and anyone interested in philosophy of religion or the history of medieval philosophy An Ocean Vast of Blessing Steven D. Cone,2014-07-09 Humans are made in the image of God and authentically coming to be human means to become like him This work pursues a robust and renewed theology of grace in conversation with the patristic traditions of Irenaeus the Cappadocian Fathers and Augustine the medieval theology of Maximus and Aquinas and such modern interlocutors as Soren Kierkegaard Bernard Lonergan John Milbank and John Behr It thereby regrounds our interpretation of Scripture in the wide tradition of the church By doing so it argues that Christ s incarnation crucifixion and resurrection form the only possible point of reference by which we can understand the universe as God creates it and works in it to bring us into union with himself Being A Primer Christopher Berry Gray,2015-07-24 Being A Primer rediscovers our appreciation of being It does this by finding the dynamic of essence and existence that being requires This dynamic expresses itself in single beings in multiple beings and in sequential beings Our acquaintance with being takes place across the whole of being by expressions that are as wide as being single realities in what are called by transcendental names Each being manifest this for itself and others beings are similar to some others showing its likenesses and differences in relation to other singular beings Beings dynamic of their essences and their existences does not just happen but occurs by each following others The multiplicity of beings shows itself by how the likenesses and the differences bring beings to be in succession not only all at once This structure of being permits some distinctive beings spiritual free and godly to be glimpsed as called for and from the primer of being as essence and existence Vegetative Powers Fabrizio Baldassarri,Andreas Blank,2021-05-25 The volume analyzes the natural philosophical accounts and debates concerning the vegetative powers namely nutrition growth and reproduction While principally focusing on the early modern approaches to the lower functions of the soul readers will discover the roots of these approaches back to the Ancient times as the volume highlights the role of three strands that help shape the study of life in the Medieval and early modern natural philosophies From late antiquity to the early modern period the vegetative soul and its cognate concepts have played a substantial role in specifying life living functions and living bodies sometimes blurring the line between living and non living nature and at other moments resulting in a strong restriction of life to a mechanical system of operations and powers Unearthing the history of the vegetative soul as a shrub of interconnected concepts the 24 contributions of the volume fill a crucial gap in scholarship ultimately outlining the importance of vegetal processes of incessant proliferation generation and organic growth as the roots of life in natural philosophical interpretations A Relational Moral Theory Thaddeus Metz,2021-12-23 Thaddeus Metz draws on African philosophical traditions to provide a new answer to a perennial philosophical question what do morally right actions have in common as distinct from wrong ones The ethical theory that Metz offers in response focuses on harmonious or communal relationships between people Feminist History of Philosophy: The Recovery and Evaluation of Women's Philosophical Thought Eileen O'Neill,Marcy P. Sensibility in the Early Modern Era Anik Waldow,2018-02-02 Sensibility in the Early Modern Era investigates how the early modern characterisation of sensibility as a natural property of the body could give way to complex considerations about the importance of affect in morality What underlies this understanding of sensibility is the attempt to fuse Lockean sensationism with Scottish sentimentalism being able to have experiences of objects in the world is here seen as being grounded in the same principle that also enables us to feel moral sentiments Moral and epistemic ways of relating to the world thus blend into one another as both can be traced to the same capacity that enables us to affectively respond to stimuli that impinge on our perceptual apparatus This collection focuses on these connections by offering reflections on the role of sensibility in the early modern attempt to think of the human being as a special kind of sensitive machine and affectively responsive animal Humans as they are understood in this context relate to themselves by sensing themselves and perpetually refining their intellectual and moral capacities in response to the way the world affects them Responding to the world here refers to the manner in which both natural and man made influences impact on our ability to conceptualise the animate and inanimate world and our place within that world This book was originally published as a special issue of the Intellectual History Review The Historicity of Understanding and the Problem of Relativism in Gadamer's Philosophical Hermeneutics Osman Bilen,2001

Mulla Sadra and Eschatology Eiyad S. Al-Kutubi,2014-09-15 The book explains Sadr s theory of the nature of afterlife It presents Sadr s philosophical premises concerning the nature of human beings and their physical and psychological developments through which Sadr shows how the afterlife is intimately connected to the nature of the human being and how it is a natural stage of the evolution of each individual in which a corporeal body has no role. Presenting Mull Sadr in a new light the aim of this book is to investigate Sadr's metaphysical principles of the Return al ma'd that have been either partially presented or misunderstood in most of the existing secondary literature. Focusing on Sadr's philosophical works specifically the Asf'r and his commentary on the Quran this study demonstrates how Sadr is a philosopher able to carry the premises of the previous philosophical theories to radically different conclusions. Mull Sadr and Eschatology demonstrates the manner in which Sadr explains the Return as presented in the Quran and Hadith but also shows how he presents the Return as a natural stage of the evolution of human beings in which a corporeal body has no role. Thus Sadr offers a plausible philosophical explanation to the problem of bodily resurrection that had occupied Muslim philosophers for centuries. Explaining Mull Sadr's distinctive method of doing philosophy this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Islamic Philosophy Religion and Islamic Studies more broadly.

Eternal Life and Human Happiness in Heaven Christopher M. Brown, 2021-08-22. Eternal Life and Human Happiness in Heaven treats four apparent problems concerning eternal life in order to clarify our thinking about perfect human happiness in heaven. The teachings of St Thomas Aquinas provide the basis for solutions to these four problems about eternal life insofar as his teachings call into question common contemporary theological or philosophical presuppositions about God, human persons and the nature of heaven itself. Indeed these Thomistic solutions often require us to think very differently from our contemporaries. But thinking differently with St Thomas is worth it for the Thomistic solutions to these apparent problems are more satisfying on both theological and philosophical grounds than a number of contemporary theological and philosophical approaches. Christopher Brown deploys his argument in four sections. The first section lays out in three chapters four apparent problems concerning eternal life: Is heaven a mystical or social reality? Is heaven otherworldly or thisworldly? Is heaven static or dynamic? Won't human persons eventually get bored in heaven? Brown then explains how and why some important contemporary Christian theologians and philosophers resolve these problems and notes serious problems with each of these contemporary solutions. The second section explains in five chapters St Thomas' significant distinction between the essential reward of the saints in heaven and the accidental reward and treats in detail his account of that in which the essential reward consists, namely the beatific vision and the proper accidents of the vision: delight, joy and charity. The third section treats in five chapters St Thomas' views on the multifaceted accidental reward in heaven where the accidental reward includes among other things glorified human embodiment, participation in the communion of the saints and the joy experienced by the saints in sensing God's new heavens and new earth. Finally, section four argues in four chapters that St Thomas' views allow for powerful solutions to the four apparent problems about eternal life examined in the first section. These solutions are powerful because not only are they consistent with authoritative Catholic Christian Tradition but they do not raise any of the significant theological or philosophical problems that attend the contemporary theological and philosophical solutions examined in the first section

The Hindu Quest for the Perfection of Man Troy W. Organ, 1998-07-27 A lucid thorough and fresh exploration of the material This is an exceedingly helpful study and may be the best single textbook on the subject Previously there was little of note in between inadequate introductions to Hindu thought and the more specialized primary or secondary materials Organ is a competent philosopher and presents the Hindu quest in a scholarly and readable form it is a key book for undergraduate libraries and would be an invaluable asset in a course which dealt seriously and at any length with the Hindu tradition Excellent bibliography Choice This is not just another book on Hinduism but a source of systematic information Bibliography of Philosophy This scholarly and perceptive account makes Hindu beliefs and practices intelligible by showing how the contradictions which have puzzled Westerners are rooted in Human Diversity The Review of Metaphysics
