Paris Along The Nile:

Paris Along the Nile Cynthia Myntti, 2014 Cairo Mother of the World its vividly diverse neighborhoods and building styles reveal its cosmopolitan energy and reflect the myriad of economic political and cultural forces that have shaped the city over the centuries So impressed was Khedive Ismail after a visit to Haussman's new Paris in 1867 that he decided to build a modern city along the same architectural lines and aesthetics and brought European architects to Cairo to initiate Egypt's most dynamic building period since medieval times The stunning buildings of late nineteenth and early twentieth century Cairo remain but they are neglected threatened by pollution and are being pulled down for concrete highrises and parking lots Paris along the Nile captures in 200 black and white photographs the architectural jewels of modern Cairo Breaking the Mirror of Heaven Robert Bauval, Ahmed Osman, 2012-07-26 Exposes the many cycles of monument destruction and cultural suppression in Egypt from antiquity to the present day Details the vandalism of Egyptian antiquities and suppression of ancient knowledge under foreign rulers who sought to cleanse Egypt of its pagan past Reveals the real reason behind Napoleon's invasion of Egypt Freemasonry Shows how the censorship of nonofficial Egyptology as well as new archaeological discoveries continued under Antiquities Minister Zahi Hawass Called the Mirror of Heaven by Hermes Thoth and regarded as the birthplace of civilization science religion and magic Egypt has ignited the imagination of all who come in contact with it since ancient times from Pythagoras and Plato to Alexander the Great and Napoleon to modern Egyptologists the world over Yet despite this preeminence in the collective mind Egypt has suffered considerable destruction over the centuries Even before the burning of the Great Library at Alexandria the land of the pharaohs was pillaged by its own people With the arrival of foreign rulers both Arabic and European the destruction and thievery continued along with suppression of ancient knowledge as some rulers sought to cleanse Egypt of its pagan past Exploring the many cycles of destruction and suppression in Egypt as well as moments of salvation such as the first registered excavations by Auguste Mariette Robert Bauval and Ahmed Osman investigate the many conquerors of Egypt through the millennia as well as what has happened to famous artifacts such as the Rosetta Stone They show how Napoleon through his invasion wanted to revive ancient Egyptian wisdom and art because of its many connections to Freemasonry They reveal how the degradation of monuments theft of relics and censorship of ancient teachings continue to this day Exposing recent cover ups during the tenure of Antiquities Minister Zahi Hawass they explain how new discoveries at Giza were closed to further research Clearing cultural and historical distortions the authors reveal the long hidden and persecuted voice of ancient Egypt and call for the return of Egypt to its rightful place as the Mother of Nations and the Mirror of Heaven Cities as Built and Lived Environments Aptin Khanbaghi, 2019-07-31 These 200 abstracts in English Arabic and Turkish showcase scholarship that examines cities as built architecture and urban infrastructure and lived urban social life and culture environments The Zodiac of Paris Jed Z. Buchwald, Diane Greco Josefowicz, 2021-10-12 The clash of faith and science in Napoleonic France The Dendera zodiac an ancient bas relief temple ceiling adorned with mysterious symbols of the stars and planets was first discovered by the French during Napoleon's campaign in Egypt and quickly provoked a controversy between scientists and theologians Brought to Paris in 1821 and ultimately installed in the Louvre where it can still be seen today the zodiac appeared to depict the nighttime sky from a time predating the Biblical creation and therefore cast doubt on religious truth The Zodiac of Paris tells the story of this incredible archeological find and its unlikely role in the fierce disputes over science and faith in Napoleonic and Restoration France The book unfolds against the turbulence of the French Revolution Napoleon's breathtaking rise and fall and the restoration of the Bourbons to the throne Drawing on newspapers journals diaries pamphlets and other documentary evidence Jed Buchwald and Diane Greco Josefowicz show how scientists and intellectuals seized upon the zodiac to discredit Christianity and how this drew furious responses from conservatives and sparked debates about the merits of scientific calculation as a source of knowledge about the past The ideological battles would rage until the thoroughly antireligious Jean-François Champollion unlocked the secrets of Egyptian hieroglyphs and of the zodiac itself Champollion would prove the religious reactionaries right but for all the wrong reasons The Zodiac of Paris brings Napoleonic and Restoration France vividly to life revealing the lengths to which scientists intellectuals theologians and conservatives went to use the ancient past for modern purposes

The Architecture of Home in Cairo Mohamed Gamal Abdelmonem, 2016-03-03 The hawari of Cairo narrow non straight alleyways are the basic urban units that have formed the medieval city since its foundation back in 969 AD Until early in the C20th they made up the primary urban divisions of the city and were residential in nature Contemporary hawari by contrast are increasingly dominated by commercial and industrial activity This medieval urban maze of extremely short broken zigzag streets and dead ends are defensible territories powerful institutions and important social systems While the hawari have been studied as an exemplar for urban structure of medieval Islamic urbanism and as individual building typologies this book is the first to examine in detail the socio spatial practice of the architecture of home in the city It investigates how people live communicate and relate to each other within their houses or shared spaces of the alleys and in doing so to uncover several new socio spatial dimensions and meanings in this architectural form In an attempt to re-establish the link between architecture past and present and to understand the changing social needs of communities this book uncovers the notion of home as central to understand architecture in such a city with long history as Cairo It firstly describes the historical development of the domestic spaces indoor and outdoor and provides an inclusive analysis of spaces of everyday activities in the hawari of old Cairo It then broadens its analysis to other parts of the city highlighting different customs and representations of home in the city at large Cairo in the context of this book is represented as the most sophisticated urban centre in the Middle East with different and sometimes contrasting approaches to the architecture of home as a practice and spatial system In order to analyse the complexity and interconnectedness of the components and elements of the hawari as a collective home it layers its narratives of architectural and social developments as a domestic environment over the past two hundred years and in doing so explores the in depth social meaning and performance of spaces both private and public Historians in Cairo George T. Scanlon, 2002 There can be few if any historians working in the wide field of Middle East Studies and certainly none in the world of Islamic art and architecture who are unacquainted with historian and archaeologist George Scanlon At different times from the mid 1950s to the present day he has lived worked and studied in Egypt For a major part of that period he has been associated with the American University in Cairo where he is currently professor of Islamic art and architecture in the Department of Arabic Studies Although diverse in subject matter the essays collected here in his honor together present a composite picture of Cairo and more broadly of Islamic history and culture from early medieval times to the present day As such they provide a fitting tribute to one of the most eminent of scholars in the field Some contributors are one time students of Professor Scanlon others are colleagues who over the years have worked with him in Egypt the United States or Britain The essays themselves reflect the wide variety of sources contributors have drawn on from international Islamic collections and archives for topics that range broadly from medieval artifacts architecture and society to current issues of law literature philosophy and urban change

Arab Patriotism Adam Mestyan, 2020-11-03 Arab Patriotism presents the essential backstory to the formation of the modern nation state and mass nationalism in the Middle East While standard histories claim that the roots of Arab nationalism emerged in opposition to the Ottoman milieu Adam Mestyan points to the patriotic sentiment that grew in the Egyptian province of the Ottoman Empire during the nineteenth century arguing that it served as a pivotal way station on the path to the birth of Arab nationhood Through extensive archival research Mestyan examines the collusion of various Ottoman elites in creating this nascent sense of national belonging and finds that learned culture played a central role in this development Mestyan investigates the experience of community during this period engendered through participation in public rituals and being part of a theater audience He describes the embodied and textual ways these experiences were produced through urban spaces poetry performances and journals From the Khedivial Opera House's staging of Verdi's Aida and the first Arabic magazine to the Urabi revolution and the restoration of the authority of Ottoman viceroys under British occupation Mestyan illuminates the cultural dynamics of a regime that served as the precondition for nation building in the Middle East

Making Cairo Medieval Nezar AlSayyad, Irene A. Bierman, Nasser Rabbat, 2005-03-25 During the nineteenth century Cairo witnessed once of its most dramatic periods of transformation Well on its way to becoming a modern and cosmopolitan city by the end of the century a medieval Cairo had somehow come into being While many Europeans in the nineteenth century viewed Cairo as a fundamentally dual city physically and psychically split between East West and modern medieval the contributors to the provocative collection demonstrate that in fact this process of inscription was the result of restoration practices museology and tourism initiated by colonial occupiers The first edited volume to address nineteenth century Cairo both in terms of its history and the perception of its achievements this book will be an essential text for courses in architectural and art history dealing with the Islamic world

Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art & Architecture: Three-Volume Set Jonathan Bloom, Sheila Blair, 2009-05-14 The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture deals with all aspects of Islamic art and architecture ranging from the Middle East to Central Asia to Southeast Asia and Africa The volumes cover all subject areas in Islamic art including artists rulers writers architecture ceramics sculpture metalwork painting calligraphy textiles and more The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture provides unparalleled scope and depth on this rapidly growing area of interest It offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as more than 500 plans maps diagrams

illustrations and colour plates Similar in scope and design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this three volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order The shorter more factual articles none shorter than 50 words are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of the art forms in various geographical locations Paris Hollywood Peter Wollen, 2020-05-05 In this new collection of essays on film all written over the last ten years Peter Wollen explores an extraordinarily wide range of topics stretching from an analysis of Time in Film and Video Art to a study of Riff Raff Realism in British films There are provocative discussions of the works of established auteur directors such as Howard Hawks and Alfred Hitchcock and of the film making careers of such experimental movie makers as William Burroughs and Viking Eggeling the dadaist pioneer of abstract film The collection also includes fascinating studies of a number of film classics such as John Huston's Freud Jean Renoir's Rules of the Game and Ridley Scott's Blade Runner Other essays deal with the relationship of film to the other arts such as dance and architecture and explore the interaction between film and anthropology This is not a theoretical book but it is one that suggests many new approaches to thinking about film and many unexpected connections between film studies and the history of such strangely related activities as espionage psychoanalysis Stalinism love of speed and digital technology Full of fascinating new insights Peter Wollen's new book is based on the premise that there are no fixed ways of writing about film but rather a plethora of paths leading in very different directions each contributing to a new understanding of the twentieth century's major art form
