1996-01-26 Much literature on non Western traditions celebrates the renaissance of indigenous cultures Others have been more critical of this renaissance especially with respect to its political implications This study analyses the assertion of tradition by indigenous elites looking especially at the way it is used to differentiate the West from the non West This is important to contemporary discussion about the validity of democracy outside the West and problems concerning universalism and relativism The discussion of Fiji focuses on constitutional development and the traditionalist emphasis on chiefly legitimacy The rise of the Pro Democracy Movement in Tonga is considered against the background of a conservative political order that has so far resisted pressure for reform The move to universal suffrage in Western Samoa is seen not as a rejection of traditional ways in favour of democratic norms but as a means of preserving important aspects of traditional culture Mind, Materiality and History Christina Toren,2005-08-15 Mind Materiality and History has direct relevance to current debates on the nature of mind and consciousness and demonstrates the centrality of the study of children to social analysis
