That's Chemistry! Jan Rees, 2000 That's Chemistry is a concise manual of ideas activities and investigations about the science of materials and their properties for teachers to use with primary age children All experiments in this book have been trialled in schools It is designed for both specialist and non specialist primary teachers to encourage interest and enthusiasm in a new generation of scientists

Material Politics Andrew Barry, 2013-09-23 In Material Politics author Andrew Barry reveals that as we are beginning to attend to the importance of materials in political life materials has become increasingly bound up with the production of information about their performance origins and impact Presents an original theoretical approach to political geography by revealing the paradoxical relationship between materials and politics Explores how political disputes have come to revolve not around objects in isolation but objects that are entangled in ever growing quantities of information about their performance origins and impact Studies the example of the Baku Tbilisi Ceyhan oil pipeline a fascinating experiment in transparency and corporate social responsibility and its wide spread negative political impact Capitalizes on the growing interdisciplinary interest especially within geography and social theory about the critical role of material artefacts in political life

Best Practices for Human Rights and Humanitarian NGO Fact-Finding Jordan Berman, Gerald M. Steinberg, Anne Herzberg, 2012-03-02 This work outlines available resources and proposed standards for international NGO fact finding missions Chapter One presents an introduction to the issue of NGO fact finding Chapter Two discusses the problems caused by the lack of any generally accepted guidelines for NGO fact finding in contrast with contexts where NGOs have achieved consensus Chapter Three surveys proposed guidelines for human rights and humanitarian NGOs In addition this section examines United Nations fact finding standards as well as examples of internal fact finding standards for major NGOs Chapter Four analyzes the fact finding standards used in five specific cases the International Crisis Group Kosovo 1999 the Independent International Fact Finding Mission on the Conflict in Georgia Georgia 2008 United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights Mapping Exercise on the Democratic Republic of Congo 1993 2003 Conflict Analysis Resource Center University London study on Amnesty International and Human Rights Watch Colombia 1988 2004 and Human Rights Watch Lebanon 2006 The final chapter offers conclusions and recommendations

HPCR Practitioner's Handbook on Monitoring, Reporting, and Fact-Finding Program on Humanitarian Policy and Conflict Research, Rob Grace, Claude Bruderlein, 2017-10-12 This book offers a portrait of the practice of monitoring reporting and fact finding in the domain of human rights international humanitarian law and international criminal law By analyzing the experiences of fifteen missions implemented over the course of the past decade the book illuminates the key issues that these missions face and offers a roadmap for practitioners working on future missions This book is the result of a five year research study led by the Program on Humanitarian Policy and Conflict Research at Harvard University Massachusetts Based on extensive interviews conducted with fact finding practitioners this book consists of two parts Part I offers a handbook that details methodological considerations for the design and implementation of fact finding missions and commissions of inquiry Part II which consists of chapters written by scholars and practitioners presents a more in depth scholarly examination of past fact finding practices The School Librarian ,1996 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 Materials and Sustainable Development Michael F. Ashby,2015-01-19 This book from noted materials selection authority Mike Ashby provides a structure and framework for analyzing sustainable development and the role of materials in it The aim is to introduce ways of exploring sustainable development to readers in a way that avoids simplistic interpretations and approaches complexity in a systematic way There is no completely right answer to questions of sustainable development instead there is a thoughtful well researched response that recognizes concerns of stakeholders the conflicting priorities and the economic legal and social aspects of a technology as well as its environmental legacy The intent is not to offer solutions to sustainability challenges but rather to improve the quality of discussion and enable informed balanced debate Winner of a 2016 Most Promising New Textbook Award from the Textbook and Academic Authors Association Describes sustainable development in increasingly detailed progression from a broad overview to specific tools and methods Six chapter length case studies on such topics as biopolymers electric cars bamboo and lighting vividly illustrate the sustainable development process from a materials perspective Business and economic aspects are covered in chapters on corporate sustainability and the circular materials economy Support for course use includes online solutions manual and image bank Federal Communications Commission Reports. analysis of the law on each subject and illuminates it with numerous examples and cases taken from current industry practice. It also offers helpful tips and suggestions for keeping it legal without losing sight of the overall commercial objectives. Uniquely written from the practitioner's point of view, the text is structured to offer a complete and accessible picture of how the law can impinge on the job. Point of Law offers clear legal definitions or shows the generic application of a legal point in a real life context. Law in Action outlines actual legal cases and their outcomes with full referencing for the case available on the companion site. Insight offers background information providing a broader practical or commercial context for a legal topic. Checklist at end of each chapter itemises the key issues to bear in mind. Essential Law for Marketers covers all the key issues facing those working in the media. From making claims and statements, copyright, defamation, promotion and advertising through to lobbying, cybermarketing and ambush marketing, it is an invaluable reference guide for anyone working within the sector. It also functions as an excellent learning resource for all marketing students who need to appreciate the legal implications of industry practice. Federal Communications Commission, 1974 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Ciottone's Disaster Medicine - E-Book Gregory R. Ciottone, 2023-03-07. While medical specialists in disaster mitigation, preparedness and response are needed worldwide, the initial phase of disaster response is almost entirely dependent upon local resources, making it essential that all healthcare personnel have a working knowledge of the field and stand ready to integrate into the response system. Ciottone's Disaster Medicine, 3rd Edition, is the most comprehensive reference available to help accomplish these goals in every community. It thoroughly covers isolated domestic events as well as global disasters and humanitarian crises. Dr. Gregory Ciottone and more than 200 worldwide authorities share their knowledge and expertise on the preparation, assessment and management of both natural and man-made disasters, including lessons learned by the responders to contemporary disasters such as the COVID-19 pandemic, Australian and western U.S. wildfires, European heatwaves, the Beirut explosion, recent hurricanes and typhoons, and the global refugee crisis. Part 1 offers an A to Z resource for every aspect of disaster medicine and management, while Part 2 features an exhaustive compilation of every conceivable disaster event organized to facilitate quick reference in a real-time setting. Covers basic concepts such as identification of risks, organizational preparedness, equipment, planning, disaster education and training, and more advanced concepts such as disaster risk reduction, health in complex emergencies, building local disaster resiliency, psychological impact of disasters on children, and more. Contains new decision trees throughout that help guide you through the decision-making process in difficult situations. Uses an easy-to-follow templated approach to historical perspectives, overviews of current practice, including pre-incident and post-incident actions, medical treatment of casualties and potential pitfalls. Includes updated sections on man-made disasters, including mass casualties, active shooter situations, integrated response to terrorist attacks, and chemical, biological, radiological, nuclear, high-yield explosives disasters. Discusses the latest technologies such as the use of mobile disaster applications drone response systems and virtual reality simulation training Features thoroughly updated information on crisis leadership practical applications of disaster epidemiology disaster and climate change and the integration of non government agencies NGOs in disaster response a critical topic for those responding to humanitarian needs overseas Includes new chapters on Pandemic Preparedness and Response Disaster Medicine in a Changing Climate Disaster Response in Asia Building Local Capacity and Disaster Resiliency Civilian Military Coordination in Disaster Response Medical Simulation in Disaster Preparedness Disaster Nursing Crisis Meta Leadership Palliative Care in Disasters Counter Terrorism Medicine SARS CoV COVID 19 and SARS and Disasters in Space Travel An eBook version is included with purchase The eBook allows you to access all of the text figures and references with the ability to search customize your content make notes and highlights and have content read aloud Broadcasting Empire Simon J. Potter, 2012-07-05

Broadcasting was born just as the British empire reached its greatest territorial extent and matured while that empire began to unravel Radio and television offered contemporaries the beguiling prospect that new technologies of mass communication might compensate for British imperial decline In Broadcasting Empire Simon J Potter shows how from the 1920s the BBC used broadcasting to unite audiences at home with the British settler diaspora in Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa High culture royal ceremonial sport and even comedy were harnessed to this end particularly on the BBC Empire Service the predecessor of today's World Service Belatedly during the 1950s the BBC also began to consider the role of broadcasting in Africa and Asia as a means to encourage development and to combat resistance to continued colonial rule However during the 1960s as decolonization entered its final accelerated phase the BBC staged its own imperial retreat This is the first full length scholarly study to examine both the home and overseas aspects of the BBC's imperial mission Drawing on new archival evidence it demonstrates how the BBC's domestic and imperial roles while seemingly distinct in fact exerted a powerful influence over one another Broadcasting Empire makes an important contribution to our understanding of the transnational history of broadcasting emphasising geopolitical rivalries and tensions between British and American attempts to exert influence on the world's radio and television systems Return Engagements Viet Lê, 2021-04-12 In Return

Engagements artist and critic Vi t L examines contemporary art in Cambodia and Vi t Nam to rethink the entwinement of militarization trauma diaspora and modernity in Southeast Asian art Highlighting artists tied to Phnom Penh and Si g n and drawing on a range of visual art as well as documentary and experimental films L points out that artists of Southeast Asian descent are often expected to address the twin traumas of armed conflict and modernization and shows how desirable art on these themes is on international art markets As the global art market fetishizes trauma and violence artists strategically align their work with those tropes in ways that L suggests allow them to reinvent such aesthetics and discursive spaces By returning to and refashioning these themes artists such as Tiffany Chung Rithy Panh and Sopheap Pich challenge categorizations of diasporic and local by situating themselves as insiders and outsiders relative to Cambodia and Vi t Nam By doing so they disrupt dominant understandings of place time and belonging in contemporary art Social Media at BBC News Valerie Belair-Gagnon,2015-02-11 Since the emergence of social media in the journalistic landscape the BBC has sought to produce reporting more connected to its audience while retaining its authority as a public broadcaster in crisis reporting Using empirical analysis of crisis news production at the BBC this book shows that the emergence of social media at the BBC and the need to manage this kind of material led to a new media logic in which tech savvy journalists take on a new centrality in the newsroom In this changed context the politico economic and socio cultural logic have led to a more connected newsroom involving this new breed of journalists and BBC audience This examination of news production events shows that in the midst of transformations in journalistic practices and norms including newsgathering sourcing distribution and impartiality the BBC has reasserted its authority as a public broadcaster Click here for a short video about the book

More Bad News (Routledge Revivals) Peter Beharrell,Howard Davis,John Eldridge,John Hewitt,Jean Hart,Gregg Philo,Paul Walton,Brian Winston,2009-10-15 First published in 1980 More Bad News is the Second Volume in the research findings of the Glasgow University Media Group It develops the analytic findings and methods of the first volume Bad News through a series of Case Studies of Television News Coverage and argues that much of what passes as balanced and factual news reporting is produced from a highly partial viewpoint Focusing on the British economy in crisis and its thematic linkage with the Social Contract during the first four months of 1975 the book deals with three main levels of activity the story the language and the visuals As the book unpacks each level of routine news coverage a picture emerges which has the surface appearance of neutrality and balance but is in fact highly partial and restricted Finding Happiness Christopher Jamison,2008-12-19 Abbot Christopher Jamison from hit TV series THE MONASTERY turns his attention to the eternal questions of how to be happy and why we believe it is so important Why is being happy such an imperative nowadays What meaning do people give happiness In this book Abbot Christopher turns to monastic wisdom to offer answers and to explain that in essence happiness is a gift not an achievement the fruit of giving and receiving blessings Following the same accessible and engaging format of FINDING SANCTUARY Abbot Christopher takes different aspects of happiness examines them tells us what monastic wisdom has to say about them and offers us steps towards our own journey to finding happiness

International Human Rights Law and Practice Ilias Bantekas,Lutz Oette,2020-04-23 This unique textbook merges human rights law with its practice from the courtroom to the battlefield Human rights are analysed in their particular context and the authors assess among other things the impact of international finance the role of NGOs and the protection of rights in times of emergency including the challenges posed by counter terrorism In parallel a series of interviews with practitioners case studies and practical applications offer multiple perspectives and challenging questions on the effective implementation of human rights Although the book comprehensively covers the traditional areas of international human rights law including its regional and international legal and institutional framework it also encompasses through distinct chapters or large sections areas that have a profound impact on human rights worldwide such as women s rights human rights and globalisation refugees and migration human rights obligations of non state actors debt and human rights and others
