Midnight Oil Midnight Notes Collective (U.S.), 1992-01-01 Nonfiction MIDNIGHT OIL is a political journey through two decades of social struggles ranging from the oil fields of the Middle East and Africa to the coal mines of Appalachia and the homes and neighborhoods of America and Europe Tracing the unifying themes of work energy oil and war it draws a physiognomy of the planetary proletariat connecting escaped indentured servants from India to oil workers sabotaging production in the Niger Delta Gulf War resisters in New York to Kurdish rebels in Iraq insurrectionary Iranian students to wildcat autoworkers in Detroit housewives on rent strike in Italy to Boston burners of midnight oil This book suggests new boundaries hidden political commonalities and possible strategies for confronting the New World Order The Police and Society Victor E. Kappeler, Brian P. Schaefer, 2018-09-11 The most productive route to understanding the dynamic interrelationships of the police with society is to examine the recurring central themes in policing The articles in this anthology represent some of the best scholarship on compelling issues Selected for both their complementary and competing natures the articles serve as touchstones for one another often challenging previous conceptions Many selections question the methods by which information was acquired the practices that evolved from that information and the background assumptions behind the construction of practices Some of the many issues and conflicts addressed in this collection include What is the nature of the police role and function Who benefits from police service Who is harmed How are public safety and social order secured while maintaining individual rights and freedoms To what extent do our expectations about the police and society reflect our values and demands Are the police a society unto themselves Is policing at a critical crossroads The editors assembled this volume with the goal of helping readers to identify underlying assumptions to dissect how values influence inquiries and to discover connections A better understanding of the role of the police in society provides a solid foundation for assessing the efficacy of future police society relationships The United Nations Organization Tatah Mentan, 2020-05-19 Saving succeeding generations from the scourge of war was the main motivation for creating the United Nations Given the ongoing conflicts wars and terrorist attacks today one is forced to ask Is there Hope for International Peace and Security Where have the safeguards gone to Has the United Nations become powerless in the face of absence of the safeguards In this book Professor Tatah Mentan examines the transformation in UN peace and security operations analysing its changing role and structure Tatah Mentan argues that the enemy of peace and security in the global system is the dictatorship of predatory bailed out monopoly capitalism that tells us that building war ships is more important than building alternate energy infrastructure The real enemies are therefore the publicly bailed out monopolies Big Media Big Pharma Big Oil the Military Industrial Complex etc that deny the truth about conflicts and insecurity As he emphasises the enemies are those who refuse to think critically not being intellectually curious and accepting the supremacist fascist and misgovernance that is reducing the world collectively to being cogs in a diabolical machine of neoliberal global capitalism

Cyber-Marx Nick Dyer-Witheford, 1999 In this highly readable and thought provoking work Nick Dyer Witheford assesses the relevance of Marxism in our time and demonstrates how the information age far from transcending the historic conflict between capital and its laboring subjects constitutes the latest battleground in their encounter Dyer Witheford maps the dynamics of modern capitalism showing how capital depends for its operations not just on exploitation in the immediate workplace but on the continuous integration of a whole series of social sites and activities from public health and maternity to natural resource allocation and the geographical reorganization of labor power He also shows how these sites and activities may become focal points of subversion and insurgency as new means of communication vital for the smooth flow of capital also permit otherwise isolated and dispersed points of resistance to connect and combine with one another Cutting through the smokescreen of high tech propaganda Dyer Witheford predicts the advent of a reinvented autonomist Marxism that will rediscover the possibility of a collective communist transformation of society Refuting the utopian promises of the information revolution he discloses the real potentialities for a new social order in the form of a twenty first century communism based on the common sharing of wealth

Value Making in International Economic Law and Regulation Donatella Alessandrini, 2016-01-29 This book examines the contemporary production of economic value in today's financial economies Much of the regulatory response to the global financial crisis has been based on the assumption that curbing the speculative excesses of the financial sphere is a necessary and sufficient condition for restoring a healthy economic system endowed with real values as distinct from those produced by financial markets How though can the intrinsic value of goods and services produced in the sphere of the so called real economy be disentangled from the artificial value engineered within the financial sphere Examining current projects of international legal regulation this book questions the regulation of the financial sphere insofar as its excesses are juxtaposed to some notion of economic normality Given the problem of neatly distinguishing these domains and so more generally between economy and society and production and social reproduction it considers the limits of our current conceptualization of value production and measurement with specific reference to arrangements in the areas of finance trade and labour Drawing on a range of innovative work in the social sciences and attentive to the spatial and temporal connections that make the global economy as well as the racial gender and class articulations of the social reproductive field within it it further asks what alternative arrangements might be able to affect and indeed alter the value making processes that underlie our current international regulatory framework
