

11 Things Kids Want From Parents

1. Showing is better than telling - I learn by watching you.
2. Love me - Give me hugs and kisses. You can't spoil me with those.
3. Kind and firm discipline - My brain is still developing and so I'm slow in learning. But I do want to learn, if you patiently and kindly teach me.
4. Be my safe haven - Always be here for me no matter what.
5. Talk with me - Don't just talk to me.
6. Hear me - Sometimes I just want to be heard without judgement or lecture.
7. Accept who I am - Don't constantly compare me to other kids.
8. Let me play outside a lot
9. Give me food that is nutritious and yummy
10. Trust me - Let me make my own decisions on non-safety or health related things. I couldn't learn to walk without falling. I can't learn to make good decisions without making bad ones.
11. Encourage me - Your praise means so much to me.

Merit Hietanen,2023-11-13 Aid sector staff work in some of the world s most challenging environments from conflict zones to sites of natural disaster and refugee camps For a long time the aid worker was typified by the lone white male flying from place to place and seeing his family during the holidays But now as the world changes and the sector diversifies how can family life be reconciled with the challenges and travel commitments of this particularly difficult career This book delves deep into these challenges exposing the problems that persist and pointing a path for organisations to adopt a more human centred staff centred parent centred feminist approach to humanitarian and development work Drawing on the author s own experiences as an aid worker as well as extensive original interviews and desk research the book looks at the challenges faced by those who aspire to a family life from finding a partner who is willing and able to live in the same location to dating in difficult contexts to being away from home and extended family finding child care and settling children in new countries and cultures Local workers face their own challenges often suffering from a lack of support in comparison to their international colleagues For many the cost is too great and the sector suffers from a brain drain as experienced staff leave It doesn't need to be this way The book points a way for organisations to adopt policies that support mothers and fathers As well as being a useful guide for aid professionals who are themselves navigating these issues the book will be perfect for organisations looking to reform and for students wishing to understand the realities of a career in aid MegaSkills©
