Parents Gender And Education Reform:

Parents, Gender and Education Reform Miriam E. David,1993-05-07 This book provides a detailed review of the complex relations between families and schools in the context of changing family structures and educational policies Equality and Inequality in Education Policy Liz Dawtrey,1995 Discusses the history and gendered nature of education policy and the impact of policies on practice in education The articles represent a range of views and approaches to education demonstrating the complexity of educational experience and the influence of class race culture and gender The Politics of Gender and Education S. Ali,S. Benjamin,M. Mauthner,2003-11-25 What are the politics of gender within education How are the issues of gender being explored in diverse educational settings Does gender still matter in education This book draws together the work from an international array of authors working at the cutting edge of gender research in education From policy issues affecting single mothers to the incorporation of Southern learning into Northern contexts this collection provides a compelling argument for renewed engagement with gender issues at both macro and micro political levels within the full range of educational contexts from primary to higher education Gender, Policy and Educational Change Sheila Riddell,Jane Salisbury,2003-05-20 Gender equality has been a major educational theme for the past two decades and has become interwoven with other policy themes including those of marketisation and managerialism Contributors to this strong collection are key researchers in their fields and seek to address the following questions What patterns are discernible in the educational attainment of girls and boys over the past two decades To what extent are changes attributable to gender equality policies What form have gender equality policies taken in different parts of the UK What has been the impact of European equality policies How have gender equality policies been experienced by particular groups including pupils from ethnic minority and working class backgrounds This book aims to take an overall look at how significant have been the changes in experiences aspirations and culture of girls and boys and male and female teachers It explores how attempts to improve equal opportunities in education have fared and examines the tensions and contradictions in recent policies

Parents And Teachers Carol Vincent,2013-10-08 This work examines the factors that shape and influence home school relations At its heart is an analysis of parent teacher relationships in an inner city borough drawn from case studies of five primary schools and a parents centre Interviews with parents are revealing windows into parents views on a range of issues including curriculum discipline and parents relationships with their children s teachers The author also considers teachers perspectives on these matters and explores the influence of social class ethnicity and gender on parent teacher interactions While presenting these issues within a consideration of broader themes such as citizenship community power and participation the book discusses the reasons why initiatives designed to improve home school relations appear to result in such limited change Governing Children, Families and Education M. Bloch,Thomas S. Popkewitz,K. Holmlund,I. Moqvist,2016-09-27 This is a collection of essays that address the international changes in welfare policy The book discusses the new patterns of governing associated with the notions of welfare care and education that emerge during the late Twentieth and early Twenty first centuries The issues examined are among others the role of international donors and their emphasis on efficiency and lower social subsidies international migration and its impact on welfare policy inclusions and exclusions and national policy change While representing many different locations and traditions contributors work within a variety of critical theoretical perspectives that critique our cultural ways of reasoning about the care and education of the child the role and practice of the state and the social and cultural construction of citizenship and nationhood Leaders in Gender and Education Marcus B. Weaver- Hightower,Christine Skelton,2013-09-04 Gender studies are a key lens through which education has been examined in the past forty years having become an accepted and popular subfield in educational foundations studies Moreover scholars in gender and education have made tremendous contributions well beyond education influencing humanities and social sciences scholars across the academy Hearing the stories of these scholars their development education important works and thoughts on the future offers unique insights into the genesis and growth of the field and gives new scholars an overview of advances made Leaders in Gender and Education Intellectual Self Portraits does just that showing the history of gender and education through the eyes of 16 of its leaders By recounting their experiences and scholarly work they trace the development of feminist and profeminist research on girls on boys and on the issues shaping both gender and education issues like race sexuality neoliberalism globalization and more Importantly the volume has a global focus including scholars from the United States Canada the United Kingdom and Australia This diversity gives readers a broad sense of the progress of gender scholarship in education around the world Each essay provides students and researchers alike with not only background on the 16 scholars included but also the lists of major works chosen by contributors themselves direct readers to some of the most important scholarship on gender and education Taken together further the contributors thoughts on the future of the field provide glimpses of productive directions for studies of gender and education

Education, Reform and the State John Furlong,Robert Phillips,2002-11 This book supplies the definitive contemporary history of education policy in the late twentieth century Some of the leading educationalists reflect on the major legislative and structural changes in the field over the last 25 years Educational Partnerships and the State: The Paradoxes of Governing Schools, Children, and Families B. Franklin,M. Bloch,T. Popkewitz,2003-12-18 Educational Partnerships and the State is a compelling collection of essays by an international group of scholars that provides a critical exploration of the role of partnerships in contemporary educational reform Their focus is on the expanding role that collaboration between the public and private sector has come to play in the governing of schools children and families in response to an array of worldwide economic and social changes The contributors to this volume highlight the new relationship between civil society and the state through partnerships and what that linkage has come to mean for an array of educational issues including academic achievement school governance school parent relationships teacher education the construction of family and community involvement and the discourses of reform as practices that order participation and action

School Choice and Student Well-Being A. Kelly, 2007-08-16 This review of research in school choice adapts Sen's theory of Capability developing a more complex theoretical framework for understanding education markets This gives those most affected by the perceived failure of public education a better explication of the tension between the rhetoric of public good and the reality of everyday disadvantage

Home-School Work in Britain John Bastiani, Sheila Wolfendale, 2013-12-19 First Published in 1996 This book forms part of a series that brings together wide ranging contributions which are written from both professional and parental viewpoints offer an assessment of what has been achieved explore a number of problematic issues and experiences and illustrate developments that are beginning to take shape It will appeal to those with a special interest in and commitment to home school work in all its actual and potential facets This book like the series it introduces is an attempt to capture the flavour of home school work in Britain in the 1990s It conveys a mixture of familiar concerns and recent developments of shared interests and differences of approach that relate to differences of setting and circumstance

Father Involvement in Young Children's Lives Jyotsna Pattnaik, 2012-12-30 This vital addition to Springer's Educating the Young Child series addresses gaps in the literature on father involvement in the lives of young children a topic with a fast rising profile in today's world of female breadwinners and single parent households While the significant body of theoretical understanding and empirical data accumulated in recent decades has done much to characterize the fluidity of evolving notions of fatherhood the impact of this understanding on policy and legal frameworks has been uneven at an international level In a field where groups of fathers were until recently marginalized in research this book adopts a refreshingly inclusive attitude aiming to motivate researchers to capture the nuanced practices of fathers in minority groups such as those who are homeless gay imprisoned raising a disabled child or from ethnically distinct backgrounds including Mexican and African American and indigenous fathers The volume includes chapters highlighting the unique challenges and possibilities of father involvement in their children's early years of development Contributing authors have integrated theories research policies and programs on father involvement so as to attract readers with diverse interest and expertise and material from selected countries in Asia Australia and Africa as well as North America evinces the international scope of their analysis Their often interdisciplinary analyses draw too on historical and cultural legacies even as they project a vision of the future in which fathers involvement in their young children's lives develops alongside the changing political economic and educational landscapes around the world

The Palgrave Handbook of Race and Ethnic Inequalities in Education Peter A.J. Stevens, A. Gary Dworkin, 2019-07-05 This authoritative state of the art reference work builds on its first edition to provide a cutting edge systematic review of the relationship between race ethnicity and educational inequality Studying 25 different national contexts drawn from every inhabited continent on earth and building upon material from the earlier edition the work analyses educational policies practices and research on minority students immigrants and refugees The editors and contributors explore principal research traditions from countries as diverse as Argentina China Norway and South Africa examining the factors promoting social cohesion as well as considerations regarding the use of international test score data Seamlessly integrating findings of national reviews the editors and contributors analyse how national contexts of race ethnic relations shape the character and content of educational inequalities and deftly map out new directions for future research in the area Global in its perspective and definitive in content this one stop volume will be an indispensable reference resource for a wide range of academics students and researchers in the fields of education sociology race and ethnicity studies and social policy Chapter 20 of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4 0 license at SpringerLink https://link.springer.com/chapter/10.1007/978-3-319-94724-2\_20
