Migrant Labour In Kenya Capitalism And African Response 1895 1975:

Capital and Labour on the Kimberley Diamond Fields, 1871-1890 Robert Vicat Turrell, 1987-09-17 Based on new documentary sources this history of diamond mining in Kimberley is a major study of South Africa's mineral revolution and the formation of De Beers Consolidated Mines one of the most successful African mining companies The Political Economy of Sugar Production in Colonial Kenya Godriver Wanga-Odhiambo, 2016-07-29 This book describes the Asian agency in sugar production in colonial Nyanza and additionally examines the Asian initiative and the development of commercial cane farming in Central Nyanza It provides a different perspective on the Asian initiative in agriculture by showing how Asians were involved in sugarcane farming and how production of sugar in colonial Nyanza was eventually made possible by Asian capital This study relies mainly on primary sources secondary sources and oral interviews The archival sources were derived from the Kenya National Archives The primary materials included annual reports of the Department of Agriculture District annual reports Provincial reports monthly intelligence reports colonial officials correspondence and correspondence from East Africa India National Congress Oral interviews were also conducted to verify some information while the secondary sources were used to supplement the sources This work is unique first due to its extensive use of archival sources as most of these archival sources have not been used by other scholars in the field Secondly it deals with all parts of the sugar production process it shows the connection to the current sugar situation in Kenya and also provides a framework in which to understand the persistent insufficiency in Kenya's sugar industry This work provides an important contribution to Kenyan economic history An Economic History of Kenya William Robert Ochieng', Robert M. Maxon, 1992 The Origins of Industrial Capitalism in India Rajnarayan Chandavarkar, 1994 The first major study of the relationship between labour and capital in India's economic development in the early twentieth century The author considers the spread of capitalism and the growth of the cotton textile industry , Singing the Law Peter Leman, 2020-04-18 Singing the Law is about the legal lives and afterlives of oral cultures in East Africa particularly as they appear within the pages of written literatures during the colonial and postcolonial periods In examining these cultures this book begins with an analysis of the cultural narratives of time and modernity that formed the foundations of British colonial law Recognizing the contradictory nature of these narratives i.e. both promoting and retreating from the Euro centric ideal of temporal progress enables us to make sense of the many representations of and experiments with non linear open ended and otherwise experimental temporalities that we find in works of East African literature that take colonial law as a subject or point of critique Many of these works furthermore consciously appropriate orature as an expressive form with legal authority This affords them the capacity to challenge the narrative foundations of colonial law and its postcolonial residues and offer alternative models of temporality and modernity that give rise in turn to alternative forms of legality East Africa's oral jurisprudence ultimately has implications not only for our understanding of law and literature in colonial and postcolonial contexts but more broadly for our understanding of how the global south has shaped modern law as we know and experience it today Conflict and Accommodation in Western Kenya Robert M. Maxon,1989 The Gusii people of Kenya Africa were the last major Kenyan ethnic group to be conquered by the British This is an account of their experience under colonial control and a portrayal of their strong and steadfast resistance Illustrated with maps and tables The Struggle for Land and Justice in Kenya Ambreena Manji,2020 Explores the limits of law in changing unequal land relations in Kenya Aids and Religious Practice in Africa Felicitas Becker,Wenzel Geissler,2009-02-23 This volume explores how AIDS is understood confronted and lived with through religious ideas and practices and how these in turn are reinterpreted and changed by the experience of AIDS Examining the social production and productivity of AIDS linking bodily and spiritual experiences and religious medical political and economic discourses the papers counter simplified notions of causal effects of AIDS on religion or vice versa Instead they display people s resourcefulness in their struggle to move ahead in spite of adversity This relativises the vision of doom widely associated with the African AIDS epidemic and it allows to see AIDS instead of a singular event as the culmination of a century long process of changing livelihoods bodily well being and spiritual imaginaries Maternal and Child Health in Kenya Richard Nelson Ochieng K'Okul,1991 Rural Development And Migration Sally E. Findley,Calvin Goldscheider,2019-10-16 Perhaps because I grew up on a farm in Ohio I have long been interested in rural development Although I flil St became a migrant at the age of 17 when I left the farm to continue my studies in a city college I was not aware of the relation between rural development and migration until many years later when I began studying patterns of urban and rural poverty This research has grown out of my continuing investigation of the ways that migration has been seen as both a response to chronic conditions of rural poverty and a factor potentially exacerbating urban poverty conditions If governments wanted to deal with urban poverty they would want to restrict urban in migration yet if they reduced urban in migration this would remove one of the important means available to persons seeking to raise themselves out of rural impoverishment This would clearly be a no win situation for the rural poor the only way to deal fairly with both urban and rural poverty would be to foster socio economic development of rural areas Thus I became interested in studying the patterns of rural development which actually have had an effect on the migration decisions of rural families Drinking Susanna Barrows,Robin Room,2023-11-15 Drinking Behavior and Belief in Modern History explores the complex and multifaceted role of alcohol in shaping cultures societies and behaviors throughout modern history The book brings together diverse essays from historians and sociologists examining how alcohol consumption has influenced daily life social movements and political ideologies By exploring the material and symbolic significance of alcohol the volume sheds light on its place in social history drawing connections between drinking practices and broader societal changes The book also delves into the responses to alcohol related problems from the temperance movements of the 19th century to modern day medicalization and state interventions showing how alcohol has been both a source of cultural identity and a focal point for social control Through interdisciplinary perspectives the collection offers valuable insights into how alcohol consumption reflects and shapes power dynamics class structures and cultural norms By analyzing drinking subcultures the book uncovers the different ways alcohol has been consumed and understood across time and places from working class taverns to elite private rituals The authors also explore how alcohol related policies and societal reactions have evolved offering a deep and thoughtful look into the complex relationship between alcohol and society Drinking Behavior and Belief in Modern History is an essential read for anyone interested in understanding the social cultural and political dimensions of alcohol throughout modern history This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1991

Administration and Taxation in Former Portuguese Africa Philip J. Havik,Alexander Keese,Maciel Santos,2015-06-18 This book addresses a notable gap in the knowledge of Portuguese colonial administration and the policies implemented in the main territories of its third African empire Angola Mozambique and Guinea In recent years the question of colonial taxation has become a topic in the academic debate on colonial empires and has led to a comparative long term focus on its impact in African societies Given that former Portuguese colonies in Africa have been largely absent from this debate this bo

Politics of the Womb Lynn M. Thomas,2003-08-20 In Thomas s skilled hands and in her unabashed love of story telling intimate events in Kenya help us think more clearly and more critically about

Africa in the twentieth century The politics of the womb are at the core of the colonial experience and of colonial politics Africans struggled amongst themselves over the regulation of reproduction and these layers of intimate strife and the policies and protests emanating from London and mission hospitals and African homesteads give us something we haven't had before a gendered and transnational colonial history Luise White author of Speaking with Vampires: Rumor and History in Colonial Africa

Decolonization & Independence in Kenya, 1940-93 Bethwell A. Ogot, William Robert Ochieng', 1995 This is a sharply observed assessment of the history of the last half century by a distinguished group of historians of Kenya At the same time the book is a courageous reflection in the dilemmas of African nationhood Professor B A Ogot says The main purpose of the book is to show that decolonization does not only mean the transfer of alien power to sovereign nationhood it must also entail the liberation of the worlds of spirit and culture as well as economics and politics The book also raises a more fundamental question that is How much independence is available to any state national economy or culture in today's world It asks how far are Africa's miseries linked to the colonial past and to the process of decolonization In particular the book raises the basic question of how far Kenya is avoidably neo colonial And what does neo colonial dependence mean The book answers these questions by discussing the dynamic between the politics of decolonization the social history of class formation and the economics of dependence The book ends with a provocative epilogue discussing the transformation of the post colonial state from a single party to a multi party system

Worries of the Heart Kenda Mutongi, 2008-09-15 Growing up in the Maragoli community in Kenya Kenda Mutongi encountered a perplexing contradiction While the young teachers at her village school railed against colonialism many of her elders including her widowed mother praised their former British masters In this moving book Mutongi explores how both the challenges and contradictions of colonial rule and the frustrations and failures of independence shaped the lives of Maragoli widows and their complex relations with each other their families and the larger community Throughout the twentieth century and into the twenty first rates of widowhood have been remarkably high in Kenya Yet despite their numbers widows and their families exist at the margins of society and their lives act as a barometer for the harsh realities of rural Kenya Mutongi here argues that widows survive by publicly airing their social economic and political problems their worries of the heart Initially aimed at the men in their community and then their colonial rulers this strategy changed after independence as widows increasingly invoked the language of citizenship to demand their rights from the new leaders of Kenya leaders whose failure to meet the needs of ordinary citizens has led to deep disenchantment and altered Kenyans view of their colonial past An innovative blend of ethnography and historical research Worries of the Heart is a poignant narrative rich with insights into postcolonial Africa
