Parallel Journeys:

Parallel Journeys: A New Age Novel Anu Majumdar, 1997 Parallel Journeys Eleanor H. Ayer, 2011-06-28 She was a young German Jew He was an ardent member of the Hitler Youth This is the story of their parallel journey through World War II Helen Waterford and Alfons Heck were born just a few miles from each other in the German Rhineland But their lives took radically different courses Helen s to the Auschwitz concentration camp Alfons to a high rank in the Hitler Youth While Helen was hiding in Amsterdam Alfons was a fanatic believer in Hitler s master race While she was crammed in a cattle car bound for the death camp Auschwitz he was a teenage commander of frontline troops ready to fight and die for the glory of Hitler and the Fatherland This book tells both of their stories side by side in an overwhelming account of the nightmare that was World War II The riveting stories of these two remarkable people must stand as a powerful lesson to us all U.S. History Through Children's Literature Wanda Miller, 1997-03-15 Allow students to step back in time to experience the thoughts feelings dilemmas and actions of people from history For each history topic Miller suggests two titles one for use with the entire class and one for use with small reading groups Summaries of the books author information activities and topics for discussion are supplemented with vocabulary lists and ideas for research topics and further reading This integrated approach makes history meaningful to students and helps them retain historical details and facts Beyond Liquidity Brad Pasanek, Simone Polillo, 2013-08-21 Liquidity or rather lack of it lies at the heart of the ongoing global financial crisis In this collection of essays the metaphor of money as liquidity and the model of crisis it entails is deliberated by a range of scholars from economics history anthropology literature and sociology This volume offers a rhetorical explanation of the social cultural and historical contexts in which metaphors of money are produced circulate and fail These essays first presented at After the Crash Beyond Liquidity a conference on money and metaphors held at the University of Virginia USA in October of 2009 were drafted in the wake of global uncertainty TARP bailouts the Great Recession programs of stimulus and austerity and recurrent threats of sovereign default in the EU They question the language of liquidity and flows that is characteristic of everyday business exposing what metaphors of money hide and explaining why the idea of liquidity has proved so durable This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Cultural Economy Shattered Justice Kimberly J. Cook, 2022-08-12 Shattered Justice presents original crime victims experiences with violent crime investigations and trials and later exonerations in their cases Using in depth interviews with 21 crime victims across the United States Cook reveals how homicide victims family members and rape survivors describe the painful impact of the primary trauma the secondary trauma of the investigations and trials and then the tertiary trauma associated with wrongful convictions and exonerations Important lessons and analyses are shared related to grief and loss and healing and repair Using restorative justice practices to develop and deliver healing retreats for survivors also expands the practice of restorative justice Finally policy reforms aimed at preventing mitigating and repairing the harms of wrongful convictions is covered Simone de Beauvoir's Fiction Louise Renée, Alison Holland, 2005 This collection of essays brings an approach to Beauvoir studies and makes an important contribution to Beauvoir's writing practice in her novels and short stories and analysis the extent to which the meaning of her texts cannot be separated from the way they are written Vertical Line Peter Preston, 2014-07-26 Vertical Line is both a book length prose poem and a modern novel It also represents a cosmology At its heart where life might begin are giant and fearful forms rock lords and a suffering figure and light which spreads outwards touching inner surfaces Caring for the Dying at Home Keri Thomas, 2020-03-11 This comprehensive resource book the key text for the Gold Standards Framework GSF Programme supports and enables all primary health professionals and all those involved in palliative care to make improvements in care provided for their patients as recommended in the NICE guidance on Supportive and Palliative Care It aims to strengthen the role confidence systems and skills of primary healthcare teams for the delivery of palliative care and patient support The GSF recommended and promoted by the NHS End of Life Initiative Modernisation Agency and Macmillan is already used by over 1000 teams in the UK and is now being offered to every primary care team to improve end of life care for all The Lucan Journey Maria Yen Thi Do, 2010 This work investigates the Lucan journey motif from a literary and theological perspective It starts by examining the indications of movement in the narrative sequence of the Gospel Using the historical critical method the author continues with a study of the Transfiguration Luke 9 28 36 and the Ascension Acts 1 6 11 narratives and presents a comparison between them The work concludes with an investigation of the Lucan journey in the two volume work of Luke On the literary level the author suggests that the Transfiguration and the Ascension narratives are composed as an architectural pair and in turn serve as the respective starting points for the parallel journeys in Luke Acts On the theological level she shows that the two journeys are in fact two stages of the one unique journey namely the journey of the Salvific Message Thus the author provides a further confirmation of the unity of the two volume work of Luke The Idea of the Labyrinth from Classical Antiquity through the Middle Ages Penelope Reed Doob, 2019-03-15 Ancient and medieval labyrinths embody paradox according to Penelope Reed Doob Their structure allows a double perspective the baffling fragmented prospect confronting the maze treader within and the comprehensive vision available to those without Mazes simultaneously assert order and chaos artistry and confusion articulated clarity and bewildering complexity perfected pattern and hesitant process In this handsomely illustrated book Doob reconstructs from a variety of literary and visual sources the idea of the labyrinth from the classical period through the Middle Ages Doob first examines several complementary traditions of the maze topos showing how ancient historical and geographical writings generate metaphors in which the labyrinth signifies admirable complexity while poetic texts tend to suggest that the labyrinth is a sign of moral duplicity She then describes two common models of the labyrinth and explores their formal implications the unicursal model with no false turnings found almost universally in the visual arts and the multicursal model with blind alleys and dead ends characteristic of literary texts This paradigmatic clash between the labyrinths of art and of literature becomes a key to the metaphorical potential of the maze as Doob's examination of a vast array of materials from the classical period through the Middle Ages suggests. She concludes with linked readings of four labyrinths of words: Virgil's Aeneid, Boethius' Consolation of Philosophy, Dante's Divine Comedy, and Chaucer's House of Fame, each of which plays with and transforms received ideas of the labyrinth as well as reflecting and responding to aspects of the texts that influenced it. Doob not only provides fresh theoretical and historical perspectives on the labyrinth tradition but also portrays a complex medieval aesthetic that helps us to approach structurally elaborate early works. Readers in such fields as Classical literature, Medieval Studies, Renaissance Studies, comparative literature, literary theory, art history, and intellectual history will welcome this wide-ranging and illuminating book.

The Long Half-Lives of Love and Trauma Helen Epstein, 2019-07-31. This intrepid memoir tracks sexual harassment and sexual abuse in the life of a veteran American journalist. It also describes the long and ultimately successful psychotherapy the author undertook to heal. The Long Half-Lives of Love and Trauma invents its own genre, wrote Sherry Turkle. The author suspects sexual abuse in her childhood and investigates with the toolkits of an historian and ethnographer. The result is a memoir that is what Eva Hoffman calls a true labor of memory in which the story of the body is inseparable from the narrative of the self. This memoir is the third of a non-fiction trilogy following Helen Epstein's Children of the Holocaust: Conversations with Sons and Daughters of Survivors (Putnam, 1979) and Where She Came From: A Daughter's Search for Her Mother's History (Little Brown, 1997), both widely translated. As Gloria Steinem wrote, in Epstein's hands truth becomes not only stranger than fiction but more magnetic. Clear-eyed, fearless, taboo-breaking. This trilogy is unusual not only because nearly 40 years separate the first and last volumes, with the second positioned midway at the 20-year mark, but also because the works differ so greatly in style, structure, and content. The Long Half-Lives of Love and Trauma's major contribution is its willingness to talk openly and place forefront a personal trauma of sexual abuse in its post-Holocaust context. Helen Epstein has consistently rejected sanitizing Jewish history, including women's history. She has refused to keep secrets that she knew needed to be told and she has avoided idealization, nostalgia, and hagiography. Irena Klepfisz, Tablet Magazine. Epstein takes the reader through her decades-long process of self-discovery, understanding, and healing, accomplished through a strong bond of friendship, a solid and supportive family, and the powerfully restorative effects of psychoanalysis, written with page-turning clarity, openness, and complete honesty. This is a ground-breaking memoir in style and in its contribution to the issues of sexual abuse. Berkshire Eagle. This book invents its own genre. Eminent journalist Helen

The Top Books of the Year Parallel Journeys The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Parallel Journeys : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Parallel Journeys : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
